

Manslaughter Case in District Court

NO CHANGE IN PERSONNEL OF LOWELL'S MOTORCYCLE POLICE SQUAD

ANDREW W. HUNTER

WALTER KIVLAN

FRANK H. MURPHY

DANIEL M. LYNCH

BERNARD L. JUDGE

CHARLES A. HAMILTON

The personnel of Lowell's motorcycle police squad will be the same as last year, Supt. Atkinson announced today. This means that within a short time, next week, perhaps, the following officers will resume their activities on the highways: Walter L. Kivlan, Charles A. Hamilton, Frank H. Murphy, Bernard Judge, Andrew W. Hunter and Daniel M. Lynch. Each of the above officers has been doing special work since the motorcycles were "called in" last November. On Saturday last, bids for new motorcycles were opened in the city purchasing agent's office, and Edward J. Bellerose has been named to supply the department with six brand new Harley-Davidson machines. The superintendent and the officers have selected special police models, which are expected to be delivered early next week. With the resumption of motorcycle activities, there are likely to be a few changes in the department. The superintendent was not prepared this morning to make any statement concerning any possible changes. Officer Hunter's transfer from the liquor squad to motorcycle duty leaves a vacancy in Capt. Palmer's department, and it has not been decided who will fill the position.

SUIT FOR $5000 AS RESULT OF AUTOMOBILE ACCIDENT

James J. Brennan Seeks Compensation for Injuries Sustained When Struck by Automobile Alleged to Be Owned by Ernest Beaudoin—Case Goes to Jury

An action of tort brought by James J. Brennan against Ernest Beaudoin, both of Lowell, was tried in superior court here this forenoon before Judge Richard W. Irvin. The ad damnum is $5000.

The plaintiff seeks compensation for injuries sustained when struck by an automobile in Central street, near Abbot street, driven by Ernest J. Feeney, employed in the grocery store of the defendant. The accident happened on the night of Dec. 22, 1923.

During the testimony offered it was brought out that the car being driven by Feeney was the property of the defendant's brother. The defense argued that at the time of the accident Feeney was not on his employer's business, while the prosecution sought to show that Feeney used the car with the knowledge and sanction of Beaudoin.

The case was given to the jury at 12:30 o'clock.

Hon. James B. O'Donnell represented the plaintiff, with Atty. H. V. Charbonneau for the defense.

The next case on the list was an action brought by Herford N. Elliott to recover a real estate commission to the amount of $1000. The defendants are Donabed Kacanjan and wife, Florence.

The plaintiff claims his salesman, William D. Leggett, found a customer for defendant's property in Gorham street and that he is entitled to commission. The defendants say they did not employ the plaintiff as a real estate agent and that customers produced by him did not make satisfactory offers to purchase the property.

Mr. Wier of Trull, Wier & O'Donnell for the plaintiff and Francis M. Qua of Qua, Howard & Rogers for the defendant.

TESTIMONY DIRECTLY DENIES CHARGES AGAINST WHEELER

Borah Committee Began Probe of Indictment—Gordon Campbell Flatly Denies Wheeler Acted for Him Before Interior Department

WASHINGTON, April 17.—Testimony directly denying the charge pending against Senator Burton K. Wheeler, in Montana, was heard today at the outset of hearings on the subject before a special investigating committee of the senate.

Gordon Campbell, a Montana geologist, indicted with the senator, testified that Mr. Wheeler never had appeared in his behalf before the interior department in Washington in land cases, as charged in the indictment. He declared the senator had insisted that he could have nothing to do with land cases after his election to the senate but did represent the Campbell interest in the Montana state courts for a fee of $10,000 annually.

Former Representative Tom Stout of Montana, told the committee he had approached Wheeler on the subject of acting as counsel for Campbell in state litigation and that Wheeler himself had raised the point of his inability to handle any cases except in the state courts.

About a month ago, Campbell said, "he telegraphed Wheeler when they were going to pull some of my casing" in oil wells on public land. "They" referred to the bank which had foreclosed.

"Is there no way for the government to stop running these wells," the message to Wheeler said.

Campbell produced a copy of Wheeler's reply, saying he was advised that the government could not intervene in the bank's plan to sell the casing under a foreclosed mortgage.

Another Campbell telegram to Wheeler was presented, relating to the "Laramie permit." It asked Wheeler to arrange a conference with Solicitor Booth of the interior department. Senator Wheeler's office replied that the senator had seen Booth and that the latter would see Campbell when he came to Washington.

NO HOLIDAY FOR LETTER CARRIERS

Owing to the push of Easter mail at the local postoffice, letter carriers will work all day Saturday instead of enjoying the usual Saturday afternoon curtailment and the regular week-day deliveries will be made in both the residential and business sections of the city.

This announcement was made by postmaster Naylor A. Delisle today and notices to this effect were posted throughout the postoffice building and the several branches in the city. Curtailment Saturday, said the postmaster, with an extra heavy Easter mail collecting at the postoffice, would result in many persons not receiving their Easter mail on time and would also cause congestion at the office which could not be straightened out for several days.

Patriots day is not a federal holiday, but so that it might be observed partially at the postoffice, postmaster Delisle today issued instructions to the effect that all windows in the main postoffice and its several branches would be closed at 3 o'clock in the afternoon instead of remaining open until 5 or 6 o'clock as is the custom.

The Easter mail poured into the postoffice yesterday afternoon and this morning in a steady stream and from the amount handled so far, the postmaster believes this year's rush will be far more severe than last year's or any previous year's. The carriers and clerks are working in "high speed," however, according to the postmaster, and the mail is being handled in a very satisfactory manner.

By light-years is meant the number of years required for light to travel from a star to us.

PROCTER, WHO FINANCED WOOD'S CAMPAIGN IN 1920, TO TESTIFY

WASHINGTON, April 17.—William Cooper Procter of Cincinnati notified Senator Walsh of the senate oil committee today that he would arrive in Washington tomorrow in response to the committee subpoena served upon him yesterday. He financed the campaign of Leonard Wood in 1920 and is to be questioned concerning campaign contributions and happenings at the Chicago convention.

Phil Baer, United States marshal for the eastern district of Texas, testified at today's hearing regarding his acquaintance with the late Jake Hamon.

Baer said he was a delegate to the Chicago convention and that Hamon sought to get the Texas delegation to vote solidly for Lowden. He added that the delegation was split between Wood, Lowden and Harding.

The witness said he had never had any conversation with Hamon about Hamon's ambitions politically. He denied that after the Hamon funeral he had any conversation with John Smith of Paris, Texas, who recently told the committee that Baer said to him that Hamon intended to make Baer rich if he got to be secretary of the interior.

Senators Lodge and Willis Confer With Pres. Coolidge on Immigration Bill

WASHINGTON, April 17.—The fate of the immigration bill with its Japanese exclusion provision was involved in another conference today between President Coolidge and Senator Lodge, prior to resumption of senate debate on the measure.

Senator Lodge said the immigration question had been discussed but would not say whether he had obtained any information as to the probable action of the president when the measure reaches the White House.

Senator Willis, republican, Ohio, who with Senator Lodge, supported the Japanese exclusion provision, conferred with the president after Lodge.

DESTROY BENCHES ON SOUTH COMMON

An act of vandalism in the South common, committed some time between 1 o'clock and daylight on Tuesday morning, has incensed the personnel of the park department and spurred police into the conduct of a rigid investigation.

Fifteen new benches set out only this spring and extending in a diagonal line from the Hood factory to Highland street, were almost completely ruined, the slats of both seat and backs being shattered by heavy blows presumably from an axe. Authorities have no clues.

LOWELL REPRESENTED AT BOSTON MEETING

Lowell was represented today at an important meeting of the emergency board of the United Textile Workers of America and general organizers of the union, held at the Parker House in Boston.

The Sun is informed that this special session of the leaders of one of the largest textile workers' union organizations in New England was called for the purpose of discussing "the emergency New England textile situation." Nothing would be said about today's meeting plans at U.T.W. of A. district headquarters on Central street, this city, beyond the statement that Lowell textile workers would be represented at the Boston conference and that their interests in the questions to be discussed would be looked after carefully and faithfully.

Union textile leaders in many sections of New England believe that an attempt may be made shortly to lower the wages of textile operatives, especially those in cotton mills, which for the most part have been operating on curtailed schedules for several months. Harry Eastough, U.T.W. of A. warrier and organizer, who has frequently visited Lowell district in the past, was present at today's Boston meeting, with other organizers. Mr. Eastough has been doing organization work recently in the south. His headquarters are Pawtucket, R. I.

MANSLAUGHTER CHARGE Driver of Truck That Killed Child Arraigned in the District Court

Defendant Pleads Not Guilty
and is Held in $2000
Pending Inquest Report

Harry I. Brainard of 38 Marble street, Lawrence, was arraigned in district court this morning on a charge of manslaughter in connection with the death yesterday afternoon of 3-year-old Mary A. McCabe of 10 Butterfield street, who died in the Lowell Corporation hospital as the result of injuries sustained when she was struck by defendant's truck in Fletcher street, near Butterfield shortly before 2 o'clock yesterday.

Brainard pleaded not guilty and was continued in $2000 until May 6, or until such time as the inquest finding is returned.

The accident which resulted in the little girl's death occurred while Brainard was driving his truck along Fletcher street. At a point near Butterfield street, the little girl dashed across the street in the path of the approaching machine. The operator swerved to the left, but the rear end of his truck struck the girl in the head, knocking her down. She was rushed to the hospital and died at 3:05 P. M.

The truck is owned by Matthew J. Doyle of 357 Water Street, Lawrence, proprietor of the Lowell and Lawrence, and Lowell and Boston Transportation Co.

The McCabe girl is survived by her parents, Charles and Mary (Dyne) McCabe, two brothers, Charles J. and John P. McCabe, and one sister, Esther B. McCabe. The body was removed to the home at 10 Butterfield street by Undertakers James F. O'Donnell & Sons.

LOWELL OFFICIALS INVESTIGATE FIRE APPARATUS IN LYNN

Mayor and Purchasing Agent Accompanied on Tour of Inspection by City Solicitor—Mayor MacPhetres Escorts Lowell Men on Visit to Firehouses

City Solicitor J. J. Reynolds and Henry Kelly of the solicitor's office today accompanied Mayor Donovan and Purchasing Agent Donnelly to Lynn where fire apparatus was inspected. The delegation was escorted on the visits to firehouses by Mayor Herman A. MacPhetres. The purchasing agent is about to award contracts for two new triple combination pumping engines for the fire department and it was in connection with these purchases that the trip was made.

City Solicitor Reynolds yesterday visited the state department of public utilities at the suggestion of the mayor, to learn what if any actual saving in the cost of gas is resultant to the recent change in tariff by the Lowell Gas Light Co. spoken of at the time announced as in the nature of a reduction.

PATRIOTS DAY PROGRAMS IN LOCAL SCHOOLS

Patriots Day, the anniversary of the battles of Lexington and Concord which marked the beginning of the revolutionary war, was celebrated this afternoon in the elementary schools of the city with patriotic exercises, which consisted mainly of songs and stories of the American farmers who, by the bridge at Concord, "fired the shot heard round the world."

In many of the schools, Lowell Day exercises were held jointly with the Patriots Day observance and in these schools the reading of the school's prize winning essay in the Lowell Day essay contests was a feature of the exercises.

Where elaborate programs were prepared, the exercises were given in the school assembly halls but in a great many schools the exercises were continued to Page Seven

BOY HIT BY AUTOMOBILE IS BADLY INJURED

Victims Adamowski, aged 10 years, at present was badly hurt shortly after 12:30 o'clock this afternoon when he was struck and knocked down by an automobile at the corner of Lakeview avenue and Pleasant street, Driscoll. Amadee Popin of 557 Moody street, operator of the machine, picked the lad up and rushed him to the Corporation hospital where it is believed his injuries consist of a fractured leg and bruises. X-ray pictures were taken immediately upon his arrival there, however, to ascertain if any other injuries had been sustained.

REAL ESTATE TRANSFER

Preliminary papers were passed recently in the office of R. M. Humphrey, real estate dealer, for the transfer of a large investment property in the Belvidere section at an approximate price of $15,000.

The property is located at 9-11-13-15 Livermore street and consists of two 3-tenement blocks. Each tenement is of 6 rooms and is modern and well equipped. Included in the sale is approximately 6000 square feet of land. The grantor is Minnie J. Verriest and the purchaser is a local investor whose name is withheld until the passage of final papers.

REPARATION PROBLEM

Commission Engages in an Unofficial Exchange of Views—Plenary Session

PARIS, April 17.—(By the Associated Press) The reparations commission engaged today in an unofficial exchange of views concerning the attitude to be adopted after receipt of Germany's reply accepting the experts' reports as a practical basis for solution of the reparations problem.

The commission is meeting in plenary session this afternoon, when it is expected its official decision will be taken. In reparations circles it is believed the commission will immediately refer the reports to the interested governments.

At the conclusion of the unofficial session, Louis Barthou, president of the commission said: "Solution of the reparations problem appears to be in a fair way of realization."

DALLAS, Tex., April 17.—Governor Neff, continuing his campaign in Texas for an unopposed re-election to the national democratic convention today challenged William G. McAdoo to answer his charge that Mr. McAdoo's record makes him unfit to be the democratic standard bearer this year.

The chaotic condition of politics at present makes it unwise, Governor Neff said to the Texas delegates to any candidate. The candidate selected today may be indicted tomorrow, such is the uncertainty of "this investigating age."

Governor Neff insists that he has nothing personal against either McAdoo or Hon. Underwood. He said he could not criticize their professional conduct, but "when they aspired to become the standard bearer of the democratic party in the year when it seems victory may perch on the democratic standard, that is a horse of another color."

HENRY F. HURLBURT DEAD

Twice President of Boston Bar Association—Prosecuted "Auto Ring" Cases

BOSTON, April 17.—Harry F. Hurlburt, twice president of the Boston Bar Association and one of the most prominent lawyers in Massachusetts, died yesterday afternoon at the "Great Hall" hospital. He had been failing for 8 years. His home was at 1110 Beacon st., Brookline.

With Mr. Hurlburt when he died was his son, Harry F. Hurlburt, Jr., and immediate members of his family. Henry Francis Hurlburt was distinguished in the practice of both criminal and civil law. Despite numerous private professional triumphs, his record makes him unfit to be the democratic standard bearer this year.

At the conclusion of the unofficial session, Louis Barthou, president of the commission said: "Solution of the reparations problem appears to be in a fair way of realization."

EXPLOSIVE POWDER BAFFLES POLICE

Local and state police have been trying for a long time to solve the nature of the substance used by firebugs in "firing" buildings. As a general rule, the evidence is quickly devoured by the flames, with the result that nothing really definite has been learned as to the methods employed. Kerosene oil was a favorite with incendiaries for a long time, but modern firebugs have resorted to a new method, that of using an explosive powder, which is spread all over the building doomed to destruction.

Supr. Atkinson is inclined to believe that professionals use a liquid celluloid mixture, one of the most hazardous inflammables in existence, and a ready prey to flames. Powders and liquids, with the exception of kerosene, have rarely been used in Lowell, the superintendent believes.

"MY IRISH ROSE"

Rehearsals are being held daily for the presentation of the three act comedy, "My Irish Rose" by St. Columba's Dramatic club, under the direction of "Tom" Beane, assisted by Michael Mahoney. Both men are well known in amateur theatricals and through their efforts and those of Rev. Cornelius Cotter a mighty fine cast has been brought together. Many who saw "Only 35" at the high school auditorium last year will remember with pleasure the demure and pleasing part of the "Widow" portrayed by Miss Alice Carey. In "My Irish Rose" Alice has adapted herself to the part of Ann Mary as finely as she did to the "Widow" last year. "Jack" Carroll shares honors with Miss Carey in the role of Colum McCornack, brother to Ann Mary. Jack's versatility on the boards is well known and in the part of Colum he is at his best. The play will be presented at the Academy of Music, Dutton street, on the evenings of April 24 and 25.

THREE BANDITS TAKE $50,000

Gunmen Held Up Two Postal Employees in South St. Paul and Seize Pouches

Five Mail Bags With $50,000 in Cash and Quantity of Registered Mail Taken

ST. PAUL, Minn., April 17.—Fifty thousand dollars in currency was included in the loot obtained by three bandits who held up two postal employees in South St. Paul today, escaping with five pouches containing a large quantity of registered mail. The robbery occurred at the Chicago Great Western station just after a train had unloaded the pouches, one of which contained the $50,000 payroll for Armour & Co.'s South St. Paul plant.

As the pouches were being loaded onto a truck, the bandits drew up in an automobile, two armed with post-drawn revolvers, forcing two postal employees to surrender the bags.

100TH ANNIVERSARY OF DEATH OF LORD BYRON

ATHENS, Greece, April 17.—The 100th anniversary of the death of Lord Byron was inaugurated yesterday with various ceremonies, including laying the first stone of a memorial donated by Mrs. Henry Morgenthau wife of the former American ambassador to Turkey.

BODY OF MAN IN ICE POND

FITCHBURG, April 17.—The body of an unidentified man, about 30 years old, six feet tall and weighing 160 pounds, was found in Greene's ice pond, off Ashby road, today. He wore a brown suit bearing the trade mark of a Boston store and the initials "B.E.P." were in his cap. Dr. S. Woodworth, medical examiner, and the police say that the body had been in the water several days. They could find no evidence of foul play. In one of the pockets a bottle containing alcohol was found. As the police have no record of a missing person answering the description, it is believed that the victim was a resident of Boston or vicinity.

OLIVER BALDWIN TO OPPOSE LLOYD GEORGE

LONDON, April 17.—Oliver Baldwin, socialist member of parliament and son of former Premier Stanley Baldwin, is said by the newspapers to be contemplating opposing David Lloyd George, as the labor candidate in the Carnarvon district at the next parliamentary election. It is stated that branches of the socialist party have been established in most of the towns throughout the constituency and that Mr. Baldwin has spent several months there learning the Welsh language.

EX-MAYOR FOSS TO RUN FOR CONGRESS

FITCHBURG, April 17.—In a statement issued today, Benjamin A. Cook of this city formally announces that Frank H. Foss, chairman of the republican state committee and ex-mayor of Fitchburg, will be a candidate for the republican nomination for congress in the Third Massachusetts district after President Coolidge's nomination is assured.

SCHOOL GIRLS TO RUN STORE

BRIDGEPORT, Conn., April 17.—A new sensation is exciting a very senior class member in Bridgeport high school and every girl is busily preparing to play her part next Tuesday, when the girls will take charge of a big department store, and conduct its business for one full day.

$300,000 LOSS BY FIRE

St. Anne's Church One of 29 Buildings Destroyed at Manchaug—60 Homeless

MANCHAUG, April 17.—Sixty persons were made homeless, 29 buildings destroyed and other buildings threatened when fire swept the business and residential section of Manchaug—a village in the town of Sutton, about 14 miles south of Worcester—yesterday afternoon, causing damage estimated at between $250,000 and $300,000.

Among the structures destroyed were St. Anne's Catholic church, St. Anne's parochial school, the convent of Sisters of the Holy Ghost, St. Jean Baptiste hall, 16 private houses, a few small stores, barns and out-buildings.

The cause of the fire has not been determined, although it is the belief of the firemen, who fought the flames for five hours, that it started in a parlor near the chimney, over the garage owned by Joseph Connelly.

HAMON'S WIDOW SAYS SHE WAS JOKING

CHICAGO, April 17.—Mrs. Georgia Hamon Rohrer, widow of Jake L. Hamon, Oklahoma oil man and politician, said she was joking when she declared she would not appear before the senate investigating committee in answer to a summons.

"I was not defiant," she said, "I merely said that all the necessary papers were out in Oklahoma, and that I would have to wait until the committee forwarded me expenses before I started out west after the documents."

As to the remark about being a demagogue and therefore not going to go before the committee that was meant to fool."

WELCOMES ADHESION OF ITALY TO REPORT

ROME, April 17.—Commenting on Premier Mussolini's interview with Chas. G. Dawes and other republican experts, the Corriere d'Italia today says it welcomes the admission of the Italian government to the report and the spirit by which it was dictated. It notes, however, that the Dawes report admits the possibility of continued military occupation of the Ruhr. The newspaper expresses the opinion that if Premier Poincaré accepts only what it calls the negative parts of the report, it will share the fate of all the other efforts to restore normal conditions in Europe and will end in another futile conference.

IRISH FREE STATE

Second Loan to Balance Accounts of Government

LONDON, April 17.—A second loan will be necessary to balance the 1924 accounts of the Irish Free State government, says the Morning Post's Dublin correspondent. The loan, he adds, will be floated in America, probably about mid-summer.

MUSSOLINI STUDIES EXPERTS' REPORTS

ROME, April 17.—Premier Mussolini yesterday examined the reports submitted to the reparations commission by the two expert committees. He was assisted in his examination of the documents by the Italian delegates who served on the committees. The attitude to be taken by Italy in the forthcoming settlement was discussed.

HEARINGS ON ARTICLE 23

WASHINGTON, April 17.—Hearings on further postponement of operation of section 23 of the merchant marine act began before the Interstate Commerce commission today on petition of representatives of a number of ship-owners. Operation of the section gives preferential railroad freight rates on goods to be shipped in American vessels. The present effective date of the section is May 20.

THREATEN TO REMOVE TELEPHONE BOOTHS

NEW YORK, April 17.—Three thousand druggists are threatening to remove telephone booths from their stores unless the telephone company gives them a larger share of the receipts. They want 25 per cent. and declare that the present percentage does not pay for the nuisance of making change or for the space taken up by the booths. They also contend that the telephones bring them little trade. Pledge cards have been mailed to all members of the New York drug conference and when these are returned an ultimatum will be delivered to the telephone company.

The total output of coal for the world in 1922 was 1,332,000,000 short tons.

SETTLEMENT REACHED IN SEARLES CASE

NEW YORK, April 17.—The suit brought by Judge Harry C. Curtis, of Warwick and Providence, R. I., against Edward F. Searles, for $325,000 in legal fees, was settled in supreme court today.

The settlement, the details of which were kept secret, was effected at a conference of counsel for both sides in the chambers of Justice Proskauer before resumption of the trial today.

Judge Curtis sued for legal services rendered Mr. Searles on three occasions. He said that through his efforts young Searles got $4,150,000 from the $35,000,000 estate of his uncle; that the plain-

MRS. PINCHOT HAS GERMAN MEASLES

PRESSING WOOL

Do not dampen woolen garments before pressing them. Use a cheese-cloth wrung very dry out of warm water and iron the material over that.

ACTORS' STRIKE ON JUNE FIRST PREDICTED

NEW YORK, April 17.—Predictions that an actors' strike would be started throughout the country on June 1, were freely made in theatrical circles today after the statement issued by the Actors' Equity association, that it had terminated negotiations with the Producing Managers association and had rejected a proposed compromise agreement. One prominent manager, who has been a party to the negotiations, declared a theatrical war was unavoidable, and that it certainly would be waged with vigor and bitterness by both sides.

The Equity association, according to the statement, declined the compromise because it "offered no guarantee that the life, the vitality of the organization will be maintained." The main point at issue is the insistence on the part of the actors that theatrical casts be recruited in the main from members of their association. If a strike is called, it will affect not only the theatres in New York but also all Equity members who are with road companies.

MAINE CENTRAL DIRECTORS

PORTLAND, Me., April 17.—The old board of directors of the Maine Central Railroad Co. was re-elected at the annual meeting yesterday of the stockholders. It was announced today. An attempt was made to replace a number of them.

141 NOW ENTERED FOR NOTED COLLEGE STARS IN MARATHON RACE

BOSTON, April 17.—After receiving yesterday's mail, Manager Tom Kinnely of the American Marathon of the Boston Athletic Association, which will be held next Saturday, announced that the entry had climbed to 141.

Eight more were added yesterday, Paul Noman of San Francisco, who came around from California by the way of the Panama Canal, sending in his name on reaching this city. William J. Churchill, the Olympic club runner, from the same city, told about Noman last week. He believes he will be a strong competitor over the route, if the long water journey does not handicap him.

Two more soldiers have been added, Antonio Sabalero, U. S. A., Fort Jay, N. Y., and John Holmes of Camp Taylor, Ky.

The others are Charles Denningham, Ipswich, Vincent J. Stronach, Boston; Bert Coyne, Eliza Associates, Malden; Mike Koski, Gloucester, Y.M.C.A.; and George Ramsey, Meadowbrook club, Philadelphia.

As all the veterans are listed, there can be few in the way of experienced runners who can be added.

All of the hard work has been done by the men. From now on, they will spend their time waiting for the start of the race.

Because of the importance attached to the race, William C. Prout, chairman of the Olympic selection committee, is very much worried, fearing congested roads owing to automobile traffic. Prout hopes the Boston public which always has been fair in its treatment of these annual runs, will again set the example of a high standard of sportsmanship.

YOUNG STRIBLING TO BOX PAUL BERLENBACH

NEW YORK, April 17.—The proposed six-round battle between Young Stribling, Georgian light heavyweight, who recently outpointed Mike McTigue, the world's champion, in a no-decision bout, and Paul Berlenbach, knockout sensation of the indoor season, will bring together the two most colorful young fighters of the ring.

Contracts have not been signed but it is understood that both have agreed to meet at the annual milk fund benefit to be held here in June, probably between the 25th and 26th.

JARRETT WILL ANSWER FOUR CHARGES

Joseph A. Jarrett, who was brought back to this city from New York Tuesday night for failing to answer four charges preferred against him in 1922, was called for the second time in district court this morning. He was continued in $1000 until April 21 on the following charges: Drunkenness, operating an automobile while he was under the influence of liquor, going away without making himself known after causing injury to property, and operating in a manner to endanger the lives and safety of the public.

A good way to clean upholstered furniture is to cover it with a bath towel and beat lightly, shaking the towel whenever it shows dust.

PHILADELPHIA, April 17.—The two-mile race, one of the features of the first day of the Pennsylvania relay carnival, April 22 and 23, will bring into competition probably one of the greatest fields of college distance runners in the history of the meet. Nearly every distance man of prominence in the country is entered and followers of the track look for a new record should running conditions be favorable. Poole of Cambridge University also had expected to compete in the event, but he broke down in training and was unable to accompany the English relay team to this country.

Among the 42 entries in the race are Moore of Columbia, national two-mile champion; McGilley of Bates, Interstate league titleholder; Doherty, of Tufts; New England cross-country champion; Leonard, Boston college; Trendelenburg, Yale; Gordon and Duncan, Princeton.

GARDELLA TO MANAGE FITCHBURG TEAM

FITCHBURG, April 17.—Official announcement was made today by John F. Kierman, owner of the Fitchburg franchise, in the reorganized Central league, that Gus Gardella of Hartford, veteran Eastern leaguer, has been signed as player-manager. Gardella belongs to Pittsfield. He has asked to be placed on the voluntary retired list so that his professional rating in organized baseball will not be impaired.

Gardella, in the Eastern league is a .300 hitter, and is considered one of the best players in the circuit. He captained Hartford when it won the pennant. One of Gardella's rivals will be Jocko Conlon, former Harvard star, who was given a tryout in the big league, and who will run the Nashua, N. H., club.

SMITH-SHADE BOUT CALLED OFF

TROTZKY UPHOLDS M. LINOVIEFF

MOSCOW, April 17.—War Minister Trotzky, speaking at Baku, is reported to have upheld M. Zinovief's statements that Russia will not meet the claims put forward by the British and that an agreement is possible only if both countries start with a clean slate, after which the soviet government will meet any obligations the Russian delegation may sign at the London conference.

WINS HARVARD FELLOWSHIP

CAMBRIDGE, April 17.—Freddie Van Winkle, of Boston Ayres, Arceneville, was announced today as the winner of the Charles Elliot Norton fellowship at Harvard for study next year at the American school of classical studies at Athens. He is a graduate of the University of California, a former student at the University of Arizona and a second year student in the School of Architecture at Harvard.

MISSING AIRMEN SAFE

Maj. Martin and Mechanician Recuperating — Globe Flight is Delayed

KANATAK, Portage Bay, Alaska, April 17.—Major Frederick L. Martin, commander of the United States around-the-world squadron, and his mechanic, Sergeant Alva Harvey, were recuperating here today, while awaiting the arrival from Chignik island of a new engine for the flag-plane Seattle, after a forced landing Tuesday, at Cape Igvak, 170 miles northeast of Chignik, Alaska, en route to the latter place from Seward.

As a result of the accident the globe flight will be delayed about one week. The other three engines, were anchored safely today at Chignik. They arrived Tuesday under the temporary leadership of Lieut. Erik H. Nelson.

A crack in the crank case of the cruiser Seattle, causing a leakage of fuel, forced Major Martin to land at Cape Igvak. He and Harvey spent the night in their plane. Word was sent out by Lieut. Nelson at Chignik by wireless and two United States destroyers, the Curry and Hull, retraced their route of Seward in search of the lost plane. The destroyers arrived at the scene early yesterday and the Hull took Major Martin and his mechanic aboard, together with the air cruiser, and brought them to Kanatak.

Prepared to Hop Off

SEATTLE, Wash., April 17.—A message from Chignik, Alaska, reported that the world cruiser No. 2, 3 and 4, piloted by Smith, Wade and Nelson, are prepared to leave Chignik today for Dutch Harbor, weather permitting.

New Protest From Japanese

Washington, is to be recalled by the Japanese government, the newspaper Yomiuri declared today. The publication added that Foreign Minister Matsui will resign to appease the storm expected at the coming session of the imperial diet over the immigration problem. Both reports were officially denied.

Local Officials Investigate Lynn Fire Apparatus

tion for the common user. Mr. Reynolds received assurances that the data which he requested will be forwarded him without delay.

World Widens Stevens Street

Stevens street, from Pine to Parker streets, should be widened five feet on each side, in the opinion of City Engineer Stephen Kearney, who has recommended to the board of public service. The expense of such a move would be small in comparison to the benefit which would be derived thereby, the engineer says.

Some time ago the city council voted to ask the city engineer for an opinion as to the advisability of widening this street from Parker to Avery street. His attention thus being called to it, the engineer made a study of the situation.

Night Sessions Threatened

WASHINGTON, April 17.—With night sessions threatened to speed up action on the immigration bill, the senate tackled the tangled problem of quota percentages and the troublesome provision fixing the 1910 census as the basis of allotments to the various admissible nations.

Proposals to place one, two and three per cent. limits on the quotas were pending today, and differences among senators over the census basis were complicated by the provisions in the measure passed by the house designating the 1890 census figures as the basis for two per cent. quotas.

An amendment intended to establish a permanent quota basis, for the future, was adopted yesterday, providing that after July 1, 1927, unless congress directs otherwise in the meantime, the allotments shall be fixed in accordance with an analysis of the national origins of persons comprising the population of the continental United States in 1920. The survey and estimates would be made by the secretaries of state, commerce and labor, and would be made available by March 4, 1926.

Confession Exclusion

Japanese in Hawaii

HONOLULU, April 17.—Immigration officials announce that during the past decade, 37,211 Japanese were admitted to Hawaii, while 31,036 departed, resulting in an increase of 6175 to the Japanese community, exclusive of births, which usually outnumber those of all other racial divisions.

Italy Awaits Quota Decision

ROME, April 17.—Decision of the United States congress as to the basis for quotas under the new immigration law is being anxiously awaited here. It is pointed out that if the 1910 census is accepted as the basis, as was incorporated in the senate bill, approximately 20,000 more Italians may enter the United States yearly than under the 1890 census basis, which was incorporated in the measure as passed by the house.

The board of health has notified the state civil service commission of his selection to succeed Mr. Gurvey but ratification of the appointment, insofar as civil service requirements go, is awaited before he assumes his new duties.

Street Department Activities

Street department workmen today commenced laying edgework in Riverside street preparatory to macadamizing a portion thereof. Work will commence immediately that the edgeworks are set. Another gang of street department men today invaded the Highlands preparing streets in that section for their first spring coating of road oil.

Patrick H. Queenan, named by the board of health to succeed the late Thomas F. Gurvey as foreman of the health department yard, is still at work as an assistant foreman in the ashes and waste department. The board of health has notified the state civil service commission of his selection to succeed Mr. Gurvey but ratification of the appointment, insofar as civil service requirements go, is awaited before he assumes his new duties.

ation there and became convinced through this study that he should advise and recommend widening to Chelmsford street. A widening of five feet on each side would extend the width of the thoroughfare to 50 feet.

Stevens street, from Pine to Parker, was newly paved last year and that part of the street is 50 feet in width. There is a single track car line through the street when the city engineer contends makes widening of the 40-foot section doubly advisable.

TO END HEARING ON

MUSCLE SHOALS

WASHINGTON, April 17.—The senate agriculture committee sought to com-

Atterbury-Muscle Shoals proposal today so it might take up another bill

Elton H. Hooker, president of the Hooker Electro-Chemical Co. of Ning-ram Falls, was given an opportunity upon resumption of the hearing to complete his explanation of the bid which he and his two assistants have submitted.

A. H. Hooker, technical director of the company, was on hand to explain the technical phases of the proposal, and the two other principals, J. G.

White, who constructed two of the Muscle Shoals units for the government, and W. W. Atterbury, vice president in charge of operations of the Pennsylvania railroad, were prepared

FOCH BACK FROM ITALY

Witnessed Public Consistory

dinals Received Red Hat

Most Impressive Scene He Ever Saw—Will Remember it Until He Dies

PARIS, April 17.—Returning from his extended visit to Rome, Marshal Foch is quoted by the Petit Parisien as de-

which Cardinals Mandeloin and Hayes received the red hat "was the most impressive scene I ever saw in my life and will remain the outstanding feature in my memory until I die."

The marshal's lengthy interview was nearly four-fifths devoted to his impressions of the consistory and his private reception by the pope.

"The Holy Father is very fond of the American nation and has just shown it," he said, "and the Americans are very proud of it, as they have a right to be."

HELD IN CONNECTION

WITH SWINDLE

kaw, alias Philip Edward Andreu and J. H. Biggar, who gave their addresses as New York, are held here

ed last night upon their arrival from Miami, Fla., on suspicion of being involved in swindling.

A message from the Canadian authorities said that Andreu is wanted in London, Ont., on a charge of obtaining money under false pretences, and while they gave no details of

be detained.

ENDORSES LEGION

MEMBERSHIP RAID

James J. McManmon, president of Central Council and Division 1, Ancient Order of Illuminants, today gave the following endorsement to the mem-

Lowell Post, American Legion:

"Your order is named the American Legion. If the word American has any significance it means an unselfish determination to defeat individual liberty. There is no more worthy object than a determination to make successful the principles your Legion represents. There is no function of citizenship more desirable than a mem-

of co-operating to secure these results.

No service man is so strong as not to need its support or so weak as not to be able to render its assistance.

Wishing you great success, I am

JAMES J. McMANMON.

STILL EXPERIMENTING

WITH TRAFFIC MIXUP

Police Superintendent Atkinson, still experimenting with the traffic tankle solution, this morning said he had decided to permit vehicular traffic from Bridge street westward through

Palke street to Brookings street.

SAME SYMPTOMS IN MANY CASES

Anemic Condition Easily Recognized and Calls for Blood Builder

Many people will recognize in the description of an anemic, or bloodless, condition, as told by Mrs. Mary Allmang, of No. 112 Prospect Park, Syracuse, N. Y., symptoms which they suffer, for the characteristic symptoms of anemia are common to most cases.

"I was very weak and got out of breath easily," she says, "and my housework was like a mountain to me. I had no appetite and my nerves were so weak that any little excitement would make me tremble and shake like a leaf. I had a hard time getting to sleep and would get up in the morning all tired out. I had headaches a good deal and chills.

"Three boxes of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills built me up wonderfully. I gained strength and could do my work without that tired feeling. As my blood was built up, my nerves became stronger and the headaches went away. I could eat a good hearty meal and enjoy it. My daughter has also used the pills with benefit. Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are my family medicine and we find them a very reliable blood builder and tonic."

Get a box of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills at your druggist's today or write to the Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Schenectady, N. Y., enclosing sixty cents and a box will be sent you, postpaid. A little book, "Building Up the Blood," which explains the treatment, will be sent free on request.—Adv.

START DAY WITH EXERCISE

"The boss got out of the wrong side of the bed this morning," commented the stenographer to the office boy, as Mr. Mann went stamping around.

"Got up with a grouch," Mr. Mann himself admitted to a salesman.

Starting the day out wrong is a pet diversion with lots of people. Of course there can be something physically wrong that needs attention.

But, for the average person, there is no reason for the "wrong side of the bed" stunt.

The art of getting up in the morning is no mean art, and is practiced all too little.

First of all, roll over, stretching in bed, getting all the contractions limbered up. Then kick like a spotted child. Let the muscles of the back and legs get a little extra work it causes, the wife will be more than compensated by the disposition.

Roll up and then dance around the room a little, on one foot and then on another. Do a brief series of exercises, preferably those that will help the abdomen and diaphragm: bending exercises, leaning exercises and breathing exercises.

Don't over-exercise! Be careful not to have tiring exercises in the morning. Just enough to get a good start. Do this, and in a few mornings the grouch will take care of itself.

How To Keep A Child Healthy

A GENERATION ago parents thought that sickness was a part of a child's life, but we know better now. The secret is in the food the mother allows the child to eat, and in watching that elimination occurs regularly two or three times a day. Mrs. J. Russell of 19,141 Havana Ave., Detroit, Mich., keeps her family of two young children in perfect health with Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin, and Mrs. R. L. Smith of 519 Maple Ave., East Pittsburg, Pa., says her family of three children have never been sick a day since giving them Syrup Pepsin.

easy passage without griping or strain. It does not contain narcotics, and you can give it with absolute safety to an infant at the breast.

"Magic" in a Teaspoonful

Every store that sells medicines sells Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin, and the cost is less than a cent a dose. Give half a teaspoonful to any ailing baby or child at night when you put it to bed and you will find a happy, laughing youngster in the morning. Take Syrup Pepsin yourself when constipated, and give it to any member of the family young or old, for any ailment due to constipation, such as biliousness, headache, lack of appetite, sleeplessness, bad breath, cankers, fever sores, indigestion, and to break up fevers and colds. Stop that first sneeze or sniffle and you will have a healthy winter.

A Substitute for Physics

Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin is a scientific compound of Egyptian senna with pepsin and suitable aromatics. The formula is on every package. You will find you do not have to force children to take it, and it is much better for them than castor oil, calomel or coal-tar drugs like phenolphthalein even if covered with sugar or chocolate. Syrup Pepsin is mild and gentle in action and your child will have an

LUCID INTERPRETATION OF CONSTITUTION

"The Interpretation of the Constitution," the second of a series of five lectures on the constitution being given in the high school for the benefit of its students, was given last evening in a large lecture hall of the new school building by John H. McNabb. Mr. McNabb was introduced by Sub-Master Frederick Woodward.

In opening his talk, Mr. McNabb said: "In the first address of this course, you heard a history of the constitution. My theme is its interpretation and I know no better way to show how this came about than by giving you a short history of the great exponent of it, John Marshall. First chief justice of the supreme court."

"Marshall was born in a log cabin in the Blue Ridge country of Virginia and was one of 15 children of Thomas Marshall, cousin in a cavalry troop of the militia. In due time he grew to man's estate in a frontier environment, and was a great student of the law. It was a peculiar society of which this little Marshall formed a part and its surroundings were as strange as the society itself. Hardly more than one-third of the men who made deeds, according to Bruce, or served on juries, could sign their names and two-thirds of the better classes of women could do no more than sign their names."

"When the revolution came, the younger Marshall joined the militia as a lieutenant and his father served as a major. John Marshall had always worn a sword and a buff waistcoat."

"A simply fact will not embarrass you much longer if you get a package of Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets. The skin should begin to clear after you have taken the tablets a few nights."

"Cleanse the blood, bowels and liver with Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets, the successful substitute for calomel; there is no sickness or pain after taking them."

"Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets do that which calomel does, and just as effectively, but they are gentle and safe instead of severe and irritating. No one who takes Olive Tablets is ever cured with a 'dark brown taste,' a bad breath, a dull, listless feeling, constipation, torpid liver, bad disposition or pimply face."

"Olive Tablets are a purely vegetable compound mixed with olive oil; you will know them by their olive color."

"Dr. Edwards spent years among patients afflicted with liver and bowels troubles and Olive Tablets are the immensely effective result. Take one or two nightly for a week. See how much better you feel and look. See and see.—Adv."

FAMOUS OLD TONIC
STOPSPRINGFEVER

THERE is no better spring tonic than Gude's Pepto-Mangan. At this time of the year, everybody needs something to enrich the blood and tone up the system.

If you are beginning to feel listless and exhausted, get Gude's right away and begin to get the benefit of its wonderful strengthening, energizing qualities. It contains the iron your blood needs and the health giving invigorating elements to put you in fine trim for spring and summer. At your drug-gist's in both liquid and tablet form.

URIC ACID

Does NOT Cause Rheumatism!

Furthermore, I claim that this Acid is a NATURAL and NECESSARY constituent of the blood—that it is found in the body of every new-born babe—that without it we could not live! Strange statement? Yes—do you perhaps, because you have always been told differently.

But my book, "The Inner Mysteries of Rheumatism," just published, tells you the real truth about the rheumatism. Tells what actually causes it and how it is now being successfully treated in all its different forms and stages by entirely new, advanced scientific methods.

The writing of this unusual book is the result of my twenty years' study, experimentation and research in the disease and I want every sufferer of RHEUMATISM, NEURALGIA, SCIATICA, GOUT, etc., to read it. Therefore, at this valuable time, I will gladly send one complete copy only of the book absolutely free if you will send your address or that of any sufferer you may know, plainly written to:

Says His Prescription

Has Powerful Influence

Over Rheumatism

Mr. James H. Allen suffered for years with rheumatism. Many times this terrible disease left him helpless and unable to work.

He finally decided, after years of ceaseless study, that no one can be free from rheumatism until the accumulated impurities, commonly called uric acid deposits, were dissolved in the joints and muscles and expelled from the body.

With this idea in mind he consulted physicians, made experiments, and finally compounded a prescription that quickly and completely banished every sign and symptom of rheumatism from his system.

He freely gave his discovery, which he called Allorhu, to others who took to it with what might be called marvelous success. After years of urging he decided to let sufferers everywhere know about his discovery through the newspapers. He has therefore instructed A. W. Dows & Co. to dispense Allorhu with the understanding that if the first trial bottle does not show the way to complete recovery he will gladly return your money without comment.—Adv.

ULCERATION OF THE STOMACH

Nicely Healed by the Fruit
Treatment—"Fruit-a-lives"

What a precious gift is Health. Only those who have suffered through some serious illness seem to appreciate what a blessing it is!

Mr. S. J. Tuttle of South Edmeston, N. Y., is in a position to speak with authority on the value of the Fruit Treatment.

He says: "For years, I was troubled with Ulceration of the Stomach, which finally became so bad that for two or three years I could do no heavy work. Finally noticing your advertisements, I decided to try 'Fruit-a-lives.' From the first treatment, I improved and today I am a well man—ulceration all cleaned up, and if I should suffer from indigestion, I get relief by taking 'Fruit-a-lives.'"

Your dealer sells "Fruit-a-lives"—25c and 50c a box—or sent postpaid by Fruit-a-lives Limited, Ogdensburg, N. Y.—Adv.

served in various troops throughout the war as close to his hero as he could get.

"After the war, he attended a short course of law in William & Mary college and in 1783 became a member of the legislature and settled in Richmond. As we have seen, his law training was very limited; yet he had what judges call the legal mind and, aided by good health, integrity and an engaging disposition, he prospered and ten years later we find him struggling with the cleverest legal minds of the day in the British Creditors' case."

"In 1793, President Adams sent John Marshall and Elbridge Gerry of Massachusetts to Holland, where they met Pickney with orders to proceed to Paris and talk over the situation with the directory, which was waging war on our shipping. Talleyrand refused to see them unless given a personal gratuity of $250,000 and a loan of 32,000,000 Dutch florings—and received Pickney's famous reply, 'Millions for defense but not one cent for tribute.' After waiting three months and not receiving an audience, the commission returned home and Marshall wrote his report in the XYZ papers. The people were indignant and Marshall soon brought home to them how cheaply they were held across the water."

"It was then decided to have Marshall run for congress as a Nationalist. Opposed by the Jeffersonians, his election was secured only when Patrick Henry came to his assistance."

"In 1799 Marshall entered congress and upon the death of Washington he was selected as his biographer. In 1800 he was appointed secretary of state and in 1801, chief justice of the United States supreme court. The first case of any great magnitude brought before him was that concerning the legality of an appointment of a "midnight judge." Justices of the peace, by President Adams, known as the "Marbury case." The issue at stake was, 'what power, if any, could annul the acts of congress.' Despite threats of impeachment, Marshall rendered a sweeping decision making the principle of judicial supremacy over legislation as much a part of the fundamental law as if these specific words were contained in the constitution—that the supreme court shall have power to declare invalid an act of congress which in the opinion of the court is unconstitutional."

"The second important case was the impeachment trial of Justice Samuel Chase. This case was in reality the beginning of a drive against Marshall, for the Jeffersonians admitted if they succeeded in impeaching Chase, Marshall could be next. Chase was acquitted and an end was put to the removal of the supreme court by political bodies."

"Then came Aaron Burr's trial for treason, the question on which the trial hinged being 'whether the doctrine of constructive presence' could apply in his case. Marshall settled this case by deciding that treason consisted of an overt act against the government and must be proved by two witnesses or a confession in court. Burr was found not guilty on this decision."

"What Washington obtained with the sword, Marshall preserved with the pen. He loved his country with his life and he saved the only way by which she could be united was to put tooth into the constitution and make it a vital instrument and then insure an independent judiciary. To these ends he employed all his creative genius and it was through his fearless stand and by his bold interpretation, that your rights and mine are so well safeguarded today."

"So it came to pass that John Marshall and the supreme court became a centre about which swirled the forces of a fast gathering storm that raged with increasing fury until its thunders were the roar of cannon, its lightning the flashes of battle. In effect, John Marshall rewrote the fundamental law of the nation, or perhaps it would be more accurate to say, he made a written instrument a living thing, capable of growth, capable of keeping pace with the advancement of the American people."

"Only 6th, 1835, in his 50th year, he breathed his last. The whole nation mourned his loss and paid homage to his genius. Friend and foe alike had nothing but praise for his sterling virtues."

"Let me close with this tribute from the Richmond Enquirer, his ancient enemy and antagonist, because 'our enemies are just while our friends are only merciful.' It would be impossible to overpraise Marshall's brilliant talents. It would be a more grateful license to his memory to say that he was as much beloved as he was respected."

Alkali in Shampoos Bad for Washing Hair

Many soaps and prepared shampoos contain too much free alkali, which is very injurious, as it dries the scalp and makes the hair brittle.

The best thing to use is Mulsified coconut oil shampoo, for this is pure and entirely greaseless. It is inexpensive and costs nothing else all to pieces. You can get this of any drug store, and a few ounces will last the whole family for months.

Two or three teaspoonsful is all that is required. Simply moisten your hair with water and rub it in. It makes an abundance of rich, creamy lather, which cleanses thoroughly, and rinses out easily. The hair dries quickly and evenly, and is soft, fresh looking, bright, fluffy, wavy and easy to manage. Besides, it loosens and takes out every particle of dust, dirt and dandruff.—Adv.

LENT IN THE HOLY LAND

CALVARY, WHERE CHRIST DIED, is a disputed spot in Jerusalem. Here, however, is the site selected by ecclesiastics, and now one of the chapels covered by the Church of the Holy Sepulchre. Near this same spot, according to legend, the skull of Adam was found.

AT THE NORMAL SCHOOL

Students Entertained by Members of the School Literature Club

Over 275 students of the Lowell Normal school were yesterday afternoon given a rare treat by fellow students in the persons of Miss Catherine Graham and Miss Edna Lawrence, members of the Literature club of the school, under the presidency of Miss Rose Q. Leary.

Miss Graham, a comely Scotch lassie, gave beautiful interpretations of Robert Burns, "To a Mouse," "To a Mountain Daisy," "For a' That and a' That," "Jo' Anderson, My Jo." Miss Graham, who last June was graduated from the Glasgow Provincial Normal school, read the poems in true Scottish form, and her accurate, melodious enunciation won for her unlimited applause from the gathering before her.

Works from other Scottish writers, who lived about the time of Burns, were also read by Miss Graham and included, "O Wert Thou in the Cauld Blast," and "That's Ma Name." "The Land of the Leal" and "Old Robert Gray," were also well given by Miss Graham.

Sir Walter Scott's well known work, "Jo' o' Hazeldean," the story of a Scotch lassie and her plight, was exceptionally well rendered.

Perhaps, the most appealing, and the last, but not least of Miss Graham's interpretations, was "Cuddle Doon," a pretty, homely poem, reflecting home life in Scotland at bed-time, the usual cooing on mother's part, and the teasing managements of the children who upon hearing their father's step on the porch, "cuddle doon" and feign a sleeping attitude.

Miss Edna Lawrence gave a most accurate rendition of Joe Chandler Harris, better known as "Uncle Remus," mythical stories, in the southern negro dialect. "Uncle Remus," who lived in the 19th century, not only had the distinction of recording the folk lore of the negro race, but also is known for his accurate interpretation of the myths, legends, songs and sayings of the southern negro.

"Uncle Remus" in his stories, always treated his "dream children" as boys and girls, even the older folks, hence, he wrote innumerable stories on animals of the forest.

Miss Lawrence enhanced the vitality of the stories by rendering them in true southern dialect, and her stories about "Brer Rabbit," "Brer Wolf's Daughter" and "The DeLuxe," won for her the sincerest of applause. Miss Lawrence, besides being gifted with the art of interpreting southern selections, is a most accomplished violinist and vocalist, her renditions of negro spirituals being capably executed.

REPUBLICAN KEYNOTE SPEECH

Fortunate indeed is the republican party to have such an able man as Secretary Hughes to deliver the keynote speech of its national campaign. He has done it in splendid shape. He has made the best of a bad situation and we doubt whether there is another man in the government who could have so artistically glossed over the scandals at Washington or so eloquently upheld the course of President Coolidge since he was called to the White House.

In eulogizing Coolidge "as a platform in himself," Secretary Hughes made a master stroke of diplomacy, for the reason that he had absolutely no record of achievement by congress on which to dilate for the benefit of the party or the delectation of the country.

It is true, that he pointed to an alleged reduction in government expenditures in 1922 as compared to those of 1921; but as for party achievements since, the speaker had practically nothing to offer except that corruption and rascality are not confined to any one party, although he cannot deny that just at present they seem to be unusually prevalent in the republican party at Washington. But Secretary Hughes boldly declared that "we do not condone wrong doing, we extenuate no crime and put no obstacle in the way of discovery and punishment of any official dereliction." That sounds very well indeed; but it is hardly in accord with the facts.

One of the speaker's most difficult duties was to defend the party against the odium attaching to scandals at present under investigation in Washington. In that, even his eloquence failed to change the popular opinion based upon the revelations of corruption brought out by the investigations.

The party is on the defensive, on the run, so to speak, and its only hope of safety from crushing defeat is pinned to the coattails of President Coolidge. It is rather a unique situation.

THE DEMOCRATIC OPPORTUNITY

It is obvious that the proposed effort to fasten the Wilson tradition upon the democratic party in the approaching campaign, would be a step toward reviving adherence to his policies in reference to the League of Nations which in our judgment would be unpopular. That policy was repudiated in 1920 and although there may have been a considerable change of sentiment since then, we doubt whether the democratic party can gain any prestige through its renewal or re-adoption at this time. It might benefit McAdoo's candidacy, but it would not be likely to benefit the party as a whole.

What the people want is a wise, honest and progressive administration of the government, free from the corruption and rascality that have attained such domination in the departments at Washington under republican rule. There is a great opportunity for a democratic victory if the party leaders only take advantage of the situation by putting up their strongest candidates and adopting a platform of progressive and businesslike principles. The demand of the hour is for wise and aggressive leadership.

CHILD LABOR AMENDMENT

There is much discussion over the question of abolishing child labor in those states in which it prevails and they are chiefly in the south. It is objected in some quarters that the federal government has no right to interfere in such matters. The federal government has the same right to interfere in regard to child labor, that it had to interfere with the states that wanted to maintain a perpetual system of slavery. Indeed, it may be admitted that child labor is a form of slavery and that as such, it must be stamped out.

There is a difference of opinion as to the best method of having the proposed amendment to the constitution against child labor, ratified. It is claimed that submission to the state legislatures may prove unsatisfactory and that a popular referendum would be preferable. No such amendment should be submitted to any legislature not elected with that issue in view. If it cannot be submitted to such a body for ratification, then the popular referendum should be provided.

Already more than one-third of the states have laws against child labor, but it is chiefly in the south where this abuse prevails, and particularly in cotton mills and canning factories. There are numerous reasons to be adduced in support of this amendment; but the principle is, that child labor, as conducted in many southern states, prevents the education of children, stunts their growth, and thus tends to lower the physical, mental and moral status of the future citizens of those states in which this practice is legalized. That offers ample reason for interference by federal authority since efforts to have the states remedy the evil, have signally failed.

BAY STATE G. A. R. TODAY

Scarcely more than 250 Civil war veterans gathered in Gardner hall at the state house, last week, waiting for the summons of the fifty-eighth annual encampment of the Massachusetts department of the Grand Army of the Republic. A dulling haze, indeed, yet it was a most impressive sight, as we told in vivid news reports, when the white-haired heroes of 1861-1865, whose ages averaged 81 years, stood in attention with bare heads, during the invocation and opening prayer in the Boston convention hall.

It is a far journey to the great, twelve months after that bloody struggle between brothers of the north and the south, when, on Oct. 4, 1866, the first Grand Army post in the Massachusetts department was organized in New Bedford. This post is today the oldest in the Grand Army of the Republic in continuous membership, as all posts previously chartered, have either disbanded or been reorganized.

The first Massachusetts G. A. R. encampment was permanently organized on May 7, 1867, and in 1892 the Massachusetts department arrived at its highest membership, with 21,221 comrades. Now, after 47 years, we find that on Dec. 31, 1923, there were only 2569 members remaining on the rolls of posts in the Bay State department. Last year, 546 Massachusetts comrades responded to the last roll-call. Five department posts have recently surrendered their charters, leaving now but 174 of the veteran posts of the G. A. R. in this state.

Memorial day is always a day of tender remembrance for thoughtful, patriotic citizens and veterans of the wars alike. Retiring Department Commander Geo. W. Pratt expressed it admirably when he said, in his farewell address to his veteran comrades at the annual encampment at Boston:—

"May the time soon come when Memorial day will not be profaned by sports and events that mar the services which a patriotic people offer to the nation's heroic dead."

LOWELL GUILD BALL

On Tuesday of next week, will be held at the Memorial Auditorium, the annual ball for the benefit of the Lowell Guild. A fine entertainment program will be provided, but even without any such attraction, there should be a large attendance to aid this very worthy institution. The Lowell Guild, and its corps of trained nurses, respond to the calls of the suffering and afflicted in every part of the city, at every hour of the day and night. The Guild is doing special work for saving the lives of little children by instructing mothers in how to prepare wholesome food adapted to the needs and delicate digestive functions of the little ones. In this way, it has already reduced the infant mortality of the city. It is a very slight thing sometimes that will save the life of a baby suffering from any of the various diseases that attack infants. The source of cholera infantum has been kept at a low ebb for some years past, largely as a result of the work of the Lowell Guild and the attention paid to the proper care of children by the board of health.

Even those who have no children should attend the Guild ball from humane motives. But those who are not interested in such humane work will get their money's worth in the excellent entertainment provided for the evening.

AUTO FATALITIES

Registrar Goodwin reports that thirteen deaths resulted last week from motor vehicle accidents within the limits of the state, one child being among the number. It is safe to say that with the approach of warm weather, the number of fatalities will be greatly increased. If this number were to be taken as the average for the year, and it might not be far astray, the total would be 576.

It is rather remarkable that out of all the accidents, there was but one fatality in which the defendant was sentenced. In six cases the charges were appealed, and in one, the charges were suspended. Fully 700 fines were suspended, a fact which would indicate that they were too easily granted in the first place. It would seem that if each applicant for an operator's license were carefully investigated, the records would be much more accurate, what applications should be rejected so it would not be necessary afterwards, to suspend such a great number for violation of the law.

NEW COTTON AVERAGES

The cotton-growing area of the country is being fast transformed in a two-fold way. Probably most of the cotton is now produced on the northern and southern fringes of the old-time cotton-raising belt, rather than in the central regions. Putting it another way, the last crop was raised chiefly in the districts where the boll weevil had not yet appeared in great numbers, and also in the districts where he has been at work the longest.

Exceptionally good yields have been reported recently in southern Texas, and in western Louisiana, where the growers have had to contend with the pest for 15 or 20 years. This affords some encouragement as to the possibility of producing successfully in those sections where there is now heavy infestation.

SEEN AND HEARD

Trouble with a man who is a wonder of talking is wonders never cease.

A secret is what you tell someone not to tell because you promised not to tell it yourself.

Man in Atlanta, Ga., who looked into a girl's window will never see, but will never look the same again.

A man in Chicago, who stole an auto to go riding, will not go anywhere for six months now, according to a judge.

Perhaps the sincerest man reported lately is the roomer who didn't want to pay his rent because he had insomnia.

A Thought

You play a man who is lame or blind, but you never pity him for being a fool, which is often a much greater misfortune. — Sydney Smith.

Movie Notes

An impecunious tenant had not paid the rent of his room for several months. "Look here," said the landlord, "I must go away. I am ready to forget half of what you owe." "Right," said the tenant, "I'll forget the other half." — Madrid Times (humor).

Funny Old World

All these babies being sung to sleep by jazz music ought to grow up into well-shining dancers. It will be a funny world 20 years from now. And the rising generation are worrying about what will be worrying about the next rising generation. This is true, because it always has been.

California Climate

Skeletons 25,000 years old are being dug up in California, but they were not making movies then, so there is no scandal attached. This, however, does bring to light one startling supposition. California climate was not so good 25,000 years ago as it is supposed to be now, or these people would be living today.

The Cautious Gaffer

The gaffer was just getting ready to drive off at the first sign when all of a sudden he paused in his swing and put his hand into his pocket for a comb. He combed his hair for a minute or two he drew out a handful of Corn Cereals, and approaching the caddy he asked: "Do you smoke, sonny?" The boy's eyes lighted up as he noticed the face of the gaffer and he answered: "I should just think I do, sir." "In that case," said the gaffer as he walked away, "I think I'll carry them myself."

The Bizarre Smasher

Marjorie Smith, the English actress, tells a story about an actress friend of hers who was traveling from Liverpool to London in order to begin a new theatrical engagement. "I caught a really big baggage was somewhat bulky and the porter to whom she confided it at the Lime Street station was surly and wouldn't pass so much." "You can't have baggage like this," he declared, "not unless you was a theatrical." "Well, I am a theatrical," explained the lady. "Then why didn't you say so at first?" demanded the porter. "I can't say anything but the messengers if they're theatrical, I don't want to insult 'em."

The Daffodils

I wandered lonely as a cloud
That floats on high o'er vales and hills,
When all at once I saw a crowd,
A host, of golden daffodils,
Beside the lake, beneath the trees,
Fluttering and dancing in the breeze.

Continuous as the stars that shine
And twinkle on the milky way, They stretched in never-ending line Along the margin of the bay: Ten thousand saw I at a glance, Tossing their heads in sprightly dance. |

The waves beside them danced; but they Outdid the sparkling waves in glee: A poet could not but be gay, In such a jocund company: I gazed and gazed, but little thought What wealth the show to me had brought. | | |

For oft, when on my couch I lie
In vacant or in pensive mood, They flash upon that inward eye Which is the bliss of solitude; And then my heart with pleasure fills, And dances with the daffodils. | | |

MAN ABOUT TOWN

Councilor Frank W. Stearns proved himself an orator of no mean ability last Tuesday night when he addressed Abraham Lincoln from the floor of the council chamber on the occasion of the centenary of the death of the great president at the hands of an assassin. The councilor worked in a strong local interest when he told of Lincoln once speaking here in the old city hall and mentioned the late Judge Bailey, then a celebrated boy, as one of his many distinguished auditors. A ball of the Houston, Texas, chamber of commerce tells of a new million dollar banked mill in that city of which William A. Mitchell is to be president. Mr. Mitchell was for 21 years executive in the 30-cotton-spinning mills here and is now to be president of a great or more ago to go to China on a textile proposition that called for great as great as he had for it.

A stock company is being organized in the city with headquarters in the city and the plan is to have a building on the outskirts of the city, already selected.

A. J. Fortune & Co., who will act as engineers for the installation of machinery for the completion of the plant, report that the machinery for the first plant will include 125-horse power, and the final product of the mill will be 100,000 yards of cloth. The plant will also be installed on the site, but the number had not been definitely decided upon as yet. In addition to the mill, a number of houses for employees will be constructed on the property. The mill will be of the modern type of construction of steel frame, brick walls, and will employ approximately 100 workers when completed.

Due to the activities of Secretary Edward W. Gallagher of Lowell, former as chief secretary of the chamber of commerce and now secretary of the New England Rubber Club, a "sensation" "fact club" in Concord, N. H., was last week broken up. This club was organized by a father in the New Hampshire chamber of commerce and of about 100 members who were paying $2 a week. Each week someone was given a $25 note, which the father would buy. The father immediately arrived in Concord and found that the club was dissolved, either by restoring the money paid in or by giving them a cut on pay ment of the balance.

LAWRENCE MINISTERS JOIN FRIDAY APPEAL

LAWRENCE, April 17.—The Lawrence Ministers' association through its president, Rev. Malcolm B. Peabody, rector of Grace church, has issued a statement joining with the Knights of Columbus in a request for a suspension of all unnecessary business on Good Friday from noon to 3 p. m. In closing, the statement said that "the ministers of Lawrence join with their fellow Christians in the request that on Good Friday during the hours when Our Lord hung on the cross, only such work be performed as is absolutely necessary."

FEDERAL AGENTS IN ROLE OF LABORERS

By posing "as they were not," Federal Agents Sullivan and Hall of this city joined a group of laborers entering a bar-room in Charlestown yesterday afternoon and secured enough evidence of prohibition violation to place Theodore White, a clerk, under arrest on a charge of illegal sale.

The federal agents were aided by "luck" in making the raid. They were returning to this city after a business trip to Boston and while passing through Charlestown, they noticed a group of workmen going into a bar-room in Rutherford street. Removing their coats, the agents joined in the line with the other men and witnessed the sale of liquor inside.

White was placed under bonds of $500 to appear before U. S. Commissioner Jeanney in Boston.

STRUCK BY AUTOMOBILE

An automobile operated by Arthur H. Rowe of 166 D street, struck a young boy, son of Mr. and Mrs. Patrick Cassidy of North Chelmsford, early last evening in Palmer street near Market street. The boy was thrown to the street but sustained no visible injuries and was taken home by his mother.

IRISH MUSICAL COMEDY AT THE AUDITORIUM

Specialties far above the average will play a prominent part in "Echoes of Erin," the new Irish musical comedy to be given in the Auditorium next Monday evening by the Maheue Temperance Institute. Groups of dancers, superbly trained by Mrs. Jeanie Conway, will execute figs, reels, hornpipes and other dances peculiarly Irish. Miss Mabel Hogan has a song and dance act introducing a waltz glog, that would make the refoolable Pat Rooney green with envy. Two diminutive players, May Conway and Lillian McLaughlin will introduce a dancing novelty of rare charm. William Hinkley will be assisted by Misses Alice Dacey, Mollie Hastings, Ethel McLaughlin, Mary Driscoll and Bertha Choquette, dancers of uncommon ability. In one of the prettiest specialties ever seen in the Auditorium, Miss Mary McCarthy, returning to the footlights after an absence of two years or more, has a novelty that is expected to sweep heavily. Mrs. Nancy Swift Willett, who is staging a "comeback," will prove the same favorite as of yore once she steps before the audience. Miss Alice Dacey has a catchy number and will take full advantage of the opportunity to increase her ever-growing popularity. Mrs. Alice Dacey's song specialty is one of the best of her career; it must be heard to be appreciated.

The Carr children will appear in a brand new dancing act, consisting of the "Waltz Beautiful," "The Daredevil" dance and "The Frisco" jazz. The other members of the cast have splendid vehicles also. Miss Madeline McLaughlin is in charming voice, and her solo will be one of the best of the program. Miss Mary MacFarland is at her very best in "When Irish Eyes Are Smiling," and she has chosen this beautiful number as her contribution to the program. Misses Anna and Margaret Devine have a wonderfully sweet duet which will be enjoyed by all who attend. Dan Brennan has a song well suited to display his ability as a comedian. Patrick Maguire has chosen a mirth-provoking number, and hilarity will reign while his act is in progress. Daniel Sullivan's solo work will be a revelation to the audience. All present will be anxious to hear him

SPRING

Spring, the sweet spring, is the year's pleasant king;
Then blooms each thing, then maids dance in a ring,
Cold doth not sting, the pretty birds do sing,
Cuckoo, jug-jug, pu-we, to-wita-wool!

The palm and May make country houses gay,
Lambs frisk and play, the shepherds pipe all day,
And we hear aye birds tune this merry lay,
Cuckoo, jug-jug, pu-we, to-wita-wool!

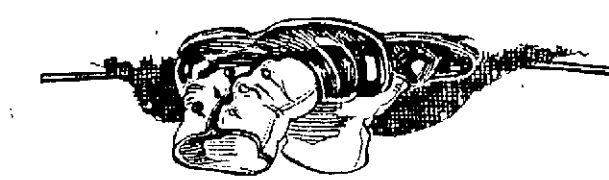

The fields breathe sweet, the daisies kiss our feet,
Young lovers meet, old wives a-sunning sit,
In every street these tunes our ears do greet,
Cuckoo, jug-jug, pu-we, to-wita-wool!
Spring! the sweet spring!

—Thomas Nash.

JES' SENTIMENT

Just two little shoes that are ragged and torn, are held as a memory sweet. Of many black buttons these objects are shown; from age, they no longer are neat. And yet, as I see them, I drift to ago. These shoes are an echo that always will last—that means a lot more than you know. Back there in the days when the shoe soles were bright, a little lot walked them around, and all of the buttons were fastened on tight; though some now are missing, I've found. These two little shoes taught a child his first step; they taught him to toddle and creep. But now in a closet for years they have slept; to me, in a memory sleep. For son has grown up and he's taken more strides. And that is the reason, I guess, why sentiment says that his tiny tot shoes really started him out to success.

AMUSEMENT NOTES

B. F. KEITH'S

Billy Madden and his funny sayings and songs, and his funnier manner, is the week's feature at the B. F. Keith theatre. However, the Emmet trio in their singing of the songs which touch the heart, hold a high place, and Thomas J. Ryan & Co. present a lively comedy. Other acts are: Misses Island & Shannon, singers; Eunice Miller & Co., dancers, and the Tuscano Bros., jugglers of Roman battle axes. The picture is "Orphan Sally."

"THE WHITE SISTER."

"The White Sister," which will open a four days' engagement at the Merrimack Square theatre Sunday afternoon, is generally acclaimed one of the outstanding screen successes of the present season. Lillian Gish, noted D. W. Griffith star, has the leading role and the story is one of the most dramatic ever unfolded on the screen. It will undoubtedly attract capacity houses during its Lowell engagement.

MERRIMACK SQUARE THEATRE

A thrilling mystery story is always interesting, but "Half-a-Dollar Bill," the Metro picture now playing at the Merrimack Square theatre, is more than interesting for it has a human appeal that will grip and hold you until the final scene has faded from the screen.

In this Max Graf production the tension has been tightly drawn and held throughout the unfolding of the story. A young girl, orphaned, deserted by her husband, leaves her infant son on the doorstep of a vacant home. Discovered by a sea captain, the baby is taken to his home where, by its aid, a look of peace is given. It is looked after by the captain and his cook. The two bachelors later decide to raise the child aboard ship.

Pete takes a hand in the mauling of the boy's life on his fourth birthday when a light cord and the quick wit of his foster father saves him from the rawing jaws of the high seas. It is this same factor that prompts the little fellow to save the young woman who is about to take her own life a few minutes after the ship reaches his home port.

That bond which draws the mother and her unknown child is nearly severed time and time again during the unfolding of the unusual story until, just when the final breaking point is reached and there seems to be no way out, truth comes like a consuming fire, enveloping the entire being of the principals in the story.

The leading roles are portrayed by Anna Q. Nilsson, William T. Carleton and Mitchell Lewis. Carleton, the wonder dog, who will be remembered for his work in "Pound and Sam," appears prominently in the production. The other feature for the week-end at the Merrimack Square is "Love Letters," a William Fox production starring Shirley Mason, one of the screen's most popular players. This is a story of mystery but beneath all the mystery is a love story that throbs and pulses and that is made of dreams and songs and happy romance. Miss Mason is more attractive than ever before in "Love Letters." A com-

STRAND THEATRE

A new and virile Charles Ray, with an acting scope and a power unknown to many devotees of this favorite star, will be seen at The Strand for the next three days when he will present his new picture story, "The Girl I Loved."

Based upon the poem of the same name by James Whitcomb Riley, this photoplay presents Ray in the character of that beloved writer in his youth. It is not widely known that Riley had a dramatic love affair and he described it with great beauty and deep sentiment in "The Girl I Loved."

Out of this confession of love and its implications of a fierce inner struggle, Mr. Ray had built a thrilling photoplay. Artist that he is, Ray has made the story's experience as a fiery and determined lover tremendously real, gripping with suspense, vivid in action and universal in appeal—the tale of every one who craves the mate of his choice ardently. Moreover, the play contains a surprise element that pulls the spectator up with a jerk. Back of this romantic story runs a charming panorama of life among the buxant Indiana. Ray's versatility is more pronounced in this story than any in which he has heretofore appeared, which gives an insight into his dramatic powers as well as his attainments in lighter roles. Miss Patry Ruth Miller, youthful, clever and possessing a charming personality, is playing the part opposite the star.

The long-waited, much-discussed, and much-gossiped about photoplay version of Oscar Wilde's drama, "Salome," with the great Nazimova in the title role and also as the prophetess, Nazimova's treatment of the famous character is said to be artistry personified. The picture has received the fullest endorsement and approval of the National Board of Review.

The comedy and Weekly issue will add to the attractiveness of the program.

RIALTO THEATRE

Dore Davidson, well known actor of farthest parts and whose splendid work in such pictures as "Humoresque" and "The Good Provider" have won for him universal commendation, has such a type of role in "None So Blind," which opens at the Rialto theatre today. "None So Blind" shows Jewish life on the East side, New York and the trials and tribulations of Aaron Abrams, known as the "Shylock of Wall Street," a role in which Davidson excels. His role is that of a man whose life is dominated by the desire for revenge against the man whom he feels has cruelly wronged his daughter. His entire life is devoted to this purpose although on the other hand, none is more charitable or philanthropic than he. In the end, love conquers his hatred. This man as played by Davidson, is a picturesque figure—the day he is Isaac Goldsmith, a harsh money lender; at heavy roles are played by Tom Santchi and Stuart Holmes.

Vaudeville will be omitted this week on account of Good Friday.

The other attraction on the bill is an underworld story "Tipped Off" with a great cast which includes Noah Beery, Tom Santchi, Stuart Holmes and Arline Pretty.

Briefly the story concerns Mildred Carson, sweetheart of a playboy who becomes angry when he refuses to let her be leading woman in his new play. To prove that she is fitted for the role, despite her ignorance of the underworld, she dresses herself as a man, enters his house, "covers" him with a revolver and steals a pearl necklace. At almost the same time a gang of real crooks break into the home and the real complications set in. The gang mistake her for one of their own and pack her in the machine.

What follows makes "Tipped Off" one of the most exciting pictures made in a long time. Beery plays the part of a Chinese philosopher while the

LENTEN SERVICES

Services commemorating the last days of Christ's passion were conducted with solemnity last evening in St. Anne's church. During the services, the litany was chanted by the rector, Rev. Appleton Gramis, and by the choir and congregation. The rector gave a short sermon. William C. Heller was at the organ.

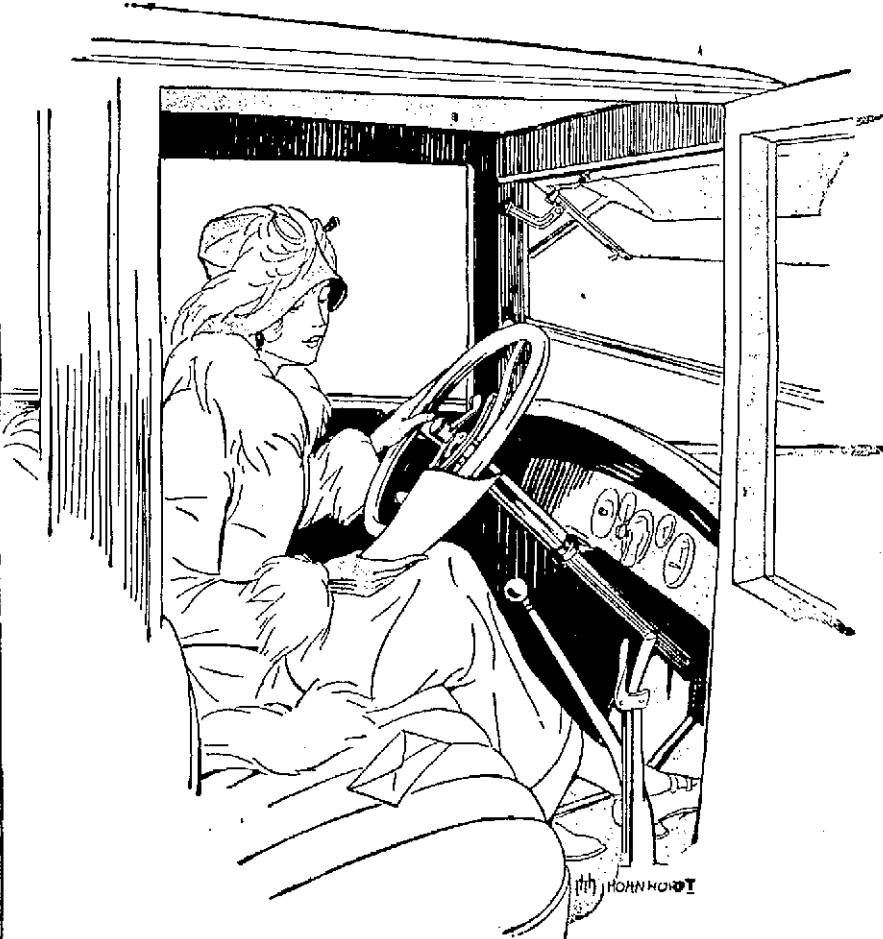

At the noonday services today, Rev. Henry Quimby, pastor of St. John's Episcopal church, was the preacher. At the Good Friday services, which will last from 12 o'clock until 3 p.m., the guilds of St. Cecilia and St. Agnes will supply the music from 12 o'clock until 1:30 and from that time until the close, the boys' and men's clubs will lead the congregational singing. The Good Friday services are open to people of all denominations. Rector Gramis will give meditations of "The Seven Last Words."

When Mother Pays the Bills

by The Veteran Motorist

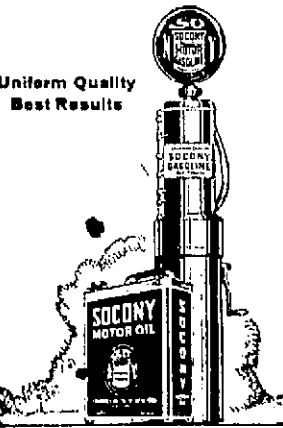

WHEN my wife first began to drive the car, I told her that I would make her responsible for the whole thing, which included paying the bills out of a definite allowance for upkeep.

Of course, like all fond husbands, I expected that I would have to make up a deficit. But, much to my surprise, after the first few months of experimentation on her part with various gasolines and oils, there was literally nothing for me to pay. In fact, the last two months she has been showing a slight credit balance!

The secret is that mother has kept a comparative record of her upkeep, and she has found that dollar for dollar, gallon for gallon, she gets the maximum of power and efficiency out of Socony Gasoline and Socony Motor Oil.

That's one reason why, to my mind, Socony is the favorite brand of discriminating women drivers, because "when mother pays the bills," there can be no camouflaging the expense.

PENSIONING LABORERS

Bill to Pension Lowell City Laborers on Way to Governor's Desk

(Special to The Sun) BOSTON, April 17.—The bill providing for pensioning laborers in the employ of the city of Lowell will probably reach the desk of Governor Cox late this afternoon, having been enacted in the house yesterday, and put through the same stage in the senate this afternoon.

In its final form, as presented for executive approval, the measure reads:

Section 1. Any laborer in the employ of the city of Lowell who has reached the age of sixty and has been in such employ for a period of not less than twenty-five years and has become physically or mentally incapacitated for labor, and any laborer in the employ of said city who has been in such employ for a period of not less than fifteen years and has become physically or mentally incapacitated for labor by reason of any injury received in the performance of his duty for said city, may, at his request and with the approval of the mayor, be retired from service, and if so retired he shall receive from said city for the remainder of his life an annual pension equal to one-half the annual compensation paid him as a laborer at the time of his retirement, but such pension shall in no event exceed five hundred dollars. Any laborer in the employ of said city who has reached the age of sixty-five years and has been in such employ for a period of not less than twenty-five years including the time when incapacitated by reason of sickness, not exceeding two years in the aggregate, which is certified by a physician in regular standing shall be retired from service and shall receive from said city an annual pension computed in the manner hereinbefore set forth. The word "laborer," as used in this section, shall include foremen, inspectors, mechanics, draftsmen, assistant draftsmen, janitors of municipal buildings other than school buildings and storekeepers.

Section 2. This act shall be submitted to the voters of the city of Lowell for their acceptance at the next state election in the form of the following question which shall be placed on the official ballot: "Shall an act passed by the general court in the year nineteen hundred and twenty-four, entitled 'An Act relative to the pensioning of laborers in the employ of the city of Lowell,' be accepted?" If a majority of the voters voting thereon vote in the affirmative in answer to said question, then, this act shall take effect in said city, but not otherwise.

A LOT of new central office names are becoming familiar to Lowell telephone users these days, as they take increasing advantage of the fast inter-city toll service now available.

Say you are a Lowell subscriber. You call Lawrence numbers without thought of distance or political bounds.

Then why not call Beach in Boston the same way. Why not Nashua, N. H., Salem, Worcester as you would call a Lowell neighbor?

You can. Right now.

Not only these, but scores of other towns in a widening circle.

If you do not know the number, ask Lowell Information. If you do know it, fine. Give it to your own operator and hold the line—just like a local call.

WHY YOU NEED IRON

To make you strong and "briny" and put the power into your blood to overcome disease germs

The food you eat contains carbon. When your food is digested it is absorbed from the intestines into the blood. When the carbon in your food comes in contact with the oxygen carried by the iron in your blood, the carbon and oxygen unite and by so doing they give off tremendous energy, thereby giving you great force, strength and endurance. Without iron your blood carries no oxygen and without oxygen there is nothing to unite with the carbon in your food, so that what you eat does you no good—you do not get any strength from it—it is like putting coal into a stove without a fire. You cannot get any heat unless the coal unites with the fire.

The strongest weapon with which to prevent and overcome colds, pneumonia, kidney trouble, rheumatism, nervous prostration, in fact almost any disease or disease germs is plenty of good rich, pure blood, strength, energy and endurance and the greater energy carrier in the body is organic iron, not metallic iron which people usually take, but organic iron, like the iron in spinach, lentils and apples, and like the iron contained in what is known as organic Nuxated iron, which may be had from almost any druggist. Nuxated iron often increases the strength, energy and endurance of weak, nervous, rundown folks in two weeks' time.

It has been used and highly recommended by former United States Senators, Members of Congress, Judges of U. S. Circuit courts, many physicians and prominent men.

Over 4,000,000 people are now using it annually. Satisfactory results are guaranteed or the manufacturer will refund your money. Sold by all druggists in tablet form only.—Adv.

Your Children Determine the Quality of Hood's Ice Cream

CHILDREN are the real champions of this wonderful delicacy. Well or ill, they demand and enjoy Ice Cream. Wonderful food, that it is, this love for Ice Cream must be encouraged. We play our part to the limit. To be fair to the kiddies we put into Hood's Ice Cream the Quality that makes it a safe, wholesome, delightful, refreshing dainty that you may offer to your children with the assurance that it is just as good as you would want it to be.

And so, it is the children that stimulate us to produce the utmost in Quality and we want you, the parents to know just what Quality means when applied to Hood's Ice Cream.

First—the material—cream, sugar, fruit, flavors. You know that Hood's are the largest handlers of cream in New England. You know that we draw our supply from the best dairying sections. We have the pick and choice of the best produced. And we always have it. Our fruits are the best America offers. Our flavors must pass the scrutiny of experts who know flavors and none but Quality flavors can satisfy them. Sugar, the kind you use on your table. Just pure sugar.

Cleanliness is the next factor. We insist on and observe, in our factories, the same rules of wholesome sanitation that has made the New England housewife a standard of exactness the world over. To us cleanliness means just that. There is no middle course.

Then there is service. We have a fleet of carriers that keeps your dealer supplied with Hood's Ice Cream at all times. And having delivered his supply helps him to keep it in condition until you have eaten it. But the most important factors in Hood Quality are the men whose duty it is to vitalize these Hood ideals into a reality. We have put in charge not only men who know Quality, but men who are jealous of comparisons. Men who are keen to be at the top of things.

Their aim is to make Hood's Ice Cream a completely satisfying product. They have everything needed to attain this. You will find that completely satisfying quality has been reached in

HOOD'S OLD FASHIONED ICE CREAM

There is a dealer in your neighborhood who sells Hood's Ice Cream. Look for his store. You may buy from him with the knowledge that he dispenses a product your children may enjoy with complete satisfaction to themselves and to you. Look for the Hood dealer.

PROCLAMATION ISSUED NEW COLONIAL HOUSE BY PRES. COOLIDGE

WASHINGTON, April 17.—President Coolidge has issued a proclamation designating the week of April 21-27 as Forest Protection Week. It reads as follows:

A PROCLAMATION Whereas, it is essential to the continued comfort, welfare and prosperity of the people of the United States that abundant forests, widely distributed and maintained in a condition of high productivity, be forever wisely conserved as one of our greatest natural resources; and

Whereas, because of our constantly increasing need for wood and other forest products, together with our past failure to provide for reforestation, we are drawing upon our supplies of timber four times as fast as they are renewed through growth; and

Whereas, the most formidable agency of forest destruction and prevention of reforestation is fire and, of the fires which annually devastate vast areas, four-fifths are ascribed in origin to human agencies and virtually all may be controlled and made innocuous through prudence, care and vigilance; Therefore, I, Calvin Coolidge, President of the United States, do urge upon the governors of the various states to designate and set apart the week of April 21-27, 1924, as Forest Protection Week, and, wherever practicable and not in conflict with state law or accepted customs, to celebrate Arbor Day within that week. I also urge all citizens, either in association or as individuals, all schools, and the press to lead to give common thought to the protection of our forests from fire, to the end that in the future as in the past, those forests may supply us with wood, protect the purity of our streams, and otherwise serve the people of the United States.

In Witness Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the seal of the United States to be affixed. Done at the City of Washington this 15th day of February, in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and twenty-four, and of the Independence of the United States of America the one hundred and forty-eighth.

CALVIN COOLIDGE.

For the first time—a laundry soap that is really modern!

Because it is entirely dissolved
this new soap rinses out thoroughly

There are no bits of soap left sticking to garments to turn them yellow under the iron—there cannot possibly be—because Rinso is all dissolved into a rich cleansing soap solution. This solution has more cleansing power than bar soap—it soaks dirt out.

HOW hard you have to rub with bar soap to "soap" the clothes. Then how hard you have to rub to get out all the dirt.

And that isn't all! You still have to struggle a lot more to get out all the soap you had to rub in. Today you don't have all this work to do. A wonderful new soap now soaks dirt out.

WITH Rinso—the new kind of laundry soap—you are spared the drudgery of washday—that old hard rubbing. Simply soaking your clothes in the rich soapy Rinso solution loosens all the dirt.

Be sure to use enough Rinso to get big lasting suds after the clothes are in. Then even all those mean grimy places—cuff edges, neck bands, etc.—come spotless for you with only a light rubbing.

Then a good, thorough rinse takes out not only all the dirt, but also all the soap! Your clothes are snowy white the way you love to have them.

Rinso is made by the makers of Lux. Already over a million packages are used every week by progressive housewives.

CONSTIPATED? BEWARE OF INDICAN!

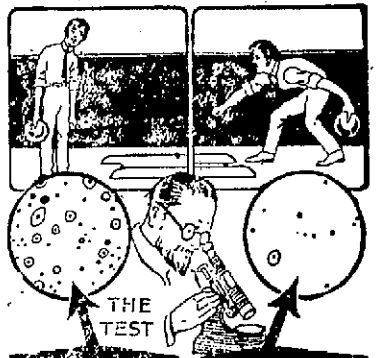

the poison sign of constipation, warn health authorities - what to do

THE danger of constipation is its poison, warn physicians. This poison is pumped into every little muscle and every little joint in your body. Beware! for it has the same effect as Carbo-lic Acid or any other poison.

Do you dare to make a test to prove this? Three out of four constipated men and women under such a test show the presence of INDICAN, and Indican is the sign doctors look for to find out if your blood is poisoned.

Carter's Little Liver Pills, unlike ordinary laxatives, not only "physic" the stomach, liver and intestines quickly, but also drive the INDICAN away.

Make This Test: Have analysis made of your specimen, and if the chemist reports the presence of INDICAN—or if you can "feel"

Is it constipation that weakens your physical power? INDICAN, Indican, the poison of constipation without guessing—ask your doctor.

Same person after taking Carter's Little Liver Pills for only a few days—note the clean, normal specimen—FREE FROM INDICAN.

ARE YOU RUPTURED?

We wish to announce the visit of the Collings Truss Expert at the Richardson Hotel, Lowell, Mass., Friday afternoon and evening, April 18, and all day and evening Saturday, April 19, hours 9 to 12 a.m., 2 to 5 p.m., evenings 7 to 9.

Back View of New Invention for Rupture

We want to demonstrate to you absolutely without a penny in advance, our new invention for holding difficult or aggravated cases of rupture whether of incisional or umbilical character. If you are ruptured you should be interested in our ability to fit you with a truss that will do its work properly and give you the greatest ease and comfort possible.

SCIENTIFIC AND PRACTICAL

This new Collings Truss is based on the most scientific principles for holding a rupture. It is not only representative of mechanical perfection but contains that super-power for holding a rupture without discomfort, and that makes for a complete recovery where this result is possible.

CONTAINS NO SPRINGS

There are no springs or metal parts used in this new truss other than the small necessary buckles; instead it is made of high-grade elastic web with soft pliable cloth back made wider so to distribute the pressure over a broader surface. Prevents all cutting and chafing, and gives the necessary uplift to the pads.

IT HOLDS THE RUPTURE

It is easily, quickly and permanently adjusted so an even and uniform pressure can be constantly maintained at any desired tension. The patented sectional pads are adaptable and will fit any kind of rupture. As the cure progresses the pressure can be lessened without a change of pads.

IT STAYS PUT

When placed in position, the truss stays put and does not shift or slide. Regardless of the position of the wearer's body: stooping, jumping or standing erect, the truss remains firm and set, and adjusts itself as the occasion demands.

COMFORTABLE DAY OR NIGHT

To do its maximum amount of good, a truss should be worn continuously day and night. Upon retiring many people remove their truss, with the result that the weakened muscular tissues relax and oftentimes allow the rupture to assume the form of the original protrusion. This new truss can be worn at all times.

FREE DEMONSTRATIONS FOR TWO DAYS ONLY—FRIDAY AND SATURDAY, APRIL 18 and 19

Every ruptured person should visit our truss expert and learn what genuine truss-comfort means. No charge for demonstration or information.

HOWEVER COMMA—

NEW YORK, April 17.—The week's best laugh is Barbara La Marr's free love interview in New Orleans. Barbara, according to wire reports, said the screen vamp must live the life of a vamp if she is truly to portray the part.

If the inside story must be known, Barbara's employers here were stunned when they saw the "interview." They frantically sent for the press agent who accompanied her, and that individual came in for a hot session when he reached the city.

Everyone is inclined to place the blame for the interview on an ambitious desire to "grab" the first pugo. But unfortunately for the press agent and Barbara the present purpose of those back of the movies is to cleanse the industry morally. And a statement of that kind, whether she said it of her own free will or on advice of a publicity man, is exactly the kind of thing that won't be tolerated any longer.

We firmly believe Barbara's future as a screen actress depends on the outcome of an investigation now under way to fix responsibility for the interview.

"This is not a chronicle based upon accurate figures, but upon cheerfully expurgated memories," Corra Harris states in her "My Book and Heart" (Houghton Mifflin). It is a most human and appealing record of a woman who has a sense of humor as well as of reverence.

"We pray romantically for a lover and then sensibly accepted the man who showed up in response whether he was rich and handsome or not," she writes of 40 years ago. "So many women in proportion were married then than now."

"My suspicion is that the modern young woman prays for a position or for a career if she prays at all; and that even if she wants a husband he is not an answer to prayer but a sort of secular addition she shrewdly makes to herself in the way of worldly position or wealth."

High-brow musical rounders gasped in amazement the other night when they came to the august Carnegie hall to see the Marmel Sisters interpret some classical drama dances. For on their program, listed as "guest artists," were Paul Whiteman and his orchestra.

Most of the audience had never heard jazz before; but it had been condemning it for a long time. It squirm-

CHURCHES OBSERVE HOLY THURSDAY

Holy Thursday is being observed in religious circles today. Masses were celebrated in the Catholic churches this morning and tenebrae services will be held this evening. The feast-day is in commemoration of the institution of the Blessed Sacrament, which took place at the last supper the night before Christ died on the cross. Beautifully decorated altars with myriad candles burning, were visited in the various churches by thousands.

Good Friday, the day which Christ died, will be observed tomorrow. In the Catholic churches, mass of the pre-sanctified will be celebrated in the morning, with tenebrae services again in the evening. Veneration of the cross will take place at various hours during the day and in the evening. In Lawrence, the larger stores have voted to suspend business activities between the hours of 12 and 3 o'clock tomorrow afternoon.

In St. Anne's and St. John's Episcopal churches tomorrow, special services will be held from 12 noon until 3 p. m. Dubois' "Seven Last Words" will be given in the First Congregational church in conjunction with holy communion service at 7.30 o'clock in the evening. Other Protestant churches have arranged impressive services.

Allow to simmer for one-half hour per pound of meat. Take from the kettle and remove the skin while hot. Put low in roasting pan, fat side up, and pour over it two cups of syrup from preserved (e.g., peaches or pineapple). Bake in moderate oven for forty-five minutes, basting frequently.

It protects millions of children

A Health Beauty talk by the Health Doctor

I WANT to talk about two things:

Why children need protection... How Lifebuoy Health Soap protects their health and good looks.

If you could watch the average healthy child throughout an entire day, you would be horrified, about once every ten minutes, at the germ-covered things they touch and the dirt dangers to which they are exposed.

Thank goodness their robust, splendidly nourished little bodies can fight off the germ menace most of the time. Otherwise they could not live.

But the danger is always there. Science knows but one real every-day protection—perfect cleanliness. Your children have a good chance of never being sick if you can only train them to purify hands and faces frequently with Lifebuoy.

Only healthy skin is beautiful

Let me tell you about Lifebuoy. In the first place, it is absolutely pure soap. It contains no substance which could irritate the most sensitive skin. Its constant use promotes skin health and brings the lovely underglow of a radiant complexion.

The gentle antiseptic released in the creamy, copious lather is just what your skin needs to keep it splendidly alive—stimulated. It drives away sallowness and blemishes, leaving the skin soft, smooth and healthfully beautiful.

You soon become fond of the odor of this antiseptic; it gives you such a comfortable feeling of being genuinely, utterly clean. This odor disappears almost instantly.

For the protection of the family and the daily care of the skin use Lifebuoy. Children always like it. Once a man gets to know it you simply can't get him to use anything else.

And it will agree wonderfully with your skin—I promise.

Home Runs Numerous in Yesterday's Major League Games—Boston Teams Win

RELAY TEAMS FAST ROUNDING INTO SHAPE FOR CARNIVAL

Lowell High School Relay Runners Leave For Pennsylvania Relay Games at Philadelphia One Week From Today—Constant Practice Being Held

One week from today Lowell high school track team stars will leave for Philadelphia to compete in three scholastic relay events at the Pennsylvania relay carnival on Friday and Saturday, April 25 and 26. The Lowell team will enter the one-mile public high school championships, and the two-mile and medley scholastic championships open to high and prep schools. The medley will be run on Friday and the two-mile on Saturday, with no definite time known here as yet as to the time of the two-mile event.

Every afternoon this week the six team members picked for the trip are working out on the dirt track at Andover academy under the eyes and direction of Coach Mike Haggerty and performances of the past two days point to better condition and the peak of racing ability on the days of the meet. Outdoor conditions are strange to the Lowell runners, who have done all their work on the annex indoor track, but the boys rapidly are becoming acclimated. The faster time trials and better individual performances are being recorded daily.

In yesterday's workout three of the one-mile team hit 55 seconds each for the quarter-mile, which represents a time reduction of more than a full second for the distance since the time trials a week ago. An average of 54 seconds will be attained by the end of the week and fast competition is expected to slice off another second at Philadelphia. If the one-mile team can average 53 seconds per man, nothing can stop them from finishing "within the money" in the high school group.

Considerable time is being spent by Coach Haggerty with the medley team, calling for distances of 220, 440, 660 and 880 yards. As yet no man has traveled a half-mile fast enough to suit the coach, but the other three distances have been covered in satisfactory time. Cant. Daley was sent through a 100-yard dash yesterday in 16 2-5 seconds and traveled a fast 220 shortly after. Joe Slavin is running a hang-up quarter and Whit Pearson is doing the same for the 440.

The one-mile team probably will be composed of Slavin, Dave Latham, Ernie Latham and Pearson, all strong, fast runners and carrying plenty of "fight."

As the dates of the carnival draw near, local interest in the trip to Philadelphia is growing. The Lowell boys show rapid development. It is the first trip of its kind ever taken by a high school athletic team and the city is behind the boys to the limit.

CITY LEAGUE GAMES AT THE Y. M. C. A.

The Lowell boys' club walked away from the Y.M.C.A. Jr. last year's championship, 22 to 9, at the Y.M.C.A. gymnasium Tuesday evening. This game was between the two teams leading the city league, and it was anticipated to be the best game of the season. But the boys' club players totally outclassed the Y.M.C.A. Jr. in all departments of the game. Chase, the club's next star, was a wonder, popping them in, scoring 10 of the 22 points. All of the boys' club players were on the job, and their defense was superb. The lineup was: Forwards, Connors, Kelly, Griffin and Chase; center, Griffin and Ryan; guards, Forrest, Griffin and Perry.

The Eagles defeated the Braves in the first game of the season. In the first half, the Eagles obtained a good lead of 10 points, and although the Braves scored 14 points in the second half, they failed to make a comeback. The final score was 22 to 9.

The Y. M. C. A. Juniors must play the Athletics this week Thursday evening at 7 o'clock, and the Braves playing the Eagles.

Next Tuesday evening, the Athletics must play the Braves at 7 o'clock.

BOYLE AND GRADWELL CONFIDENT OF VICTORY

With confidence permeating both camps, Phinney Boyle and Willie Gradwell, who meet here on Saturday night in the main event of the Moody club card, are continuing their intensive training with a view to being in perfect condition when called to center of the ring for final instruction. Considerable rivalry has sprung up between the pair as a result of their last meeting, when after ten grueling rounds of battling Gradwell was awarded the decision. Boyle and his supporters vigorously denounced the award as unfair, and the local boy immediately demanded a return match. Gradwell, who felt the award a proper one though admitting it was close, readily consented to another meeting saying he is "always anxious to meet any one he knows he can beat." Hence it proved one of the easiest matches to make that has been encountered by the Moody club officials this season.

Contracts were signed last Thursday night and as both had been anticipating a "draw" since the night of the other bout they have been training for several weeks. As a result they should be in the well known "pink" for the holiday evening. There is also considerable interest in this week's semi-final, Ronney Nelson of Lowell who created a surprise when he won over the classy Babe Adams of Lawrence recently, will meet Young Ross, a nifty center from Boston. There will also be two six-rounders.

Weather seasons are not changing, says United States weather bureau officials.

Helen Wills May Find Climatic Conditions a Bar to Victory in Match With Suzanne

BY JOE WILLIAMS

The dear ladies—heaven bless 'em and dress 'em—promise to monopolize the grandstand hurrahs in international tennis this summer.

On the masculine side, the Olympics and the Wimbledon championship abroad, lacking the genius of Tilden, Johnston, Williams and possibly other American favorites, will be nothing more than a tie and cookie attraction.

Whereas the one impending duel between Helen Wills, sensational California school maiden, and Suzanne Lenglen, sophisticated lady of Parisian boulevards, forecasts fight and fire in sufficient quantities to lift the feminine program high above the commonplace.

What will be the outcome of this match, if we may ask, my dear Watson?

Lenglen is indisputably one of the greatest tennis players of all time, and this despite a physical frailty which cuts deep into her vitality and imposes a grave hazard on over-exercising.

What's more, Lenglen is a relentless crusader. To her the white-barred tennis turf is a battleground, where opponents—especially internationalists—have to win without great effort.

The invasion of the English women last summer is a case in point. Katherine McKane, the star, had beaten Mrs. Mallory and others easily at home. She and her compatriots were favored to win here, yet they were put to an exquisite rout by the Americans.

This shows the "atmospheric condition" thing works both ways. It is probably something more than a myth, though not easily explained, and may stand out as the most rugged barrier in Miss Wills' drive against the Lenglen horrors.

They are confident, too, that she has the game to give the French girl an interesting fight. Her one weakness is in her serve, and this is not particularly serious. She is better fitted as to endurance to carry the fight over a long stretch and is just as fast if not faster.

But what part will atmospheric conditions play? That is more important than you might suppose. It seems to affect women more than men. American women seldom win their matches abroad, yet against the same opponents here they win without great effort.

The Lowell Vocational school nine, coached by Ralph Willard, high school athlete, will get into action for the first time against Chelmsford high on May 6. The Vocational team will play the high school freshmen on May 12 and June 2.

The American Juniors will play the Barclay A.C. April 19 at Lincoln park. The lineup will be: Boyan, C. Barril, p. Labrie 1b, Devaux 2b, Donovan ss, Palefsky cf, Clemens if, Lisen of. The Juniors want games with the Rangers or any other team for April 23 on the South common at 4 p. m. If satisfactory, answer through this paper.

The Tyler A.C. would like to play the Rainbows or any other team in the 14-16-year-old division. Answer through this paper.

The Cardinal Midgets, a 12-14-year-old aggregation, will play the Ennall A.C. on the Aiken street grounds Saturday. Manager Perrault has secured a Vic, a flashy player from West Centralville. The Cardinals won 19 games last season.

The Lowell Red Sox accepts the challenge of the Cardinals for April 19 and would like to play them at the Lawrence Hosley grounds at 3 p. m.

The Young Braves are in the field with the following lineup: Dupont, Sawyer, Couture, Foucher, Lebreque, Robarge, Landry, Delarge, Groux and E. Foucher. For games, call 4189-W.

The Buffaloes are by no means trying to duck the Emeralds, and to say the least, the Buffaloes defeated the Emeralds twice last year. The Buffaloes have an open date on April 20, and are willing to play the Emeralds for $10. If they do not accept this offer, the Buffaloes will regard their published statements as "loud talk."

Last Sunday, the Buffaloes defeated the Cardinals by a score of 12 to 6 in a rather loosely played game. The Buffaloes' next game will be with the City's Pawtucket Stars tomorrow afternoon. All players asked to report in front of the drug store at 3 o'clock.

The Cardinals accept the challenge of the Lawrence A.A. Juniors for a game on the Textile campus, call 2378-W as soon as possible to make arrangements for a Sunday game.

The Cardinal Midgets challenge the Princetons to a game for tomorrow afternoon. Will Tom Norney see to it that this game is arranged?

The Cardinal Midgets challenge any 13-14-year-old team, the Elks, the Hawks, Arrows and Seminoles, preferred. The Cardinal Midgets recently defeated the Young Nationals twice by scores of 6 to 3 and 12 to 3, also the Canton All-Stars, 12 to 2. The lineup is composed of the following: A. P.

The North Ends will indulge only in practice games until May 4. Games may be arranged by calling 1575-J and asking for Richard.

The Triangles defeated the Glenmound Stars Sunday afternoon on the South common by a score of 21 to 18. They're plugging and Gavreault's hitting were the features of the clash. Games are desired with all 12-15 year old teams. Answer through this paper.

The Young Yankees are looking for games with 12-15 year old outfits. Their lineup is: Couture p. Fancher p. Dupont 2b, Alexander 3b, Robarge, Sawyer, Padden and Landry ss, Bourgeois cf, Groux cf, Lebreque if, Gibault 1b. Games may be arranged through this paper.

The Marion A. C. would like to hear from 12-13 year old teams for a game on the North common next Saturday afternoon. The lineup is as follows: Albert or Gordon c. Delephanty or Fawcett p. Mitchell 1b, Pelletier ss, Riley 2b, Hofer 3b, Doyle or Welch 1b, H. H. H. cf, Riley rf. For games, call 4189-J and ask for Tommy.

The Lowell Red Sox accepts the challenge of the Cardinals for April 19 and would like to play them at the Lawrence Hosley grounds at 3 p. m.

DETROIT LEADING IN AM. LEAGUE —BRAVES TOP NATIONAL

Home Run by Casey Stengel in 10th Broke Up Two-Day Tie Between Boston and Philadelphia—Veteran Jack Quinn Pitched Sox to Victory

NEW YORK, April 17.—All victors of the major league opening days were defeated yesterday except Detroit, which jumped to the American league leadership by winning over Cleveland, 5 to 1. A home run by Casey Stengel in the 10th inning, broke up a two-day tie between Boston and Philadelphia and placed the Braves at the head of the National parade. The score was 4 to 3.

Home runs were numerous. Frankie Frisch and Billy Southworth connected with Burleigh Grimes' splitter for circuit blows in the Giant farm reversal which downed Brooklyn, 7 to 0. Only 6000 persons of the 14,000 opening day crowd returned for the second game. Carlson, a Philly pitcher, Hartnett of the Cubs, L. Bell of the Cardinals, and Harry Heilmann of the Tigers, were the other four-base swatters.

Wilbur Cooper pitched Pittsburgh to a 1 to 0 victory over Cincinnati in the best played game of the day. They only had one hit, a second and six double plays helped to sweep runners from the sacks. Jack Bentley held the Dodgers hitless until the seventh, after which he allowed four blows. The veteran Jack Quinn gave Yankee batsmen only six safeties and turned Babe Ruth back hitless in the Red Sox 9 to 5 victory which witnessed Husky Reiding by young Dudley Lee, Red Sox shortstop.

While his teammates wallowed four St. Louis pitchers for 17 hits, Grover Alexander crashed in with a 12 to 4 Cub victory. Ramey twirled a five-hit contest for Connie Mack's young athletes, who drove the veteran Magridge from the mound in the first frame and beat Washington, 6 to 1.

George Sisler's batting and fielding again featured the St. Louis-Chicago battle in the American league, but a single by Eddie Collins brought victory for the Cardinals, and Harry Heilmann of the Tigers, were the other four-base swatters.

Carl Whitball, Detroit recruit south-paw, knocked Joe Sewell unconscious with a thrown ball, and hit three other batters while defeating Cleveland. Sewell finished the game.

CROWD EAGER TO HEAR THAW

Announcement That He
Would Take Stand Today
Attracted Large Crowd

Dr. Potts, Fifth Alienist
Called in Behalf of Thaw,
Again on Stand

PHILADELPHIA, April 17.—Harry K. Thaw, flushed and confident, testified for a brief period in his own behalf in his sanity trial today. Then his lawyers dramatically turned him over to the other side for cross-examination.

Thaw seemed self-possessed. Former Judge John M. Patterson, his counsel, asked Thaw only five questions. Scarcely, the attorneys for the opposition were greatly surprised when he was turned over to them so quickly. Arthur G. Dickson, counsel for the trustees of the Thaw estate, and William A. Gray, representing Evelyn Nesbit, Thaw's divorced wife, whose 12-year-old son has intervened in his own behalf, discussed the case with the alienists supporting their side in low tones and with great earnestness.

At the end of five minutes, Mr. Dickson said:

"We have no questions to ask."

Thaw smiled and left the witness stand.

Perpiration glistened on Thaw's forehead and cheeks when he took the stand.

He clasped his hands over his portly body and looked directly at his counsel.

"How old are you, Mr. Thaw?" asked his lawyer gently.

"Fifty-three," was the low-voiced reply.

"You are at present confined in the Pennsylvania hospital for mental and nervous diseases. How long have you been there?"

"About seven years," Thaw's voice was clearer.

"You signed a petition asking that you be given a trial so that your sanity might be determined?"

"Yes."

"You asked me to put you on the witness stand so you could be examined on all relevant questions concerning your sanity?"

After slight hesitation, Thaw replied: "Yes."

That was all of the brief examination.

As Thaw left the courtroom, William A. Gray, counsel for Russell William Thaw, Evelyn Nesbit's 12-year-old son, who had been permitted to intervene in the case to protect his inheritance interest in Thaw's estate, and Arthur G. Dickson, attorney for the trustees of Thaw's estate, conferred with their own attorneys on the advisability of calling Miss Nesbit as the principal "defense" witness.

Miss Nesbit arrived from Atlantic City during the morning but had purposely kept away from the courtroom. It was finally decided that Miss Nesbit should not testify today and she returned to Atlantic City this afternoon.

Great Crowd Assembles

PHILADELPHIA, April 17.—Expectation that Harry K. Thaw would take the witness stand in an effort to have himself declared sane and freed from the asylum where he has been confined for seven years, attracted a large crowd to the common pleas court today. Only those who were connected with the case as witnesses or otherwise were admitted.

Dr. Charles S. Potts, Philadelphia, the fifth alienist called in behalf of Thaw, who was under cross-examination, when court adjourned yesterday, again took the stand. In his direct testimony Dr. Potts said that he found Thaw normal in every phase.

"I want to testify and let them judge for themselves," Thaw said yesterday at the close of the third day of the trial.

Mrs. Mary Conley Thaw, his 22-year-old mother, probably will follow him to the stand.

STRIKE IN KENTUCKY

Both Sides Predict Drawn
Out Contest Between

Operators and Miners

LOUISVILLE, Ky., April 17.—Representatives of both sides forecast a long drawn out contest between operators and miners in the strike in the western Kentucky coal field. An agreement concerning maintenance crews to care for machinery at the idle mines and to watch for possible cave-ins calls for employment of union men at the scale in effect prior to the strike call.

Lonnie Jackson, president of union district 23, asserted every union man affected by the order responded yesterday, the first day of the strike. He said there had been no trouble and none was anticipated. Prolonged suspension of operations, he probably would result, he added, in some of the men going to other fields.

At Straight Creek, in Bell county where disorders recently resulted in concentration of Kentucky national guardsmen, the force on duty had been reduced to 127 men. These guardsmen, according to an opinion by Frank Duggerly state attorney general, are without power forcibly to evict occupants of homes owned by the Liberty Coal & Coke Co., which operates the mine. The company he informed Adjutant General James Kehoe obtained a federal injunction prohibiting interference with mine operations and relief from violations of the injunction should be sought in federal court.

TO WORK OUT DETAILS OF EXPERTS' REPORTS

PARIS, April 17.—(By the Associated Press) The reparations commission at a plenary session this afternoon decided unanimously to take note of the reply of the German government adhering to the conclusions reached in the experts' reports and to approve within the limits of the commission's powers the conclusions and to adopt the methods proposed therein.

The commission also decided to transmit officially the experts' reports to the governments interested at the same time recommending adoption of their conclusions in order that the plans proposed may produce their full effect in the quickest possible time.

The government of the Reich will be asked to submit to the commission in the shortest possible time acts and decrees destined to insure the execution of the plans outlined in the reparations acts and decrees being based on the conclusions and texts of the reports.

The commission at a forthcoming meeting will proceed to the nomination of the commissions of organization provided for by the report of the experts' first committee and to the preparation of measures which the report of the first committee leaves to the commission for working out details.

Proctor to Testify

Continued

W. W. Tarbell of Connecticut, was recalled and asked by Senator Spencer, republican, Missouri, for an opinion of the oil leases. He previously had given his qualifications as "an experienced oil man."

Before giving his opinion, Tarbell read a statement saying that in his testimony March 24 he stated he had called upon the general manager of The Associated Press in New York and offered an interview about Tea Pot dome for publication, but that he had since learned he had talked to one in a subordinate position.

"In view of the fact that the question asked by Senator Kendrick seems to be perhaps immaterial and certainly my answer irrelevant," said Tarbell, "I suggest that both be expunged from the record."

No action was taken on the request.

In the committee session of March 24, Senator Kendrick, democrat, Wyoming, had asked Tarbell why The Associated Press had declined his interview and Tarbell replied: "They said they had so many friends on both sides."

When the committee adjourned, Senator Walsh gave notice that he intended to go into conditions on naval reserve No. 2 in California. It was his intention, he said, to call Assistant Secretary Pinney of the interior department.

Tarbell assailed the act of June 4 1920, under which Secretary Daniels leased oil wells in the California reserves. He declared any law placing the reserves "between the finger and thumb of one man is undemocratic."

The witness said undoubtedly the small outflow of oil in Teapot dome which he characterized as disappointing, had been due in some measure to "drainage on the edge of the reserve."

He explained that his comment upon conditions on the naval oil reserves was not based upon personal examinations but represented only conclusions reached by him after a study of data he got from newspapers, magazines and other sources.

Tarbell made to the committee what he called a "voluntary statement," reviewing the stock market transactions of various oil companies, being particularly critical in his discussion of what he termed "speculation in Mammouth oil." He asserted that following "the speculation" the stock had been taken from the curb market.

SURGICAL ASSOCIATION

BALTIMORE, April 17.—Follows of the American Association opened their 15th annual conference here today with more than 150 members in attendance. Many of the leading surgeons of the country are to read scientific papers during the sessions, which will continue for three days.

Sir Percy Power of London, fellow of the Royal College of Surgeons, spoke today on "The coming of the British surgical tradition to America."

EX-SEN. TURNER DEAD

LITTLETON, N. H., April 17.—Former State Senator George H. Turner of Bethel, died at a hospital here today, after an illness of several days. He was 71 years old and had been a member of the legislature for 12 years.

EX-MAYOR FRANK DROPS DEAD

POUGHKEEPSIE, N. Y., April 17.—William H. Frank, Sr., 71, former mayor and brewer, died suddenly today. He was chairman of the local inter-collegiate regatta committee and was a member of the original committee which brought the regatta here in 1895.

WARRANT FOR ARREST OF CHAS. R. FORBES

BALTIMORE, Md., April 17.—Application for a bench warrant for the arrest of Charles R. Forbes, former director of the veterans' bureau, was made today by District Attorney Woodcock, and it was expected to be issued later in the day. This action followed the indictment of Forbes on a charge of conspiracy to defraud the government in the sale of government supplies worth $1,155,000 to the Thomson-Kelly Co. of New York, and Boston, for a price reported to be less than $800,000. Nathan Thomson, head of the purchasing company, and Commander Charles R. O'Leary, U.S.N., indicted jointly with Forbes, probably will be arraigned for plea next Tuesday, Col. Woodcock said. He had no knowledge of Forbes' present whereabouts, he added.

Testimony Directly Denies Charges Against Wheeler

"The Lincoln permit" telegram from Campbell to Wheeler, as put in the record reads: "Please advise when you expect to return. Believe matter of Lincoln permit vitally important. Is it possible you can discuss matter with solicitor and I can come to Washington and discuss matters with him with view to satisfactory settlement even during your absence. Feel this permit should have prompt attention. This reply was sent to Campbell."

"I have already discussed permit with solicitor, but did not have numbers. Wire that to me and I will arrange to have you see him in person if you come here."

"I will state," interposed Senator Wheeler when the telegram was read, "that that telegram was sent from my office in my absence, but I take full responsibility for it."

Campbell said he did confer with Solicitor Booth and the latter had told him he should employ Washington lawyers to represent him before the interior department. He followed that suggestion, he added, reiterating that Senator Wheeler had never "appeared" for him before the interior or any other government department.

Copies of correspondence between Campbell and attorney in Great Falls and his law attorney in Washington, were produced. The originals had been taken from his office in Great Falls "by the government," he said.

"How did the government take them?" Senator Borah asked.

"Just took 'em," said Campbell.

"They worked a whizzer on my office force."

Campbell then testified that various departments of justice and postoffice people had taken the papers from his office, included in the group being the postmaster of Great Falls, whose name he did not know.

"They worked a very high-handed game," Campbell said, adding that he had previously told officials who called at his office on the case that he would give them any information they wanted.

Senator Borah called for Solicitor Booth when Campbell was excused, but as the interior department official was not in the room, James H. Baldwin, Wheeler's law partner, was put on the stand.

The law firm's books showing payments made to the firm by Campbell in the cases in which it represented him were produced by Baldwin, who gave also details of the state court cases. He said he understood that "the Standard Oil and its subsidiaries" were trying to get control of the Montana oil field involved in the 19 cases in which the Wheeler-Baldwin firm represented Campbell.

"Was there anything pending in your office relative to Mr. Campbell's affairs requiring you to appear before the interior department or the local land offices?" asked Borah.

"Absolutely not," Baldwin replied.

Baldwin corroborated Campbell's statement as to the employment of Senator Wheeler to represent Campbell in the courts in Montana. He said the fee was $10,000 a year, with agreement that Campbell should pay expenses. Two payments had been made, the witness said, "one on account of the fee and one for expenses."

"Coming to the first $2,000 payment, for?"

The witness said it was for representing Campbell solely in the state courts.

Campbell had been unable to pay on the basis of the original contract with the firm, he said, but the firm was "going right on," representing him because "he is on the rocks and needs help."

Campbell owes the firm about $6,000, the lawyer said, under the old contract for fees and expenses, and if he "won out" he would be asked to pay.

The witness added that "Wheeler and I regarded the services to Campbell as a 'contribution' to the cause of 'progressive policies' in Montana."

"It's always open season on progressive politicians in Montana," he remarked.

Baldwin said that while there was no written contract with Campbell or letter giving the terms of that verbal agreement, there was a letter from Wheeler because of his senate membership could appear only in the most important state cases.

"There never has been any litigation except in state courts," Senator Borah asked.

"None but in state courts," said Baldwin.

Baldwin was excused and the committee adjourned until 2:30 p. m.

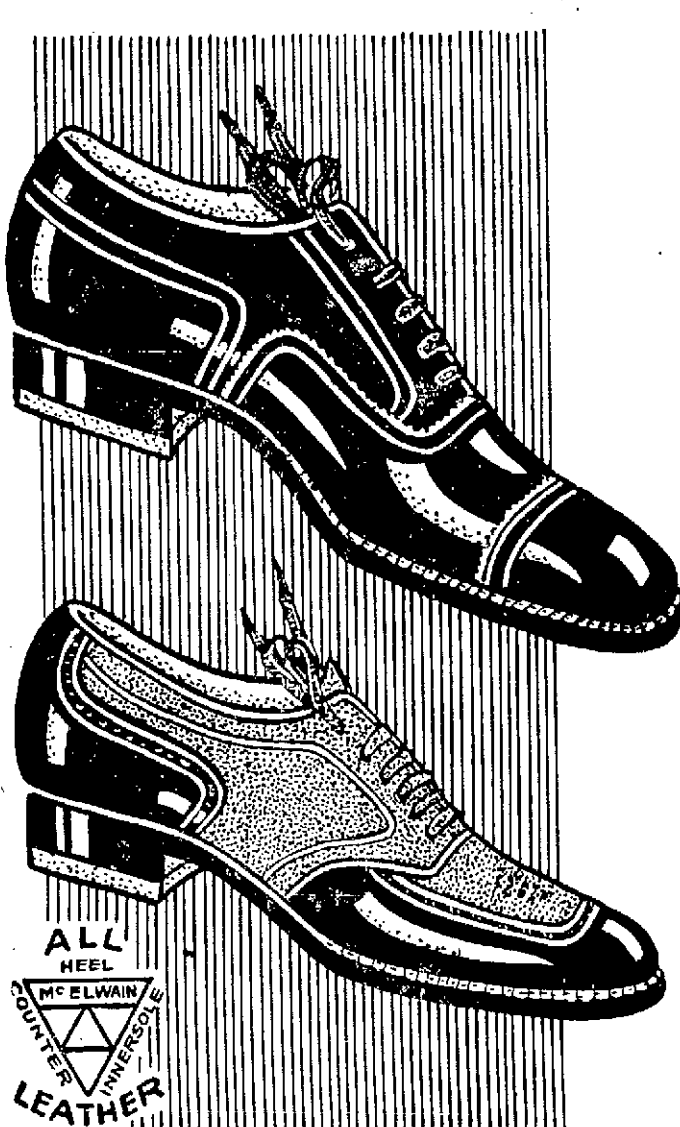

NEW YORK, April 17.—The resignation of Dr. Mary Mills Patrick, founder of Constantinople Woman's college and for 34 years its president, was announced today by the executive committee of the Near East colleges. She will be succeeded by Miss Kathryn Newell Adams, a member of the faculty.

Gingham and chambray dresses are made on the straight boyish lines of the moment with bands or tucked sections of self-material.

STRIKE THREATENS TO DELAY ENGLAND'S EXHIBITION

Workmen have completed sinking a coal mine under Wembley Park, London. Not that a fuel shortage threatens! The mine is to be one of the many exhibits in British Empire Exhibition which will run from April to October. The Prince of Wales (left) is the "press agent" of the fair. In preparation for the fair the Savoy hotel has added 100 suites to its "millionaire's wing. Recently workmen struck for an advance of four cents an hour pay and for the time being work on the exhibition building has halted.

DEFENDS PRES. COOLIDGE NEW HIGH RECORDS FOR DISCUSS THE BROCKTON FREIGHT HANDLING INDUSTRIAL SITUATION

Sen. Lodge Declares He Acted Within Rights in Senate Letter

WASHINGTON, April 16.—Replying to critics of President Coolidge for his letter of protest against the trend of senate investigations, Senator Lodge declared today in the senate that the chief executive had acted entirely within his rights.

"This message," said Senator Lodge, "relates directly to the conduct of public business with which the president is charged as chief executive."

Calling attention to that section of the measure stating that the internal revenue bureau investigating committee was seeking information which could not be helpful in framing legislation, Senator Lodge pointed out that there were laws making individual tax returns, including those of Secretary Mellon, involuntary.

"There can be no question in anybody's mind," the majority leader said, "that the purpose could not be otherwise than to seek something in relation to the character of the secretary of the treasury himself."

"I do not think there is any ground for finding fault with the president on communicating his views on matters like this," he continued. "History shows that the presidents never have hesitated to communicate with congress to give their views on many subjects, especially those affecting the administration of the government."

Adverting to the revenue bureau investigating committee, Senator Lodge declared that committee "clearly went beyond its authority in approving the employment of counsel to be paid by a member."

The internal revenue inquiry really was intended to "break down" Secretary Mellon, Senator Lodge said. "There is much more in this than politics," he declared. "It is aimed at the secretary of the treasury because he is the author of a great bill in which the whole country is interested."

WASHINGTON, April 16.—Two new high records for February freight handling by class one railroads were reported today by the bureau of railway economics.

Freight traffic in February, the report said, amounted to $15,902,421,000 net ton miles, an increase of 10.2 per cent over the same month last year. The figure also was 2.1 per cent higher than for February, 1920, when the previous high record was established.

A daily average movement of 27.2 miles for freight car during February the railway bureau added, was two and three-fifths miles greater than the average in the same month last year, and exceeded by five and one-tenth miles, the February, 1920, average.

TELEGRAPHIC BREVITIES

DEPHAM, April 16.—Michael De Bernardinis pleaded not guilty in the superior court here today to an indictment for the murder of Annette La Uliva at Stoughton last month. The case was continued for a week.

LOUISVILLE, Ky., April 16.—Another strike of coal miners was in effect in Kentucky today. Ten thousand men were idle in the western Kentucky field and at nearly 90 pits the only workers were crews on duty to protect property and machinery.

WASHINGTON, April 16.—By a vote of 71 to 4, the senate today reaffirmed its approval of the Japanese exclusion provision in the Immigration bill.

The action was taken as a formality. Yesterday's senate action was without a record vote, and some senators desired to have their positions formally recorded by a roll call.

SEN. LA FOLLETTE WITHDRAWS NAME

HELENA, Mont., April 16.—Senator LaFollette today directed the Montana secretary of state to withdraw his name from the presidential primary to be held May 27. The senator's name had been filed on the farmer-labor ticket.

BROCKTON, April 16.—The industrial situation as concerns Brockton was discussed by committees from manufacturers and shoe workers' unions Tuesday at 3 p. m.

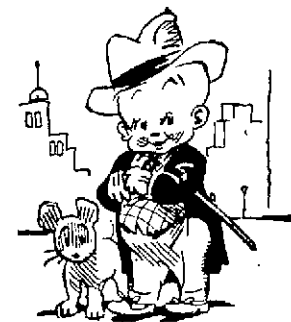

General Organizer Thomas O'Hare of the Boot & Shoe Workers' union and Secretary James O'Connell of the joint shoe council accompanied the union delegation.

The conference lasted two hours and a half and all phases were gone into. The meeting adjourned subject to an early call.

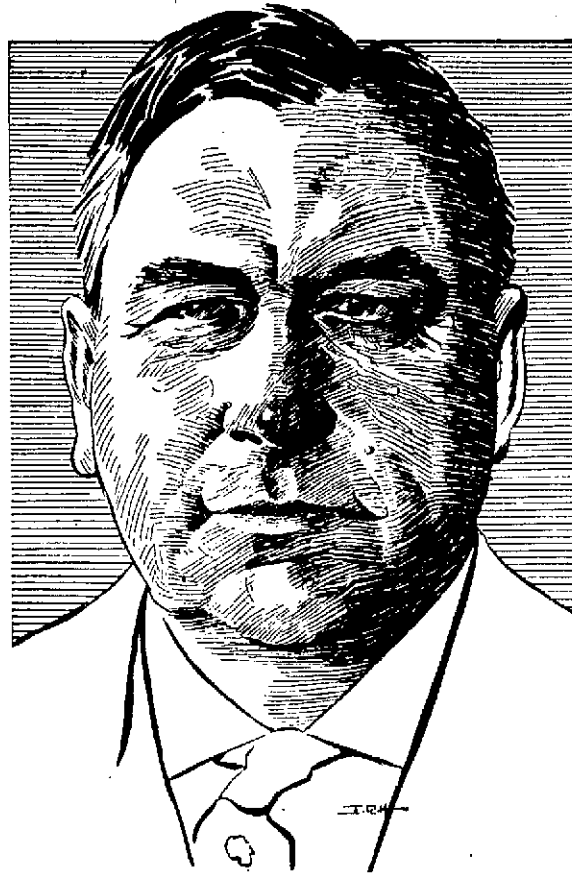

This morning Secretary Frank Bump of the Manufacturers' association issued the following statement:

"Gradually through general and harmonious discussion, the committee is finding out the real hub of the situation. Talk will resolve itself around the principal factors for betterment of the Brockton industrial situation, after they have been determined at the next meeting."

BY ALEXANDER HERMAN
N.E.A. Service Staff Writer
NEW YORK, April 17.—Harlan Fiske Stone, new attorney general, is a leading lawyer, inspiring educator, and fisherman, devoted husband, chimney father, but best of all—"the finest son-in-law in all the world."
So says Mrs. E. M. Harvey, his mother-in-law, who has lived with him for 18 years. "In all that time I have never heard a cross word or seen anything but a smile. Some may joke about the mother-in-law, but Harlan jokes with her."

Mrs. Harvey has known Stone since he was four months old. His family and hers were neighbors in Chesterfield, N. H. Both were farming folk. "Quite naturally Harlan and my daughter Agnes, who is a few years his junior, grew up together," the beaming mother-in-law went on. "They became young sweethearts and I guess they still are."

Athletic Star

Young Stone went to Amherst; Agnes went to the Vermont academy and they kept close track of each other and their romance grew. Proudly the girl heard of his football exploits. He became her hero.

Yet it was not primarily as an athlete that Stone shone, but as a scholar. He won a Phi Beta Kappa key and came on to New York to study law at Columbia. In 1898 he was graduated and admitted to practice. "Just as soon as I was able to make a living I went back home and married," said the attorney general a few minutes after arriving home to tell his mother-in-law of his appointment.

The young couple moved to New York and the young barrister proceeded to make a name for himself in his calling. He joined the law offices of Sullivan and Crumwell and became an expert in litigation. But he did not give up his academic work. His bride gave him an appointment as an instructor in the school where he had been student but a year before.

In 1905 he became a professor and five years later dean, a position which he held until last fall, when he resigned to devote more of his time to private practice. All these years he never let his work interfere with his family relations. He was the pal of his two sons, Marshall, now 21, and Lawson, 12.

His greatest thrill comes with their achievements. Marshall became an expert in mathematics and was graduated from Harvard at 19, became an instructor at 20 and expects to get his Ph.D. this year. Lawson is Harvard junior and hopes to follow his father's calling.

"The boys and father make a great trio," says Mrs. Harvey, "when they get together and discuss things."

Dean Stone, as he still is called around Columbia, is fundamentally a scholar. He does not like golf, motor-ing and other diversions of the usual professional man. His favorite outdoor sport is fishing. His favorite indoor sport is reading. Neither he nor his boys smoke, but they raise some smoke with their discussions.

When they don't spend summers traveling abroad they spend them on Isle Au Haut, Maine.

This summer, Pa Stone will probably

L. A. COOLIDGE ANNOUNCES HIS CANDIDACY

BOSTON, April 16.—Louis A. Coolidge of Milton in a letter to Chairman Frank H. Boss of the republican state committee made public today formally announced that he would be a candidate for the republican nomination for United States senator. Mr. Coolidge, who is treasurer of the United Shoe Machinery corporation and a former assistant secretary of the treasury, made it known some time ago that he would be a candidate if President Coolidge should be nominated at Cleveland.

In his letter he said: "President Coolidge's nomination at Cleveland is assured. Nothing that may happen now in Massachusetts can interfere with the success of his campaign."

He added that whatever the results of the primaries he would support all the republican nominees.

William M. Butler, national committee man and manager of President Cool-

RETRACTS STATEMENT ABOUT LOWELL HIGH ADDRESSED CONCORD AND MAYNARD KNIGHTS

Final papers were passed yesterday afternoon transferring title to the Arlington hotel property and the Dempsey block, in Central street, and the wooden building in Third street, formerly occupied by the Lowell High school, to the Arlington Hotel. The transfer was made in the office of J. Gilbert Hill, attorney, and was handled by Walter E. Guyette, real estate dealer.

President Charles P. Conant of the bank said that work on tearing down the present building and erecting in its place a thoroughly modern bank building would begin in the near future and would be done insofar as possible, by Lowell labor.

ON TOUR OF INSPECTION Isolation Hospital Investigation Committee Visits Hospitals in Other Cities

The city council committee charged with investigation of the mayor's charges against the conduct of the Lowell isolation hospital yesterday toured through the Merrimack valley visiting hospitals of a similar nature in various municipalities and securing comparative data from the superintendents thereof. Councilor John W. Daly is chairman of the committee. The other members are Councilors Chas. McFadden, Fitzgerald and Stearns and all were present.

Lawrence, Haverhill, North Reading, Lynn and Cambridge were visited in the order named. The committee left here at 10 o'clock yesterday morning and concluded its day's work shortly after 5 o'clock last night. Each hospital was quite thoroughly inspected and special attention was given to the sanatoria cost and method of computing the same.

In Lawrence the committee found a single building, 14 years old, and containing 30 tubercular patients at this time. Dr. Thomas F. Joyce, the superintendent, was not present. No figures were obtained here, but the building was quite thoroughly inspected. It is a two-story frame structure of the dwelling type with extended L-shaped additions on either side. There are no sun porches, but there are large windows, unshaded, in the wards which permit the sun quite free play. The supervising nurse said the capacity of the hospital is 55. The hospital has its own laundry.

Home Taken at Haverhill
At Haverhill the committee was met by Miss McDougal, the superintendent, and Dr. J. J. Clarke, supervising physician, arrived a few minutes later. Here an old dwelling, purchased 19 years ago for $12,500, has been converted into a sanatorium, of which the per capita cost of operating is given as $2.85 per diem. The view and altitude compared to the city of Lowell is commendable. The hospital has a capacity of 34 patients and last year maintained an average of 25. At present there is a male waiting list. There is no laundry or bakery, although the cook makes bread in the cooking stoves. There is a staff of five nurses who sleep in the building. Their jobs, as viewed by the committee, are small, unattractive, poorly furnished, one having nothing more than a bed and chair in it.

The state institution at No. Reading was far superior to any institution visited. There a cheerful, well appointed among patients was apparent. The lack of place was noticeable by contrast. This place has a capacity of 200 patients and maintains an average of about 197. The per capita cost per week, figured on gross expenditures is $15.08. Dr. C. C. MacCarroll is superintendent and he has a staff of three assistant physicians, a radiologist and dentist.

Met by Lynn Committee
Lynn and Cambridge were visited in order and the committee found conditions at these two places were as good as the others. At Lynn a committee from the Rotary, Lions, Kiwanis and other clubs, and the chamber of commerce as well as a delegation of local newspapermen was at hand to greet the committee. Dr. M. R. Donovan, commissioner of health, escorted the visitors through the place. Lynn's unit was found to be the most likely of any visited as a fair basis for comparison with Lowell. Dr. Donovan said the per capita cost is slightly over $3 a day.

There are at present 35 patients at the hospital suffering from tuberculosis. The contagious and tuberculous buildings, about 100 yards apart, are administered separately. Each has a staff of seven nurses.

Lowell has its own bakery and the cooking is done in a kitchen from an adjacent road, supplies vegetables, eggs and milk, thus helping in cutting the per capita cost.

Recommendations and suggestions were made to the committee at all the places visited and much data which should prove of value in comparing the cost of the maintenance of the Lowell institution as against similar institutions in the state was secured.

RECITAL TICKETS ARE SELLING RAPIDLY

Tickets are selling rapidly for the joint recital to be given by Sophie Branslaw, noted contralto of the Metropolitan Opera company, and Allan MacQuhrie, Irish tenor, in the Memorial Auditorium next Sunday evening.

Both are artists of the highest calibre and their program should afford an evening of rare enjoyment.

Tickets will be on sale until closing time Friday night in Chalfoux's Victrola department. On Saturday and Sunday they will be on sale at the Auditorium.

TWO AUTOMOBILES
STOLEN LAST NIGHT

Two automobiles, 1924 models, were stolen in the business section of the city last night. One belonged to William Ireland of 75 Bartlett street and was stolen in Warren street between 6 and 10 o'clock, and the other, the property of Peter McNiff of 23 Bourne street, was stolen between 7:30 and 10 o'clock.

The McNiff machine was recovered in West Tewksbury this morning, stripped of its accessories. The Crossland car is still missing.

Lowell florists report an unusually large quantity of Easter lilies for customer patronage this season. The quality of the flowers is excellent, dealers say, and the demand exceedingly large. Most of the leading florists charge 10 cents per blossom for lilies potted. This price is 10 cents less than the average price quoted last season.

RAPS PRES. COOLIDGE
Sen. Johnson Says Roosevelt
Would Have Settled Oil
Scandal in 48 Hours TOO LATE TO

Sen. Johnson Says Roosevelt Would Have Settled Oil Scandal in 48 Hours
NEWARK, N. J., April 17.—Senator Hiram W. Johnson entered the New Jersey campaign for republican national convention delegates pledged to his presidential candidacy with a speech here last night in which he asserted that the cause of present conditions at Washington was the "recrudescence of the unholy alliance between crooked big business and crooked politics."

He declared there is "food for reflection not only in the corruption which has been revealed at Washington but also in the apologies which are offered by administration spokesmen." He characterized the recent speeches of Senator Pepper and Secretary Hughes as lacking in concreteness and without even conventional indignation at what has been disclosed in Washington.

President Coolidge was repeatedly referred to as a person who remained "in seclusion behind the barred doors of the White House with nothing to say about what has happened," and was about what has happened, and was characterized with Theodore Roosevelt, who, Senator Johnson said, would have settled the whole oil scandal in 48 hours.

Mrs. Jennie Reid Arrives After Husband Had Married Baltimore Girl
BALTIMORE, April 17.—Coming to Baltimore yesterday on hurried notice from a friend that her husband was about to be married here, Mrs. Jennie G. Reid of Philadelphia, arrived too late to prevent the marriage but halted the couple as they were about to start on their honeymoon.

Her activities led to the home of the new bride, where she obtained her husband's arrest and later placed a charge of bigamy against him. The arrest came just before the newlyweds planned to leave the city and before guests had departed from a wedding party.

While detectives visited a half dozen other churches, Mrs. Reid's husband, Donald R. Reid, was married to Miss Kathryn Gleim in St. John's Lutheran church.

Mrs. Reid based her charge on the assertion to police that she had not been divorced although proceedings were instituted in September. Reid told police that he thought the decree was to have been signed today, and that he was within the law.

UNWELCOME VISITORS AT POSTOFFICE

Some one, or some group of persons, is using the lobby of the local postoffice during the late evening or early morning hours as a depository for their empty "moonshine" bottles and, it is suspected, are seeking its shelter for the purpose of inhibiting the poisonous stuff.

During the past several weeks, empty "shine" bottles have been found in the corridors of the postoffice by the janitors and turned over to the postmaster. There wasn't enough liquid left in the bottles for an analysis but Postmaster Delisle smelled the bottles and reports the odor strong enough to "knock a strong man off a chair."

Also, for many Mondays past, paper bags containing four empty "shine" bottles have been found in the same place in the corridors and despite the careful watching by janitors, the person who placed them there has so far avoided detection.

The federal building is in an odd position as regards law enforcement. It is in fact, a federal island in the heart of the city. State and city laws cannot infringe upon this federal island and any law enforcement that is to be done must be done by duly authorized federal officers. It is under the sole government of Postmaster Xavier A. Delisle who serves as custodian for the treasury department, which owns the building. Its doors must be open day and night yet no federal watchman is provided and it falls upon the janitors to act in the capacity of watchman as well as to keep the building clean. There are only three janitors, one for each 8-hour shift, and the postmaster admits they cannot be on duty as watchmen in cutting and clean the building at the same time.

But timbers of moonshine who use the corridors as saloons will be rudely awakened in the near future for federal officers with full power to act have been notified and are due to arrive here any time. Any persons arrested by them will find when the federal government acts it does a thorough job and that federal courts frown upon those who use federal buildings for illegal purposes.

WILL HOLD EASTER DANCING PARTY
On Saturday evening of this week (Patriots night) the Stratford party will hold an Easter-tide dancing party at the Highland club. During Lent all Stratford activities were suspended. However, as the fasting season ends at noon on Patriots day, the Stratfords will hold their first Easter party on Saturday night. And as all the young folks are eager to have some real good dancing on a real good floor, to music by a real good orchestra, there is no doubt that a large crowd will be present when Leo Daley's orchestra strikes up the first dance number. The Stratford's grand finale will be held on Friday evening, April 25, with John Broderick and his team furnishing the music. On this night several features are promised, which will make the final Stratford party of the season one to be long remembered by those who attend.

CLOSE OF MISSION AT POLISH CHURCH
A very successful mission in Holy Trinity (Polish) church was brought to a close yesterday. The service was delivered by Rev. Fr. Jakowski, and was followed by benediction of the Blessed Sacrament. Several hundred people received communion at the 5:30 o'clock mass this morning.

Holy Thursday is being observed today. Mass this morning was celebrated by Rev. Fr. Dudziak, and there was

PROF. BRASE SPEAKER AT GIRLS' CITY CLUB
The sixth and concluding lecture of a series on Psychology, was given last evening before the members of the Girls' City club by Prof. Herman Brase of the normal school, who talked on "The Sub-conscious Mind and Dreams."

"To can eliminate nervous disorders, control the nervous system by increasing the control of the sub-conscious responses," stated Prof. Brase.

"Although the realm of the unconscious is still a largely unexplored field, it cannot be neglected. The unconscious consists of certain fundamental operations outside our normal consciousness."

"The unconscious is analyzed by dreams. By the analysis of dreams the psycho-analyst traces the seat of many nervous and mental troubles. The value of knowledge of the unconscious, as a means of enlightening us in the training of the youth, is very great."

"If we learn to control our sub-conscious faculties we can truly say: 'I am the captain of my soul,'" concluded Prof. Brase.

an impressive procession, each child in line carrying a white lily. The girls of the Children of Mary sodality and the boys of St. Joseph's society participated.

The mass of the pre-sanctified tomorrow morning will be celebrated at 6 o'clock. Easter Services, a pious Lenten devotion, will be held in the evening at 7 o'clock. Holy water will be blessed before the 6 o'clock mass on Holy Saturday.

LOWELL MEN IN $5000 AUTO ACCIDENT SUIT

Charge Against Wheeler Flatly Denied

SUIT FOR $5000 AS RESULT OF AUTOMOBILE ACCIDENT

James J. Brennan Seeks Compensation for Injuries Sustained When Struck by Automobile Alleged to Be Owned by Ernest Beaudoin—Case Goes to Jury

An action of tort brought by James J. Brennan against Ernest Beaudoin, both of Lowell, was tried in superior court here this forenoon before Judge Richard W. Irwin. The ad damnum is $5000.

The plaintiff seeks compensation for injuries sustained when struck by an automobile in Central street, near Abbot street, driven by Bernard J. Peeney, employed in the grocery store of the defendant. The accident happened on the night of Dec. 22, 1923.

During the testimony offered it was brought out that the car being driven by Peeney was the property of the defendant's brother. The defense argued that at the time of the accident Peeney was not on his employer's business, while the prosecution sought to show that Peeney used the car with the knowledge and sanction of Beaudoin.

The case was given to the jury at 12:30 o'clock.

Hon. James E. O'Donnell represented the plaintiff, with Atty. H. V. Charbonneau for the defense.

The next case on the list was an action brought by Herford N. Elliott to recover a real estate commission to the amount of $1000. The defendants are Donabed Kacanjan and wife, Florence.

The plaintiff claims his salesman, William D. Leggat, found a customer for defendants' property in Gorham street and that he is entitled to commission. The defendants say they did not employ the plaintiff as a real estate agent and that customers produced by him did not make satisfactory offers to purchase the property.

Mr. Wier of Trull, Wier & O'Donnell for the plaintiff and Francis M. Qua of Qua, Howard & Rogers for defendants.

TESTIMONY DIRECTLY DENIES CHARGES AGAINST WHEELER

Borah Committee Began Probe of Indictment—Gordon Campbell Flatly Denies Wheeler Acted for Him Before Interior Department

WASHINGTON, April 17.—Testimony directly denying the charge pending against Senator Burton K. Wheeler, in Montana, was heard today at the outset of hearings on the subject before a special investigating committee of the senate.

Gordon Campbell, a Montana geologist, indicted with the senator, testified that Mr. Wheeler never had appeared in his behalf before the interior department in Washington in land cases, as charged in the indictment. He declared the senator had insisted that he could have nothing to do with land cases after his election to the senate but did represent the Campbell interest in the Montana state courts for a fee of $10,000 annually.

Former Representative Tom Stout of Montana, told the committee he had approached Wheeler on the subject of acting as counsel for Campbell in state litigation and that Wheeler himself had raised the point of his inability to handle any cases except in the state courts.

About a month ago, Campbell said, "he telegraphed Wheeler when they were going to pull some of my casing in all wells on public land. 'They' referred to the bank which had foreclosed."

"Is there no way for the government to stop pulling these wells," the message to Wheeler said.

Campbell produced a copy of Wheeler's reply, saying he was advised that the government could not intervene in the bank's plan to sell the casing under a foreclosed mortgage.

Another Campbell telegram to Wheeler was presented, relating to "the Lincoln permit." It asked Wheeler to arrange a conference with Solicitor Booth of the interior department. Senator Wheeler's office replied that the senator had seen Booth and that the latter would see Campbell when he came to Washington.

STATE COMMISSION ON BOY HIT BY AUTOMOBILE OLD AGE PENSIONS IS BADLY INJURED

Field agents for the state commission on old age pensions are shortly to visit Lowell to secure confidential interviews with persons interested in the old age pension project. The commission recently held a public hearing on the subject in city hall at which time the Fraternal Order of Eagles and several members of the city council spoke in favor of such pensions. Richard Sykes of South Lowell was the leading opponent of such a plan.

Field agents will be sent here and also to other large cities in the commonwealth to privately interview individuals over the 65 year age limit and secure their views on the problem.

Old age pension bills have been before the Massachusetts legislature for many years and the legislature of 1923 provided for the appointment of a special commission to consider the subject, ascertain the cost, and to report to the legislature of 1925. The legislature of 1921 has recently referred to the legislature of 1925 pension bills which have been introduced this year.

PROCTER, WHO FINANCED WOOD'S CAMPAIGN IN 1920, TO TESTIFY

WASHINGTON, April 17.—William Cooper Procter of Cincinnati notified Senator Walsh of the senate all committee today that he would arrive in Washington tomorrow in response to the committee subpoena served upon him yesterday. He financed the campaign of Leonard Wood in 1920 and is to be questioned concerning campaign contributions and happenings at the Chicago convention.

Phil Baer, United States marshal for the eastern district of Texas, testified at today's hearing regarding his acquaintance with the late Jack Hamon. Baer said he was a delegate to the Chicago convention and that Hamon sought to get the Texas delegation to vote solidly for Lowden. He added that the delegation was split between Wood, Lowden and Harding.

The witness said he had never had any conversation with Hamon about Hamon's ambitions politically. He denied that after the Hamon funeral he had any conversation with John Smith of Paris, Texas, who recently told the committee that Baer said to him that Hamon intended to make Baer rich if he got to be secretary of the interior.

MANSLAUGHTER CHARGE

Driver of Truck That Killed Child Arraigned in the District Court

Defendant Pleads Not Guilty
and is Held in $2000
Pending Inquest Report

Harry I. Brainard of 98 Marble street, Lawrence, was arraigned in district court this morning on a charge of manslaughter in connection with the death yesterday afternoon of 3-year-old Mary A. McCabe of 10 Butterfield street, who died in the Lowell Corporation hospital as the result of injuries sustained when she was struck by defendant's truck in Fletcher street, near Butterfield shortly before 3 o'clock yesterday.

Brainard pleaded not guilty and was continued in $2000 until May 6, or until such time as the inquest finding is returned.

The accident which resulted in the little girl's death occurred while Brainard was driving his truck along Fletcher street. At a point near Butterfield, the little girl dashed across the street in the path of the approaching machine. The operator swerved to the left, but the rear end of his truck struck the girl in the head, knocking her down. She was rushed to the hospital and died at 3:05 P. M.

The truck is owned by Matthew J. Doyle of 287 Water Street, Lawrence, proprietor of the Lowell and Lawrence, and Lowell and Boston Transportation Co.

The McCabe child is survived by her parents, Charles and Mary Lynch McCabe; two brothers, Charles J. and John F. McCabe, and one sister, Esther E. McCabe. The body was removed to the home at 10 Butterfield street by Undertakers James P. O'Donnell & Sons.

LOWELL REPRESENTED AT BOSTON MEETING

Lowell was represented today at an important meeting of the emergency board of the United Textile Workers of America and general organizers of the union, held at the Parker House in Boston.

The Sun is informed that this special session of the leaders of one of the largest textile workers' union organizations in New England was called for the purpose of discussing "the entire New England textile situation." Nothing would be said about today's meeting plans at U. T. W. of A. district headquarters on Central street, this city, beyond the statement that Lowell textile workers would be represented at the Boston conference and that their interests in the questions to be discussed would be looked after carefully and faithfully.

Union textile leaders in many sections of New England believe that an attempt may be made shortly to lower the wages of textile operatives, especially those in cotton mills, which for the most part have been operating on curtailed schedules for several months. Harry E. Hough, U. T. W. of A. worker and organizer, who has frequently visited Lowell district in the past, was present at today's Boston meeting with other organizers. Mr. E. Hough has been doing organizational work recently in the south. His headquarters are Pawtucket, R. I.

WASHINGTON, April 17.—The fate of the immigration bill with its Japanese exclusion provision was involved in another conference today between President Coolidge and Senator Lodge, prior to resumption of senate debate on the measure.

Senator Lodge said the immigration question had been discussed but would not say whether he had obtained any information as to the probable action of the president when the measure reaches the White House. Senator Willis, republican, Ohio, who with Senator Lodge, supported the Japanese exclusion provision, conferred with the president after Lodge.

NO HOLIDAY FOR LETTER CARRIERS

Owing to the rush of Easter mail at the local postoffice, letter carriers will enjoy the annual Saturday afternoon curtailment and the regular week-day deliveries will be made in both the residential and business sections of the city.

This announcement was made by Postmaster Xavier A. Delisle today and notices to this effect were posted throughout the postoffice building and the several branches in the city. Curtilment Saturday, said the postmaster, with an extra heavy Easter mail collection at the postoffice, would result in many persons not receiving their Easter mail on time and would also cause congestion at the office which could not be straightened out for several days.

Patriots day is not a federal holiday, but so that it might be observed partially at the postoffice, Postmaster Delisle today issued instructions to the effect that all windows in the main postoffice and its several branches would be closed at 3 o'clock in the afternoon instead of remaining open until 7 or 8 o'clock as is the custom.

The Easter mail poured into the postoffice yesterday afternoon and this morning in a steady stream and from the amount handled so far, the postmaster believes this year's rush will be far more severe than last year's or any previous year's. The carriers and clerks are working in "high speed," however, according to the postmaster, and the mail is being handled in a very satisfactory manner.

REAL ESTATE TRANSFER IN BELVIDERE SECTION

Preliminary papers were passed recently in the office of R. M. Humphrey, real estate dealer, for the transfer of a large investment property in the Belvidere section at an approximate price of $14,000.

The property is located at 9-11-13-15 Lawrence street and consists of two 3-story blocks, insurance tenement of 6 rooms and in modern and well equipped. Included in the sale is approximately 5000 square feet of land. The grantor is Minnie J. Verriest and the purchaser is a local investor whose name is withheld until the passage of final papers.

LOWELL OFFICIALS INVESTIGATE FIRE APPARATUS IN LYNN

Mayor and Purchasing Agent Accompanied on Tour of Inspection by City Solicitor—Mayor MacPhetres
Escorts Lowell Men on Visit to Firehouses

City Solicitor P. J. Reynolds and Henry Kelly of the solicitor's office today accompanied Mayor Donovan and Purchasing Agent Donnelly to Lynn where fire apparatus was inspected. The delegation was escorted on the visit to firehouses by Mayor Harlan A. MacPhetres. The purchasing agent is about to award contracts for two new triple combination pumping engines for the city department and it was in connection with these purchases that the trip was made.

City Solicitor Reynolds yesterday visited the state department of public utilities at the suggestion of the mayor, to learn what if any actual saving in the cost of gas is resultant to the recent change in tariff by the Lowell Gas Light Co., spoken of at the time announced as in the nature of a reduction.

PATRIOTS DAY PROGRAMS IN LOCAL SCHOOLS

Patriots Day, the anniversary of the battles of Lexington and Concord which marked the beginning of the revolutionary war, was celebrated this afternoon in the elementary schools of the city with patriotic exercises which consisted mainly of songs and stories of the American farmers who, by the bridge at Concord, "fired the shot heard round the world."

In many of the schools, Lowell Day exercises were held jointly with the Patriots Day observance and in these schools the reading of the school prize winning essay in the Lowell Day essay contests was a feature of the exercises.

Where elaborate programs were prepared, the exercises were given in the school assembly halls but in a great many schools the exercises were given in the classrooms.

REPARATION PROBLEM HENRY F. HURLBURT DEAD

Commission Engages in an Unofficial Exchange of Views—Plenary Session

PARIS, April 17.—(By the Associated Press) The reparation commission engaged today in an unofficial exchange of views concerning the attitude to be adopted after receipt of Germany's reply accepting the experts' reports as a practical basis for solution of the reparation problem.

The commission is meeting in plenary session this afternoon, when it is expected its official decision will be taken. In reparation circles it is believed the commission will immediately refer the reports to the interested governments.

At the conclusion of the unofficial session, Louis Barthou, president of the commission said: "Solution of the reparation problem appears to be in a fair way of realization."

DALLAS, Tex., April 17.—Governor Neff, continuing his campaign in Texas for an unrestricted delegation to the national democratic convention today challenged William C. McAdoo to answer his charge that Mr. McAdoo's record makes him unfit to be the democratic standard bearer this year.

The chaotic condition of politics at present makes it unwise, Governor Neff said to tie the Texas delegates to any candidate. The candidate selected today may be indicted tomorrow, such is the uncertainty of "this investigating age," he declared.

Governor Neff insists that he has nothing personal against either McAdoo or Sen. Underwood. He said he could not criticize their professional conduct, but when they aspired to become the standard bearer of the democratic party in the year when it seems victory may perch on the democratic standard, that is a horse of another color.

Twice President of Boston Bar Association — Prosecuted "Auto Ring" Cases

BOSTON, April 17.—Harry F. Hurlburt, twice president of the Boston Bar Association and one of the most prominent lawyers in Massachusetts, died yesterday afternoon at the Tremont hospital. He had been failing for a year. His home was at 1110 Beacon st., Brookline.

With Mr. Hurlburt when he died was his son, Harry E. Hurlburt, Jr., and the other members of his family. Henry Francis Hurlburt was distinguished in the practice of both criminal and civil law. Despite numerous private and professional triumphs, he attained greatest fame as chief prosecutor of Nathan A. Tuffis, who was removed from the office of district attorney of Middlesex county by the Massachusetts supreme court.

DEATHS

O'BRIEN—The death of Mrs. Mary A. (Murphy) O'Brien, widow of James A. O'Brien, who was formerly a well known pharmacist in Broadway, occurred yesterday afternoon at her home, 387 Broadway, after an illness of short duration. For over three decades of years deceased had been a resident of St. Patrick's parish and her death removes a genuinely lovable character who left her impress upon all with whom she came in contact and whose life was indeed an inspiration. A woman of highest ideals, reflecting in her travels abroad, her life's highway a sweetness of disposition and a gentle refinement of nature, her friends gathered about her and rejoiced in the enjoyment of her friendship. Charitably inclined, she gave without stint and unostentatiously and many people can testify to the great practical evidences of her benevolent interest. She was intensely interested in her daughters and the death of her husband, her life was bound up with all those things that centered about the family hearthstone. Widely and sympathetically felt for the family in the great sorrow which has come to them. She leaves two daughters, Miss Frances T. O'Brien, of the high school faculty and Miss Elizabeth O'Brien.

MCCLELLAND—Died, April 17, in No. Billerica, Mrs. Gertrude Annie McClelland, aged 56 years, six months and two days at her home, 31 Wilson street. She is survived by her husband, Thomas H., one daughter, Mrs. Francis W. Eaton of North Reading; her mother, Mrs. Jane Switzer; three brothers, Amos, Christopher and Jackson D. Switzer; one sister, Miss Margaret J. D. Switzer, and one granddaughter, Gertrude M. Eaton. Funeral notice later.

PALMER—Mrs. Marion (Elliot) Palmer, wife of the late Elgin Palmer, a resident of this city for the past 40 years, died last evening at her home, aged 63 years, 7 months and 6 days. She is survived by one daughter, Mrs. Mabel P. Durgin of Salem; one grandson, Cyrus Wilbur Durgin of Salem, and one sister, Mrs. George Lindsey of Lowell. The body was removed to Saunders' Funeral home, 217 Appleton street.

HOWARTH—Mrs. Elizabeth Howarth, a well known resident of North Billerica, where she had resided for many years, and widow of the late James Howarth, died last night at her home, 37 Elm street, aged 88 years. She leaves two daughters, Mrs. Sarah A. Sutcliffe of North Billerica and Mrs. William Stevenson of Spray, N. C.; four grandchildren and one grandchild. She was one of the oldest members of St. Anne's church, North Billerica. Funeral notice later.

Funeral took place this afternoon from the home of her parents at 3 o'clock. Burial was in the family lot in St. Patrick's cemetery. Funeral arrangements were in charge of Undertakers O'Connell & Fay.

LEGION PASSES

14,000 MARK
BOSTON, April 17.—With the remainder of the week to go in its drive for members, the American Legion passed well over the 14,000 mark yesterday. No official figures were compiled but at noon Francis W. Good, chairman of the membership committee, estimated memberships had reached 13,977, with many reports not in, and the afternoon's work to hear from. The Boston Police post will be the main attraction at today's exercises on the common. Commander Melvin A. Patterson promises good speakers and a fine entertainment. The Army band will play.

TABLETS KILL CHILD
ST. ALBANS, Vt., April 17.—Madeleine, two year old daughter of Byron and P. Green died today soon after swallowing some poison tablets which she had found in a bedroom.

EXPLOSIVE POWDER BAFFLES POLICE

Local and state police have been trying for a long time to solve the nature of the substance used by firebugs in "frink" buildings. As a general rule, the evidence is quickly devoured by the flames, with the result that nothing really definite has been learned as to the methods employed. Kerosene oil was a favorite with incendiaries for a long time, but modern firebugs have resorted to a new method, that of using an explosive powder, which is spread all over the building doomed to destruction. Supt. Atkinson is inclined to believe that professionals use a liquid celluloid mixture, one of the most hazardous inflammables in existence, and a ready prey to flames. Powders and liquids, with the exception of kerosene, have rarely been used in Lowell, the superintendent believes.

"MY IRISH ROSE"

Rehearsals are being held daily for the presentation of the three act comedy, "My Irish Rose" by St. Columba's Dramatic club, under the direction of "Tom" Beane, assisted by Michael Mahoney. Both men are well known in amateur theatricals and through their efforts and those of Rev. Cornelius Costello a mighty fine cast has been brought together. Many people who saw "Only 35" at the high school auditorium last year will remember with pleasure the demure and pleasing part of the "Widow," portrayed by Miss Alice Carey. In "My Irish Rose," Alice has adapted herself to the part of Ann Mary as truly as she did to the "Widow" last year. "Jack" Carroll shares honors with Miss Carey in the role of Colum McCormack, brother to Ann Mary. Jack's versatility on the boards is well known and in the part of Colum he is at his best. The play will be presented at the Academy of Music, Dutton street, on the evenings of April 24 and 25.

THREE BANDITS TAKE $50,000

Gunmen Held Up Two Postal Employees in South St. Paul and Seize Pouches

Five Mail Bags With $50,000 in Cash and Quantity of Registered Mail Taken

ST. PAUL, Minn., April 17.—Fifty thousand dollars in currency was included in the loot obtained by three bandits who held up two postal employees in South St. Paul today, escaping with five pouches containing a large quantity of registered mail. The robbery occurred at the Chicago Great Western station just after a train had unloaded the pouches, one of which contained the $50,000 payroll for Armour & Co.'s South St. Paul plant.

As the pouches were being loaded onto a truck, the bandits drew up in an automobile, two sprang out with drawn revolvers, forcing two postal employees to surrender the bags.

TOOTH ANNIVERSARY OF DEATH OF LORD BYRON

ATHENS, Greece, April 17.—The fete in commemoration of the 100th anniversary of the death of Lord Byron was inaugurated yesterday with various ceremonies, including laying the first stone of a memorial donated by Mrs. Henry Morgenthau, wife of the former American ambassador to Turkey.

BODY OF MAN IN ICE POND

FITCHBURG, April 17.—The body of an unidentified man, about 30 years old, six feet tall and weighing 160 pounds, was found in Greece's ice pond, off Ashby road, today. He wore a brown suit bearing the trade mark of a Boston store, and the initials "B.B.P." were in his cap. Dr. D. S. Woodworth, medical examiner, and the police say that the body had been in the water several days. They could find no evidence of foul play. In one of the pockets a bottle containing alcohol was found. As the police have no record of a missing person answering the description, it is believed that the victim was a resident of Boston or vicinity.

OLIVER BALDWIN TO OPPOSE LLOYD GEORGE

LONDON, April 17.—Oliver Baldwin, socialist member of parliament and son of former Premier Stanley Baldwin, is said by the newspapers to be contemplating opposing David Lloyd George, as the labor candidate in the Carnarvon district at the next parliamentary election. It is stated that branches of the socialist party have been established in most of the towns throughout the constituency and that Mr. Baldwin has spent several months there learning the Welsh language.

EX-MAYOR FOSS TO RUN FOR CONGRESS

FITCHBURG, April 17.—In a statement issued today, Benjamin A. Cook of this city formally announces that Frank H. Foss, chairman of the republican state committee and ex-mayor of Fitchburg, will be a candidate for the republican nomination for congress in the Third Massachusetts district after President Coolidge's nomination is assured.

SCHOOL GIRLS TO RUN STORE

BRIDGEPORT, Conn., April 17.—A new sensation is exciting every senior class member in Bridgeport high school and every girl is busily preparing to play her part next Tuesday, when the girls will take charge of a big department store, and conduct its business for one full day.

$300,000 LOSS BY FIRE

St. Anne's Church One of 29 Buildings Destroyed at Manchaug—60 Homeless

MANCHAUG, April 17.—Sixty persons were made homeless, 29 buildings destroyed and other buildings threatened when fire swept the business and residential section of Manchaug—a village in the town of Sutton, about 14 miles south of Worcester—yesterday afternoon, causing damage estimated at between $250,000 and $300,000.

Among the structures destroyed were St. Anne's Catholic church, St. Anne's parochial school, the convent of Sisters of the Holy Ghost, St. Jean Baptiste hall, 16 private houses, a few small stores, barns and outbuildings.

The cause of the fire has not been determined, although it is the belief of the firemen, who fought the flames for five hours, that it started in a partition near the chimney, over the garage owned by Joseph Connelly.

HAMON'S WIDOW SAYS SHE WAS JOKING

CHICAGO, April 17.—Mrs. Georgia Hamon Rohrer, widow of Jake L. Hamon, Oklahoma oil man and politician, said she was joking when she declared she would not appear before the senate investigating committee in answer to a summons. "I was not defiant," she said. "I merely said that all the necessary papers were out in Oklahoma, and that I would have to wait until the committee forwarded its expenses before I started out west after the documents."

"As to the remark about being a democrat and therefore not going to go before the committee that was meant in fun."

WELCOMES ADHESION OF ITALY TO REPORT

ROME, April 17.—Commenting on Premier Mussolini's interview with Chas. G. Dawes and other republican experts, the Corriere d'Italia today says it welcomes the admission of the Italian government to the report and the spirit in which it was dictated. It notes, however, that the Dawes report admits the possibility of continued military occupation of the Ruhr. The newspaper expresses the opinion that if Premier Tassinari accepts only what it calls the negative parts of the report, it will share the fate of all the other efforts to restore normal conditions in Europe and will end in another futile conference.

IRISH FREE STATE

Second Loan to Balance Accounts of Government

LONDON, April 17.—A second loan will be necessary to balance the 1924 accounts of the Irish Free State government, says the Morning Post's Dublin correspondent. The loan, he adds, will be floated in America, probably about mid-summer.

MUSSOLINI STUDIES EXPERTS' REPORTS

ROME, April 17.—Premier Mussolini yesterday examined the reports submitted to the reparations commission by the two expert committees. He was assisted in his examination of the documents by the Italian delegates who served on the committees. The attitude to be taken by Italy in the forthcoming settlement was discussed.

HEARINGS ON ARTICLE 28

WASHINGTON, April 17.—Hearings on further postponement of operation of section 28 of the merchant marine act began before the interstate commerce commission today on petition of representatives of a number of ship-owners. Operation of the section gives preferential railroad freight rates on goods to be shipped in American vessels. The present effective date of the section is May 20.

THREATEN TO REMOVE TELEPHONE BOOTHS

NEW YORK, April 17.—Three thousand druggists are threatening to remove telephone booths from their stores unless the telephone company gives them a larger share of the receipts. They want 25 per cent, and declare that the present percentage does not pay for the nuisance of making change or for the space taken up by the booths. They also contend that the telephones bring them little trade. Pledge cards have been mailed to all members of the New York drug conference and when these are returned an ultimatum will be delivered to the telephone company.

SETTLEMENT REACHED IN SEARLES CASE

NEW YORK, April 17.—The suit brought by Judge Harry C. Curtis, of Warwick and Providence, R. I., against Edward F. Searles, for $325,000 in legal fees, was settled in supreme court today. The settlement, the details of which were kept secret, was effected at a conference of counsel for both sides in the chambers of Justice Proskauer before resumption of the trial today.

Judge Curtis sued for legal services rendered Mr. Searles on three occasions. He said that through his efforts young Searles got $4,150,000 from the $5,000,000 estate of his uncle; that the plaintiff had settled a divorce suit against Searles brought by his first wife and that he also attempted to settle a $100,000 bill for services filed against Searles by former Judge W. M. Oloott.

MRS. PINCHOT HAS GERMAN MEASLES

ACTORS' STRIKE ON JUNE FIRST PREDICTED

NEW YORK, April 17.—Predictions that an actors' strike would be started throughout the country on June 1, were freely made in theatrical circles today after the statement issued by the Actors' Equity association, that it had terminated negotiations with the Producing Managers association and had rejected a proposed compromise agreement. One prominent manager, who has been a party to the negotiations, declared a theatrical war was unavoidable, and that it certainly would be waged with vigor and bitterness by both sides. The Equity association, according to the statement, declined the compromise because it "offered no guarantee that the life, the vitality of the organization will be maintained." The main point at issue is the insistence on the part of the actors that theatrical casts be recruited in the main from members of their association. If a strike is called, it will affect not only theatricals in New York but also all Equity members who are with road companies.

141 NOW ENTERED FOR MARATHON RACE

BOSTON, April 17.—After receiving yesterday's mail, Manager Tom Kurnaly of the American Marathon of the Boston Athletic Association, which will be held next Saturday, announced that the entry had climbed to 141.

Sight more were added yesterday. Paul Neman of San Francisco, who came around from California by the way of the Panama Canal, sending in his name on reaching this city. William J. Churchill, the Olympic club runner from the same city, told about Neman last week. He believes he will be a strong competitor over the route. If the long water journey does not handicap him.

Two more soldiers have been added. Antonio Sabella, L. S. A., Earl Jay, N. Y., and John Holmes of Camp Taylor, Ky.

The others are Charles Denningham, Inverness, Vt.; J. Strongach, Boston; Bert Coyne, Eliza Associates, Malden; Mike Koski, Gloucester, Y.M.C.A.; and George Hamann, Meadowbrook club, Philadelphia.

As all the veterans are listed, there can be few in the way of experienced runners who can be added.

All of the hard work has been done by the men. They will spend their time waiting for the start of the gun.

Because of the importance attached to the race, William C. Pratt, chairman of the Olympic selection committee, like the members of the athletic committee, is very much worried, fearing congested roads owing to automobile traffic. Pratt hopes the Boston fair in its treatment of these annual runs, will again set the example of a high standard of sportsmanship.

YOUNG STRIBLING TO BOX PAUL BERLENBACH

NEW YORK, April 17.—The proposed six-round battle between Young Stribling, Georgian light heavyweight, who recently outpointed Mike McFieue, the world's champion, in a no-decision bout, and Paul Berlenbach, knockout sensation of the indoor season, will bring together the two most colorful young fighters of the ring.

Contracts have not been signed but it is understood that both have agreed to the meeting at the annual milk fund benefit to be held here in June, probably between the 20th and 25th.

JARRETT WILL ANSWER FOUR CHARGES

Joseph A. Jarrett, who was brought back to this city from New York Tuesday night for defending on four charges preferred against him in 1922, was called for the second time in district court this morning. He was continued in $1000 until April 21 on the following charges: Drunkenness, operating an automobile while he was under the influence of liquor, going away without making himself known after causing injury to property, and operating in a manner to endanger the lives and safety of the public.

A good way to clean unwholesome furniture is to cover it with a bath towel and beat it lightly, shaking the towel whenever it shows dust.

NOTED COLLEGE STARS IN MISSING AIRMEN SAFE

PHILADELPHIA, April 17.—The two-mile race, one of the features of the first day of the Pennsylvania relay carnival, April 25 and 26, will bring into competition probably one of the greatest fields of college distance runners in the history of the meet. Nearly every distance man of prominence in the country is entered and followers of the track look for a new record should running conditions be favorable. Pooks of Cambridge university also had expected to compete in the event, but he broke down in training and was unable to accompany the English relay team to this country.

Among the 42 entries in the race are Moore of Columbia, national two-mile champion; McKinley of Bates, Interstate titleholder; Doherty, of Tufts, New England cross-country champion; Leonard, Boston college; Treatwell, Yale; Gordon and Duncan, Princeton.

GARDELLA TO MANAGE FITCHBURG TEAM

FITCHBURG, April 17.—Official announcement was made today by John P. Kierman, owner of the Fitchburg franchise in the reorganized Central league, that Gus Gardella of Medford, veteran Eastern leaguer, has been signed as player-manager. Gardella belongs to Pittsfield. He has asked to be placed on the voluntary retired list so that his professional rating in organized baseball will not be impaired.

Gardella, in the Eastern league is a top center, and is considered one of the best fielders in the circuit. He captained Hartford when it won the pennant. One of Gardella's rivals will be Jackie Smith, former Harvard star, who was given a tryout in the big leagues, and who will run the Nashua, N. H., club.

SMITH-SHADE BOUT CALLED OFF

TROTZKY UPHOLDS M. LINOVIEFF

MOSCOW, April 17.—War Minister Trotzky, speaking at Pskov, in a report to the Soviet government, stated that Russia will not meet the claims put forward by the British and that an agreement is possible only if both countries start with a clean slate, after which the Soviet government will meet any obligations the Russian delegation may sign at the London conference.

WISS HARVARD FELLOWSHIP
AMHERST, April 17.—Prentice Van W. Durell of Buenos Ayres, Argentina, was announced today as the winner of the Charles Eliot Norton fellowship at Harvard for study next year at the American school of classical studies at Athens. He is a graduate of the University of California, a former student at the University of Arizona and a second year student in the School of Architecture at Harvard.

Maj. Martin and Mechanician Recuperating — Globe Flight Is Delayed

KANATAK, Portage Bay, Alaska, April 17.—Major Frederick L. Martin, commander of the United States around-the-world squadron, and his mechanic, Sergeant Alva Harvey, were recuperating here today, while awaiting the arrival from Unalakleet of a new engine for the airplane. Tuesday, at Cape Igarka, 170 miles northeast of Chignik, Alaska, en route to the latter place from Seward.

As a result of the accident, the globe flight will be delayed about one week. The other three cruisers, the Boston, Chicago and New Orleans, were anchored safely today at Chignik. They arrived Tuesday under the temporary leadership of Lieut. Erik H. Nelson.

A crack in the crank case of the engine, causing a leakage of oil, forced Major Martin to land at Cape Igarka. He and Harvey spent the night in their plane. Word was sent out by Lieut. Nelson at Chignik by wireless and two United States destroyers, the Cary and Hull, retraced their route off Seward in search of the plane. The destroyers arrived at the scene early yesterday and the Hull took Major Martin and his mechanic aboard, together with the air cruiser, and brought them to Kanatak.

Prepared to Hop Off
SEATTLE, Wash., April 17.—A message from Chignik, Alaska, reported that the world cruisers Nos. 2, 3 and 4, piloted by Smith, Wade and Nelson, are prepared to leave Chignik today for Dutch Harbor, weather permitting.

New Protest From Japanese

Washington, is to be recalled by the Japanese government, the newspaper Yomiuri declared today. The publication added that Foreign Minister Katani will resign to appease the storm expected at the coming session of the Imperial diet over the immigration problem. Both reports were officially denied.

Call Provision Insult
TOKIO, April 17.—(By the Associated Press.)—If the Japanese exclusion provision is made a law by the United States, two Japanese will feel that the Americans have spat in our face," Sadatomi Uchida, former Japanese ambassador to Turkey declared today at a luncheon of the Pan-Pacific club.

Another speaker, Viscount Shibusa-wa, however, asserted that the action of congress in adopting the Japanese exclusion clause has tempted him to revert to the "Americanophobia" of his youth. In explanation, he recalled the wave of anti-foreign feeling which swept Japan 10 years ago on the occasion of Commodore Perry's visit. Viscount Shibusa-wa, then 14 years old, shared the anti-American feeling, he said, but later repented and became a worker in the interest of Japanese-American friendship.

Night Sessions Threatened
WASHINGTON, April 17.—With night sessions threatened to speed up action on the immigration bill, the senate tackled the tangled problem of quota percentages and the troublesome provision fixing the 1910 census as the basis of allotments to the various admissible aliens.

Proposals to place one, two and three per cent. limits on the quotas were pending today, and differences among senators over the census basis were complicated by the provisions in the measure passed by the house designating the 1890 census figures as the basis for two per cent. quotas.

An amendment intended to establish a permanent quota basis, for the future, was adopted yesterday, providing that after July 1, 1927, unless congress directs otherwise in the meantime, the allotments shall be fixed in accordance with an analysis of the national origins of persons comprising the population of the continental United States in 1920. The survey and estimates would be made by the secretaries of state, commerce and labor, and would be made available by March 4, 1928.

Condemn Exclusion

Japanese in Hawaii
HONOLULU, April 17.—Immigration officials announce that during the past decade, 37,211 Japanese were admitted to Hawaii, while 21,038 departed, resulting in an increase of 16,173 to the Japanese community, exclusive of births, which usually outnumber those of all other racial divisions.

Italy Awaits Quota Decision
ROME, April 17.—Decision of the United States congress as to the basis for quotas under the new immigration law is being anxiously awaited here. It is pointed out that if the 1910 census is accepted as the basis, as was incorporated in the senate bill, approximately 20,000 more Italians may enter the United States yearly than under the 1890 census basis, which was incorporated in the measure as passed by the house.

Would Widen Stevens Street
Stevens street, from Pine to Parker streets, should be widened five feet on each side, in the opinion of City Engineer Stephen Kearney, who has recommended to the board of public service. The expense of such a move would be small in comparison to the benefit which would be derived thereby, the engineer says.

Some time ago the city council voted to ask the city engineer for an opinion as to the advisability of widening this street from Parker to Avery street. His attention thus being called to it, the engineer made a study of the situation.

SAME SYMPTOMS IN MANY CASES

Anemic Condition Easily Recognized and Cured by Blood Builder

Many people will recognize in the description of an anemia, or bloodless condition, as told by Mrs. Mary Allmann, of No. 112 Prospect Park, Syracuse, N. Y., symptoms which they suffer for the characteristic symptoms of anemia are common to most cases.

"I was very weak and got out of breath easily," she says, "and my housework was like a mountain to me. I had no appetite and my nerves were so weak that any little excitement would make me tremble and shake like a leaf. I had a hard time getting to sleep and about got up in the morning all tired out. I had headaches a good deal and chills."

"Three boxes of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills built me up wonderfully. I gained strength and could do my work without that tired feeling. As my blood was built up, my nerves became stronger and the headaches went away. I could eat a good hearty meal and enjoy it. My daughter has also used the pills with benefit. Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are my family medicine and we find them a very reliable blood builder and tonic."

Get a box of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills at your druggist's today or write to the Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Schenectady, N. Y., enclosing sixty cents and a box will be sent you, postpaid. A little book, "Building Up the Blood," which explains the treatment, will be sent free on request.—Adv.

START DAY WITH EXERCISE

"The boss got out of the wrong side of the bed this morning," commented the stenographer to the office boy, as Mr. Mann went stamping around.

"Got up with a grouch," Mr. Mann himself admitted to a salesman.

Starting the day out wrong is a pet diversion with lots of people. Of course there can be something physically wrong that needs attention.

But, for the average person, there is no reason for the "wrong side of the bed" stunt.

The art of getting up in the morning is no mean art, and is practiced all too little.

First of all, roll over, stretching in bed, getting all the contractions limbered up. Then kick like a spoiled child. It'll muss the bedclothes a little but it will help start the day. What little extra work it causes, the wife will be more than compensated by the disposition.

Sit up and then dance around the room a little, on one foot and then on another. Do a brisk series of exercises, preferably those that will help the abdomen and diaphragm: bending exercises, leaning exercises and breathing exercises.

Don't over-exercise! Be careful not to have tiring exercises in the morning. Just enough to get a good start. Do this, and in a few mornings the grouch will take care of itself.

How To Keep A Child Healthy

A GENERATION ago parents thought that sickness was a part of a child's life, but we know better now. The secret is in the food the mother allows the child to eat, and in watching that elimination occurs regularly two or three times a day. Mrs. J. Russell of 19,141 Havana Ave., Detroit, Mich., keeps her family of two young children in perfect health with Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin, and Mrs. R. L. Smith of 519 Maple Ave., East Pittsburgh, Pa., says her family of three children have never been sick a day since giving them Syrup Pepsin.

easy passage without griping or straining. It does not contain narcotics, and you can give it with absolute safety to an infant at the breast.

"Magic" in a Teaspoonful
Every store that sells medicines sells Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin, and the cost is less than a cent a dose. Give half a teaspoonful to any ailing baby or child at night when you put it to bed and you will find a happy, laughing youngster in the morning. Take Syrup Pepsin yourself when constipated, and give it to any member of the family young or old, for any ailment due to constipation, such as biliousness, headache, lack of appetite, sleeplessness, bad breath, cankers, fever sores, indigestion, and to break up fevers and colds. Stop that first sneeze or sniffle and you will have a healthy winter.

A Substitute for Physies
Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin is a scientific compound of Egyptian senna with pepsin and suitable aromatics. The formula is on every package. You will find you do not have to force children to take it, and it is much better for them than castor oil, calomel or coal-tar drugs like phenolphthalein even if covered with sugar or chocolate. Syrup Pepsin is mild and gentle in action and your child will have an

USE SODA

Your bluing will never settle and spot your clothes if you dissolve a lump of soda in a little hot water and add it to the bluing just before you put in the clothes.

USE SOFT WATER

Wherever water is used in preparing bleaches or disinfectants, soft water should be used. The alkali in hard water offsets all chemicals to a greater or less degree.

LUCID INTERPRETATION OF CONSTITUTION

"The Interpretation of the Constitution," the second of a series of five lectures on the constitution being given in the high school for the benefit of its students, was given last evening in a large lecture hall of the new school building by John H. McNaughton, Mr. McNaughton was introduced by Sub-Master Frederick Woodward.

In opening his talk, Mr. McNaughton said: "In the first address of this course, you heard a history of the constitution. My theme is its interpretation and I know no better way to show how this came about than by giving you a short history of the great expounder of it, John Marshall, first chief justice of the supreme court."

"Marshall was born in a log cabin in the Blue Ridge country of Virginia and was one of 15 children of Thomas Marshall, ensign in a cavalry troop of the militia. In due time he grew to man's estate in a frontier environment, and was a great student of the law. It was a peculiar society of which this virile Marshall formed a part and its surroundings were as strange as the society itself. Hardly more than one-third of the men who made deeds, according to Bruce, or served on juries, could sign their names and two-thirds of the better classes of women could do no more than sign their names."

"When the revolution came, the younger Marshall joined the militia as a lieutenant and his father served as a major. John Marshall had always worshipped Washington as a hero and

PIMPLY? WELL, DON'T BE

People Notice It—Drive Them Off
With Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets

A pimply face will not embarrass you much longer if you get a package of Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets. The skin should begin to clear after you have taken the tablets a few nights.

Clears the blood, bowels and liver with Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets, the successful substitute for calomel; there's no sickness or pain after taking them. Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets do that which calomel does, and just as effectively, but their action is gentle and safe instead of severe and irritating. No one who takes Olive Tablets is ever cured with a "dark brown taste," a bad breath, a dull, listless "no good" feeling, constipation, torpid liver, bad disposition or pimply face.

Olive Tablets are a purely vegetable compound mixed with olive oil; you will know them by their olive color.

Dr. Edwards spent years among patients afflicted with liver and bowel complaints and Olive Tablets are the immensely effective result. Take one or two nightly for a week. See how much better you feel and look. 15c and 50c.—Adv.

URIC ACID

Does NOT Cause Rheumatism!

Furthermore, I claim that Uric Acid is a NATURAL and NECESSARY constituent of the blood—that it is found in the body of every man-born here—that without it we could not live! Strange statement? Yes—to you perhaps, because you have always been told differently.

But my book, "The Inner Mysteries of Rheumatism," just published, tells you the real truth about Rheumatism. Tells what actually DOES cause it and how it is now being successfully treated in all its different forms and stages by entirely new, advanced scientific methods.

The writing of this unusual book is the result of my twenty years' study, experimentation and research in the disease and I want every sufferer of RHEUMATISM, NEURITIS, SCIATICA, GOUT, etc., no matter in what form or how chronic, to read it. Therefore, although valuable, I will gladly send the complete set of three books absolutely free if you will send your address or that of any sufferer you may know, plainly written, to:

Says His Prescription

Has Powerful Influence

Over Rheumatism

Mr. James H. Allen suffered for years with rheumatism. Many times this terrible disease left him helpless and unable to work.

He finally decided, after years of ceaseless study, that no one can be free from rheumatism until the accumulated impurities, commonly called uric acid deposits, were dissolved in the joints and muscles and expelled from the body.

With this idea in mind he consulted physicians, made experiments, and finally compounded a prescription that quickly and completely banished every sign and symptom of rheumatism from his system.

He freely gave his discovery, which he called Allen's, to others who took it, with what might be called marvelous success. After years of trying he decided to suffer everywhere he knew about his discovery through the newspapers. He has therefore instructed A. W. Dows & Co. to dispense Allen's with the understanding that if the first pint bottle does not show the way to complete recovery he will gladly return your money without comment.—Adv.

ULCERATION OF THE STOMACH

Nicely Healed by the Fruit
Treatment—"Fruit-a-tives"

What a precious gift is Health. Only those who have suffered through some serious illness seem to appreciate what a blessing it is.

Mr. S. J. Tuttle of South Edmeston, N. Y., is in a position to speak with authority on the value of the Fruit Treatment.

He says: "For years, I was troubled with Ulceration of the Stomach, which finally became so bad that for two or three years I could do no heavy work. Finally noticing your advertisements, I decided to try 'Fruit-a-tives.' From the first treatment, I improved and today I am a well man—ulceration all cleaned up, and if I should suffer from indigestion, I get relief by taking 'Fruit-a-tives.'" served in various troops throughout the war as close to his hero as he could get.

"After the war, he attended a short course of law in William & Mary college and in 1783 became a member of the legislature and settled in Richmond. As we have seen, his law training was very limited; yet he had what judges call the legal mind and, aided by good health, integrity and an engaging disposition, he prospered and ten years later we find him struggling with the cleverest legal minds of the day in the British Creditors' case."

"In 1793, President Adams sent John Marshall and Elbridge Gerry of Massachusetts, to Holland, where they met Pickens with orders to proceed to Paris and talk over the situation with the directory, which was waging war on our shipping. Talleyrand refused to see them unless given a personal gratuity of $250,000 and a loan of $2,000,000 Dutch florins—and received Pinckney's famous reply, 'Millions for defense but not one cent for tribute.'"

After waiting three months and not receiving an audience, the commission returned home and Marshall wrote his report in the NY2 papers. The people were indignant and Marshall soon brought home to them how cheaply they were held across the water.

"It was then decided to have Marshall run for congress as a Nationalist. Opposed by the Jeffersonians, his election was secured only when Patrick Henry came to his assistance."

"In 1799 Marshall entered congress and upon the death of Washington he was selected as his biographer. In 1800 he was appointed secretary of state and in 1801, chief justice of the United States supreme court. The first case of any great magnitude brought before him was that concerning the legality of an appointment of 42 'midnight judges' justices of the peace, by President Adams, known as the 'Marbury case.' The issue at stake was, 'what power, if any, could annul the acts of congress. Despite threats of impeachment, Marshall rendered a sweeping decision making the principle of judicial supremacy over legislation as much a part of the fundamental law as if these specific words were contained in the constitution—that the supreme court shall have power to declare invalid an act of congress which in the opinion of the court is unconstitutional."

"The second important case was the impeachment trial of Justice Samuel Chase. This case was in reality the beginning of a drive against Marshall, for the Jeffersonians admitted if they succeeded in impeaching Chase, Marshall would be next. Chase was acquitted and an end was put to the removal of the supreme court by political bodies."

"Then came Aaron Burr's trial for treason, the question on which the trial hinged being whether the doctrine of constructive presence could apply in his case. Marshall settled this case by making a decision that 'treason consists of an overt act against the government and must be proved by two witnesses or a confession in court.' Burr was found not guilty on this decision."

"What Washington obtained with the sword, Marshall preserved with the pen. He loved his country with his whole being, and he saw the only way by which she could be united was to put teeth into the constitution and make it a vital instrument and then insure an independent judiciary. To those ends he employed all his creative genius and it was through his fearless stand and by his bold interpretation, that your rights and mine are so well safeguarded today."

"So it came to pass that John Marshall and the supreme court became a centre about which swirled the forces of a fast gathering storm that raged with increasing fury until its thunder was the roar of cannon, its lightning the flashes of battle. In effect, John Marshall rewrote the fundamental law of the nation, or perhaps it would be more accurate to say, he made a written instrument a living thing, capable of growth, capable of keeping pace with the advancement of the American people."

"July 6th, 1835, in his 50th year, he breathed his last. The whole nation mourned his loss and paid homage to his genius. Friend and foe alike had nothing but praise for his sterling virtues."

"Let me close with this tribute from the Richmond Enquirer, his intimate enemy and antagonist, because 'our enemies are just while our friends are only merciful': 'It would be impossible to overpraise Marshall's brilliant talents. It would be a more grateful incense to his memory to say that he was as much beloved as he was respected.'"

LENT IN THE HOLY LAND

CALVARY, WHERE CHRIST DIED, is a disputed spot in Jerusalem. Here, however, is the site selected by ecclesiastics, and now one of the chapels covered by the Church of the Holy Sepulchre. Near this same spot, according to legend, the skull of Adam was found. CHRIST'S SEPULCHRE, the Garden Tomb. The tomb, given by Joseph of Arimathea, is now covered by the Church of the Holy Sepulchre. It is reached through a door in the altar of one of the many chapels.

AT THE NORMAL SCHOOL

Students Entertained by Members of the School Literature Club

Over 225 students of the Lowell Normal school were yesterday afternoon given a rare treat by fellow students in the persons of Miss Catherine Graham and Miss Edna Lawrence, members of the Literature club of the school, under the presidency of Miss Rose Q. Leary.

Miss Graham, a comely Scotch lassie, gave beautiful interpretations of Robert Burns' "To a Mouse," "To a Mountain Daisy," "For a' That and a' That," "Jo' Anderson, My Jo," "The Land o' the Leae," and "Old Robert Gray," were also well given by Miss Graham.

Sir Walter Scott's well known work, "Jo' o' Hazeldean," the story of a Scotch lassie and her plight, was exceptionally well rendered.

Perhaps, the most appealing, and the last, but not least of Miss Graham's interpretations, was "Cuddie Doon," a pretty, homely poem, reflecting home life in Scotland at bed-time, the usual coaxing on mother's part, and the teasing mannerisms of the children who upon hearing their father's step on the porch, "cuddie doon" and feign a sleeping attitude.

Miss Edna Lawrence gave a most accurate rendition of Jos Chandler Harris', better known as "Uncle Remus," mythical stories, in the southern negro dialect. "Uncle Remus," who lived in the 19th century, not only had the distinction of recording the folk lore of the negro race, but also is known for his accurate interpretation of the myths, legends, songs and sayings of the southern negro.

"Uncle Remus" in his stories, always treated his "dream children" as boys and girls, even the older folks, hence, he wrote innumerable stories on animals of the forest.

Miss Lawrence enhanced the vitality of the stories by rendering them in true, southern dialect, and her stories about "Brer Rabbit," "Brer Wolf's Daughter" and "The Deluge," won for her the sincerest of applause. Miss Lawrence, besides being gifted with the art of interpreting southern selections, is a most accomplished violinist and vocalist, her renditions of negro spirituals being capably executed.

The members of the Literature club, under whose auspices the students of the school are often entertained, are: President, Miss Rose Leary; secretary, Miss Lovell, member of the faculty; seniors, Misses Katherine Gogan, Helen Haskins, Anna Kilbane, Marguerite McVicker, Lowena Miller, Hilda Phil; juniors, Misses Mary A. Donahue, Mary Hayes, Edna Lawrence, Catherine Graham, Rose Q. Leary, Mary Leon, Marion Mahoney, Teresa McKenna, Mary Mooney, Mary O'Connor, Lillian Reidy, Doris Ragolsky, Alice Rourke, Deborah Seigal, Harriette Sullivan, Pearl Tuxbury and Violet Wloszilonas.

SEEKS $10,000,000 LOAN FROM SINCLAIR CO.

LONDON, April 17.—The Persian premier, Bihdar Pish, who has been recalled to office since he repudiated republicanism, now is placing all his hope for a successful administration, especially financial, in American capital, says the diplomatic correspondent of the Daily Telegraph.

The premier, he adds, would have liked an American government loan but as this is out of the question, he has turned to the American oil companies offering a concession in northern Persia to Harry P. Sinclair on condition that the Sinclair interests grant Persia a loan of $10,000,000.

GUENOFF ENDS HIS LIFE

Former High Macedonian Official Commits Suicide In American Consulate

SOFIA, Bulgaria, April 17 (by the Associated Press).—Choosing the American consulate as his place of sacrifice, Nikola Guenoff, a former high Macedonian official, today committed suicide that his estate might go to the Macedonian cause.

Guenoff had been desirous of turning over his entire fortune to the Macedonian organization, but found he was unable to do so, under the Bulgarian laws, unless he died on foreign soil. The estate of a person dying in Bulgaria without legal heirs, is confiscated by the state.

The former official entered the consulate and asked the vice consul, P. Leroy Spangler, a few questions, the answers to which confirmed his understanding of the law. Then, shouting: "This is American soil," he drew a revolver, fired a shot into his brain and fell dead.

Fifty thousand leva and $4000 in currency were found on his body, together with a will leaving it all to the Macedonian cause.

MY DAUGHTER WOULD CRY AT EVERYTHING

Nervous and Irritable. By Taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Became Entirely Normal

Clinton, Wisconsin.—"My daughter was in a very run-down condition, and was irritable, and would cry at every little thing she was so weak and nervous. As Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound had helped me when I was a girl I gave it to her to build her up, and the results were all that we could wish for. I wish that every mother with growing girls would try it for these troubles girls often have. I had taken it myself before my girl was born, and she was one of the nicest babies any one could wish to have. I recommend the Vegetable Compound to women and girls and cannot praise it too highly."

Mrs. I. A. HOLFORD, Box 48, Clinton, Wisconsin.

Mothers can depend upon Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound to relieve their daughters of those troubles they so often have. They know from experience the value of the Vegetable Compound in the treatment of these complaints and many, like Mrs. Holford, give it to their daughters.

REPUBLICAN KEYNOTE SPEECH

Fortunate indeed is the republican party to have such an able man as Secretary Hughes to deliver the keynote speech of its national campaign. He has done it in splendid shape. He has made the best of a bad situation and we doubt whether there is another man in the government who could have so artistically glossed over the scandals at Washington or so eloquently upheld the course of President Coolidge since he was called to the White House.

In eulogizing Coolidge "as a platform in himself," Secretary Hughes made a master stroke of diplomacy, for the reason that he had absolutely no record of achievement by congress on which to dilate for the benefit of the party or the delectation of the country.

It is true, that he pointed to an alleged reduction in government expenditures in 1922 as compared to those of 1921; but as for party achievements since, the speaker had practically nothing to offer except that corruption and rascality are not confined to any one party, although he cannot deny that just at present they seem to be unusually prevalent in the republican party at Washington. But Secretary Hughes boldly declared that "we do not condone wrong doing, we extenuate no crime and put no obstacle in the way of discovery and punishment of any official dereliction." That sounds very well indeed; but it is hardly in accord with the facts.

One of the speaker's most difficult duties was to defend the party against the odium attaching to scandals at present under investigations in Washington. In that, even his eloquence failed to change the popular opinion based upon the revelations of corruption brought out by the investigations.

The party is on the defensive, on the run, so to speak, and its only hope of safety from crushing defeat is pinned to the coat-tails of President Coolidge. It is rather a unique situation.

THE DEMOCRATIC OPPORTUNITY

It is obvious that the proposed effort to fasten the Wilson tradition upon the democratic party in the approaching campaign, would be a step toward reviving adherence to his policies in reference to the League of Nations which in our judgment would be unpopular. That policy was repudiated in 1920 and although there may have been a considerable change of sentiment since then, we doubt whether the democratic party can gain any prestige through its renewal or redemption at this time. It might benefit McAdoo's candidacy, but it would not be likely to benefit the party as a whole.

What the people want is a wise, honest and progressive administration of the government, free from the corruption and rascality that have attained such domination in the departments at Washington under republican rule. There is a great opportunity for a democratic victory if the party leaders only take advantage of the situation by putting up their strongest candidates and adopting a platform of progressive and businesslike principles. The demand of the hour is for wise and aggressive leadership.

CHILD LABOR AMENDMENT

There is much discussion over the question of abolishing child labor in those states in which it prevails and they are chiefly in the south. It is objected in some quarters that the federal government has no right to interfere in such matters. The federal government has the same right to interfere in regard to child labor, that it had to interfere with the states that wanted to maintain a perpetual system of slavery. Indeed, it may be admitted that child labor is a form of slavery and that as such, it must be stamped out.

There is a difference of opinion as to the best method of having the proposed amendment to the constitution against child labor, ratified. It is claimed that submission to the state legislatures may prove unsatisfactory and that a popular referendum would be preferable. No such amendment should be submitted to any legislature not elected with that issue in view. If it cannot be submitted to such a body for ratification, then the popular referendum should be provided.

Already, more than one-third of the states have laws against child labor; but it is chiefly in the south where this abuse prevails, and particularly in cotton mills and canning factories.

There are numerous reasons to be adduced in support of this amendment; but the principle is, that child labor, as conducted in many southern states, prevents the education of children, stunts their growth, and thus tends to lower the physical, mental and moral status of the future citizens of those states in which this practice is legalized. That offers ample reason for interference by federal authority since efforts to have the states remedy the evil, have signally failed.

BAY STATE G. A. R. TODAY

Scarcely more than 250 Civil war veterans gathered in Gardner hall at the state house, last week, rallying to the summons of the fifty-eighth annual encampment of the Massachusetts department of the Grand Army of the Republic. A thinning line, indeed, yet it was a most impressive sight, we are told in civil news reports, when the white-haired heroes of 1861-1865, whose ages average 81 years, stood at attention, with bare heads, during the invocation and opening prayer in the Boston convention hall.

It is a far journey to the year, twelve months after that bloody struggle between brothers of the north and the south, when, on Oct. 4, 1866, the first Grand Army post in the Massachusetts department was organized in New Bedford. This post is today the oldest in the Grand Army of the Republic in continuous membership, as all posts previously chartered have either disbanded or been reorganized.

The first Massachusetts G.A.R. encampment was permanently organized on May 7, 1867, and in 1892 the Massachusetts department arrived at its highest membership, with 24,261 comrades. Now, after 57 years, we find that on Dec. 31, 1923, there were only 3693 members remaining on the rolls of posts in the Bay State department. Last year, 546 Massachusetts comrades responded to the last roll-call. Five department posts have recently surrendered their charters, leaving now but 174 of the revered posts of the G.A.R. in this state.

Memorial day is always a day of tender memories for thoughtful, patriotic citizens and veterans of the wars alike. Retiring Department Commander Gen. W. Pratt expounded it admirably when he said, in his farewell address to his veteran comrades at the annual encampment at Boston:

"May the first day of the year when Memorial day will not be profaned by sports and events that mar the services which a patriotic people offer to the nation's heroic dead."

LOWELL GUILD RAIL

On Tuesday of next week, will be held at the Memorial Auditorium, the annual ball for the benefit of the Lowell Guild. A fine entertainment program will be provided, but even without any such attraction, there should be a large attendance to aid this very worthy institution. The Lowell Guild, and its corps of trained nurses, respond to the calls of the suffering and afflicted in every part of the city, at every hour of the day and night. The Guild is doing special work for saving the lives of little children by instructing mothers in how to prepare wholesome food adapted to the needs and delicate digestive functions of the little ones. In this way, it has already reduced the infant mortality of the city. It is a very slight thing sometimes that will save the life of a baby suffering from any of the various diseases that attack infants. The scourge of cholera infantum has been kept at a low ebb for some years past, largely as a result of the work of the Lowell Guild and the attention paid to the proper care of children by the board of health.

Even those who have no children should attend the Guild ball from humane motives. But those who are not interested in such humane work will get their money's worth in the excellent entertainment provided for the evening.

AUTO FATALITIES

Registrar Goodwin reports that thirteen deaths resulted last week from motor vehicle accidents within the limits of the state, one child being among the number. It is safe to say that with the approach of warm weather, the number of fatalities will be greatly increased. If this number were to be taken as the average for the year, and it might not be far astray, the total would be 676.

It is rather remarkable that out of all the accidents, there was but one jail sentence in which the defendant was committed; in six cases the sentence was suspended; and in one, it was suspended. Fully 209 licenses were suspended, a fact which would indicate that they were too easily granted in the first place. It would seem that if each applicant for an operator's license were carefully investigated, the registrar's office might easily determine with more accuracy, what applications should be rejected so that it would not be necessary afterwards, to suspend such a great number for violation of the law.

NEW COTTON AVERAGES

The cotton-growing area of the country is being fast transformed in a two-fold way. Probably most of the cotton is now produced on the old-time, and southern fringes of the old-time, cotton-raising belt, rather than in the central regions. Putting it another way, the last crop was raised chiefly in the districts where the boll weevil has not yet appeared in great numbers, and also in the districts where he has been at work the longest.

Exceptionally good yields have been reported recently in southern Texas and in western Louisiana, where the growers have had to contend with the pest for 15 or 20 years. This affords some encouragement as to the possibility of producing successfully in those regions where there is now heavy infestation.

SEEN AND HEARD

Trouble with a man who is a wonder at talking is wonders never cease.

A secret is what you tell someone not to tell because you promised not to tell it yourself.

Man in Atlanta, Ga., who looked into a girl's window will recover, but will never look the same again.

A man in Chicago, who stole an auto to go riding, will not go anywhere for six months now, according to a judge.

Perhaps the slightest man reported lately is the roomer who didn't want to pay his rent because he had insomnia.

A Thought

You pity a man who is lame or blind, but you never pity him for being a fool, which is often a much greater misfortune.—Sydney Smith.

Movie Notes

An impeccable tenant had not paid the rent of his room for several months. "Look here," said the landlord, "I'll meet you halfway. I am ready to forget half of what you owe." "Right," said the tenant, "I'll forget the other half!"—Madison River Humor.

Funny Old World

All these babies being sent to sleep by jazz tunes ought to grow up into swill drinking dancers. It will be a funny world 30 years from now. And the rising generation are worrying about what will be worrying about the next rising generation. This is true, because it always has been.

California Climate

Skeletons 25,000 years old are being dug up in California, but they were not making movies then so there is no scandal attached. This, however, does belong to light and entertaining supposition. California climate was not as good 25,000 years ago as it is supposed to be now, or these people would be living today.

The Cautious Gaffer

The gaffer was just getting ready to drive off at the first sign when all of a sudden he paused in his swing and put his hand to his forehead. After fumbling about for a minute or two he drew out a handful of Corona Cigarettes, and approaching the cable, he asked: "Do you sell these?" "Yes," answered the gaffer, "I sell them for five cents each." "I should just like to do so," said the gaffer, "I think I'll carry them myself."

The Baggage Smasher

Marjorie Spiers, the English actress, tells a story about an actress friend of hers who was traveling from Liverpool to London in order to begin a new theatrical engagement. Naturally her luggage was somewhat bulky and the porter to whom she confided it at the Lime street station was surly and wouldn't pass so much. "You can't have luggage like this," he declared, "not unless you was a theatrical." "Well, I am a theatrical," explained the lady. "Then why didn't you say so at first?" demanded the porter. "I can't or around asking passengers if they're theatrical. I don't want to insult 'em."

The Daffodils

I wandered lonely as a cloud
That floats on high o'er vales and
A host of golden daffodils
Beside the lake, beneath the trees,
Fluttering and dancing in the breeze.

Continuous as the stars that shine
And twinkle on the milky way, They stretched in never-ending line Along the margin of the bay: Ten thousand saw I at a glance, Tossing their heads in sprightly dance. |

The waves beside them danced, but They went as if they danced in glad Outfit the sparkling waves in glee;
A poet could not but be gay,
In such a jocund company:
I gazed and gazed, but little thought What wealth the show to me had brought;

For oft, when on my couch I lie
In vacant or pensive mood, They flash upon that inward eye Which is the bliss of solitude; And then my heart with pleasure fills, And dances with the daffodils. |

MAN ABOUT TOWN

Councillor Frank W. Stearns proved himself an orator of the first rank last Tuesday night when he eulogized Abraham Lincoln from the floor of the council chamber on the occasion of the 57th anniversary of the death of the Civil war president at the hands of an assassin. The councillor worked in a strong local interest when he told of Lincoln once speaking here in the old city hall and mentioned the late Judge Hadley, then a 15-year-old boy, as one of his many enthralled auditors.

A bulletin of the Houston, Texas, chamber of commerce tells of a new million dollar blanket mill in that city of which William A. Mitchell is to be agent. Mr. Mitchell was for 21 years an executive of the Massachusetts cotton mill here and resigned as agent a year or more ago to go to China on a textile proposition that failed to prove as great as was hoped for.

A stock company is being organized in the Texas city with Houston business men supplying most of the capital and the plant will be built on a 114 acre tract on the outskirts of the city already selected.

J. E. Serrino & Co., who will act as engineers for the installation of machinery on the completion of the plant, report that the machinery for the first unit will include 225 brand beams, and that the initial product of the mill will be the first quality blankets. Serrino will also be installed in the first unit, but the number had not been definitely decided upon as yet. In addition to the mill, a number of houses for employees will be constructed on the property. The mill will be the most modern type of construction of concrete throughout, and will employ approximately 400 workers when operation is begun.

Due to the activities of Secretary Edward W. Gallagher of Lowell, former assistant secretary of the chamber of commerce and now secretary of the New England Retail Clothiers' association a "suit club" in Concord, N. H., was last week broken up. This club was operated by a tailor in the New Hampshire capital and had about 100 members who were paying $2 a week. Each week someone was given a $35 suit, which the tailor made himself. Secretary Gallagher called on the tailor and made adjustments with members who had not received suits, either by returning the money paid in or by giving them a suit on payment of the balance.

LAWRENCE MINISTERS JOIN FRIDAY APPEAL

LAWRENCE, April 17.—The Lawrence Ministers' association through its president, Rev. Malcolm E. Peabody, rector of Grace church, has issued a statement, joining with the Knights of Columbus in a request for a suspension of all unnecessary business on Good Friday from noon to 3 p. m. In closing, the statement said that "The ministers of Lawrence join with their fellow Christians in the request that on Good Friday during the hours when Our Lord hung on the cross, only such work be performed as is absolutely necessary."

FEDERAL AGENTS IN ROLE OF LABORERS

By posing "as they were not," Federal Agents Sullivan and Hall of this city joined a group of laborers entering a bar-room in Charlestown yesterday afternoon and secured enough evidence of prohibition violation to place Theodore Whitte, a clerk, under arrest on a charge of illegal sale.

The federal agents were aided by "luck" in making the raid. They were returning to this city after a business trip to Boston and while passing through Charlestown, they noticed a group of workmen going into a bar-room in Rutherford street. Removing their coats, the agents joined in the line with the other men and witnessed the sale of liquor inside.

White was placed under bonds of $300 to appear before U. S. Commissioner Jeanney in Boston.

STRUCK BY AUTOMOBILE

An automobile operated by Arthur H. Rowe of 166 D street, struck a young boy, son of Mr. and Mrs. Patrick Cassidy of North Chelmsford, early last evening in Palmer street, near Market street. The boy was thrown to the street but sustained no visible injuries and was taken home by his mother.

STORM CENTER

Francis J. Henry, who won fame as prosecutor in the San Francisco graft cases, again pops into the limelight through his appointment by Senator Couzens, Michigan, as a special examiner in alleged tax fraud matters. It was this that drew from President Coolidge a special message to the senate protesting against "government by investigation."

IRISH MUSICAL COMEDY AT THE AUDITORIUM

Specialties far above the average will play a prominent part in "Echoes of Erin," the new Irish musical comedy to be given in the Auditorium next Monday evening by the Mathew Temperance Institute. Groups of dancers, superbly trained by Mrs. Jeanie Conway, will execute Irish reels, hornpipes and other dances peculiarly Irish. Miss Mabel Hogan has a song and dance act introducing a waltz song, that would make the redoubtable Pat Rooney green with envy. Two diminutive misses, May Conway and Lillian McLaughlin, will introduce a dancing novelty of rare charm. William Hinchley will be assisted by Misses Alice Dacey, Mollie Hastings, Ethel McLaughlin, Mary Triscoll and Bertha Choquette, dancers of uncommon ability. In one of the prettiest specialties ever seen in the Auditorium, Miss Mary McCarthy, returning to the footlights after an absence of two years or more, has a novelty that is expected to score heavily. Mrs. Nancy Swift Willett, who is staging a "comeback," will prove the same favorite as of yore once she steps before the audience. Miss Alice Dacey has a catchy number and will take full advantage of the opportunity to increase her ever-growing popularity. Mrs. Alice Dion Angelo's song specialty is one of the best of her career; it must be heard to be appreciated.

The Carr children will appear in a brand new dancing act, consisting of the "Waltz Beautiful," "The Daredevil" dance and "The Prisoner" jazz.

The other members of the cast have splendid vehicles also. Miss Madeline McLaughlin is in charming voice, and her solo will be one of the best on the program. Miss Mary MacPartland is at her very best in "When Irish Eyes Are Smiling," and she has chosen this beautiful number as her contribution to the program. Misses Anna and Margaret Devine have a wonderfully sweet duet which will be enjoyed by all who attend. Dan Brennan has a song well suited to display his ability as a comedian. Patrick Maguire has chosen a mirth-provoking number, and hilarity will reign while his act is in progress. Daniel Sullivan's solo work will be a revelation to the audience. All present will be anxious to hear him

SPRING

Spring, the sweet spring, is the year's pleasant king;
Then blooms each thing, then maids dance in a ring,
Cold doth not sting, the pretty birds do sing,
Cuckoo, jug-jug, pu-we, to-witta-wool!

The palm and May make country houses gay,
Lambs frisk and play, the shepherds pipe all day,
And we hear aye birds tune this merry lay,
Cuckoo, jug-jug, pu-we, to-witta-wool!

The fields breathe sweet, the daisies kiss our feet,
Young lovers meet, old wives a-sunning sit,
In every street these tunes our ears do greet,
Cuckoo, jug-jug, pu-we, to-witta-wool!

Spring! the sweet spring!

—Thomas Nash.

JES' SENTIMENT

Just two little shoes that are ragged and torn, are held as a memory sweet. Of many black buttons these objects are short; from age, they no longer are neat. And yet, as I see them, I drift to the past—some twenty-odd long years than you know.

Back there in the days when the shoe soles were bright, a little tot walked there around, and all of the buttons were fastened on tight; though some now are missing, I've found.

These two little shoes taught a child his first step; they taught him to toddle and creep. But now in a closet for years they have slept—to me, in a memory sleep.

For son has grown up and he's taken more strides. And that is the reason, I guess, why sentiment says that his tiny old shoes really started him out to success.

AMUSEMENT NOTES

B. F. KEITH'S

Billy Madden and his funny sayings and songs, and his familiar manner, is the week's feature at the B. F. Keith theatre. However, the funniest trio in their singing of the songs which touch the heart, hold a high place, and Thomas J. Ryan & Co. present a lively comedy. Other acts are: Misses Lillian & Rhonda, singers; Eunice Miller & Co., dancers, and the Tuscans Bros., jugglers of Roman battle axes. The picture is, "Orphan Sally."

"THE WHITE SISTER"

"The White Sister," which will open a four days' engagement at the Merrimack Square theatre Sunday afternoon, is generally acclaimed one of the outstanding screen successes of the present season. Lillian Gish, noted W. Griffith star, has the leading role and the story is one of the most dramatic ever unfolded on the screen. It will undoubtedly attract capacity houses during its lowell engagement.

MERRIMACK SQUARE THEATRE

A thrilling mystery story is always interesting, but "Half-A-Dollar Bill," the Metro picture now playing at the Merrimack Square theatre, is more than interesting for it has a human appeal that will grip and hold you until the final scene has faded from the screen.

In this Max Graf production the tension has been tightly drawn and held throughout the unfolding of the story. The poverty-stricken mother, deserted by her husband, leaves her infant son on the doorstep of a vacant home. Discovered by a sea captain, the baby is taken to his home where, by the aid of a book of knowledge, it is looked after by the captain and his cook. The two bachelors later decide to raise the child aboard ship.

Fate takes a hand in the moulting of the boy's life on his fourth birthday when a light cord and the quick wit of his foster father saves him from the yawning jaws of the high seas. It is this same factor that prompts the little fellow to take her own life a few minutes after the ship reaches its home port.

That bond which draws the mother and her unknown child is nearly severed time and time again during the unfolding of the unusual story until, just when the final breaking point is reached and there seems to be no way out, truth comes like a consuming fire enveloping the lives of the principals in the story.

The leading roles are portrayed by Anna Q. Nilsson, William T. Carleton and Mitchell Lewis. Carleton, the wonder dog, who will be remembered for his work in "Penrod and Sam," appears prominently in the production. The other feature for the week-end at the Merrimack Square is "Love Letters," a William Fox production starring Shirley Mason, one of the screen's most popular players. This is a story of mystery but beneath all the mystery is a love story that thrills and pulses and that is made of dreams and songs and happy romance. Shirley Mason is more attractive than ever before in "Love Letters." A com-

STRAND THEATRE

A new and virile Charles Ray, with an acting scope and a power unknown to many devotees of this favorite star, will be seen at The Strand for the next three days when he will present his new picture story, "The Girl I Loved."

Based upon the poem of the same name by James Whitcomb Riley, this photoplay presents Ray in the character of that beloved writer in his youth. It is not widely known that Riley had a dramatic love affair and he described it with great beauty and deep sentiment in "The Girl I Loved." Out of this confession of verse and its implications of a fierce inner struggle, Mr. Ray had built a thrilling photoplay. Artist that he is, Ray has made the poet's experience as a fiery and determined lover tremendously real, gripping with suspense, vivid in action and universal in appeal—the tale of every one who covets the mate of his choice ardently. Moreover, the play contains a surprise element that pulls the spectator up with a jerk. Back of this romantic story runs a charming panorama of life among the buoyant and whole-hearted folk of rural Indiana. Ray's versatility is more pronounced in this story than any in which he has heretofore appeared. You get an insight into his dramatic powers as well as his attainments in lighter roles. Miss Patsy Ruth Miller, youthful, clever and possessing a charming personality, is playing the part opposite the star.

The long-awaited, much-discussed, and much-guessed about photoplay version, is Oscar Wilde's drama, "Salome" with the great Nazimova in the title role and also as the producer. Nazimova's treatment of the famous character is said to be artistic personified. The picture has received the fullest endorsement and approval of the National Board of Review.

The comedy and Weekly issue will add to the attractiveness of the program.

RIALTO THEATRE

Dora Davidson, well known actor of farther parts and whose splendid work in such pictures as "Humoresque" and "The Good Provider" have won for him universal commendation, has such a type of role in "None So Blind" which opens at the Rialto theatre today. "None So Blind" shows Jewish life on the East side, New York and the trials and tribulations of Aaron Abrams, known as the "Clockwork Wall Street," a role in which Davidson excels. His role is that of a man whose life is dominated by the desire for revenge against the man whom he feels has cruelly wronged his daughter. His entire life is devoted to this purpose, although on the other hand, none is more charitable or philanthropic than he. In the end, love conquers his hatred. This man as played by Davidson, is a picturesque figure—during the day he is Isaac Goldsmith, a harsh money lender; at

CALLING TO BAR OF KING'S COUNSELLORS

LONDON, April 17.—American Ambassador Frank B. Kellogg and Mrs. Kellogg yesterday sat on the bench of the court of appeal at the invitation of the master of the rolls to witness the ceremonial of the calling to the bar of the newly appointed king's counsellors.

They were accompanied by members of the embassy staff and their wives, with a few visiting Americans. An invitation for women to sit on the bench is a compliment very rarely accorded.

There will be a street service at the corner of Central and Jackson streets at 7:30 and another meeting in the hall 100 Appleton street at 8 o'clock, all are invited to this service.

USE THEATRICAL METHODS IN RAIDS

NEW YORK, April 17.—Two prohibition agents early today used theatrical methods to carry out two raids. Posing as cabaret entertainers, they made three arrests in a Broadway chophouse. Then deftly using burnt cork and changing their makeup they raided an inn in the negro section of Harlem, arrested the two proprietors and five waiters.

LENTEN SERVICES

Services commemorating the last days of Christ's passion were conducted with solemnity last evening in St. Anne's church. During the services, the litany was chanted by the rector, Rev. Appleton Grannis, and by the choir and congregation. The rector gave a short sermon. William C. Heller was at the organ.

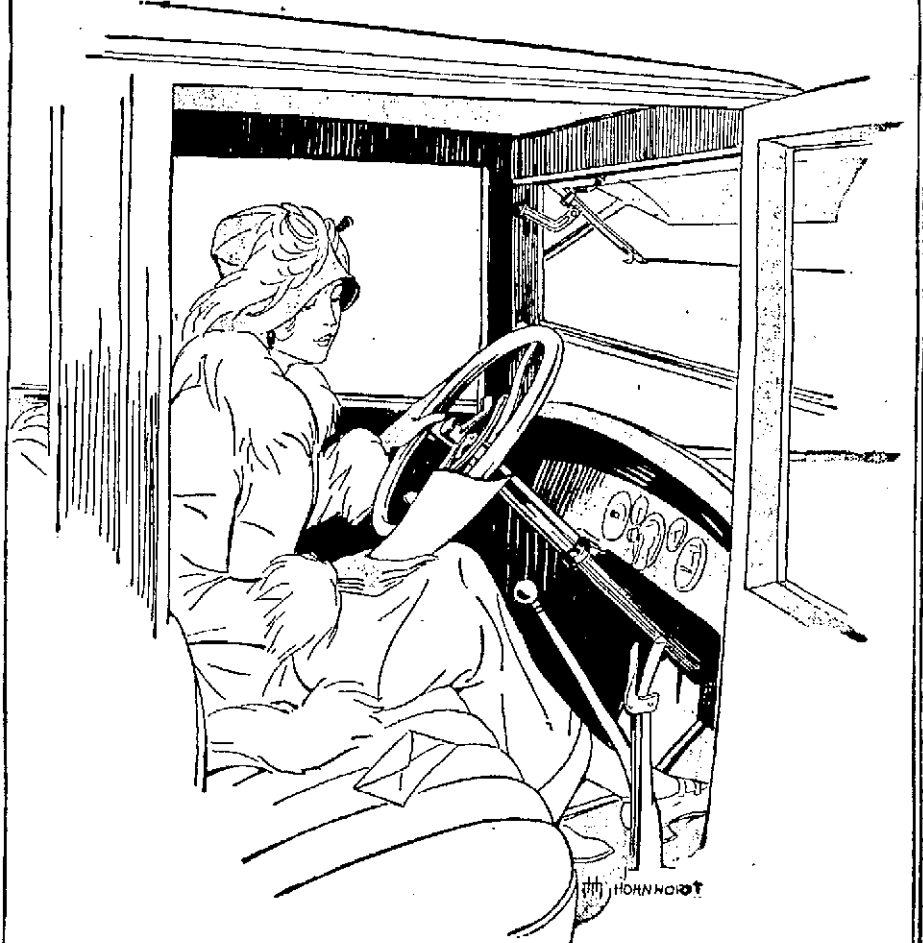

At the noonday services today, Rev. Henry Quimby, pastor of St. John's Episcopal church, was the preacher. At the Good Friday services, which will last from 12 o'clock until 3 p.m., the Guilds of St. Cecilia and St. Agnes will supply the music from 12 o'clock until 1:30 and from that time until the close, the boys and men's clubs will lead the congregational singing. The Good Friday services are open to people of all denominations. Rector Grannis will give meditations of "The Seven Last Words."

When Mother Pays the Bills

by The Veteran Motorist

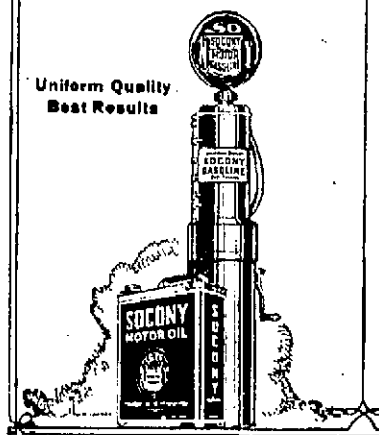

WHEN my wife first began to drive the car, I told her that I would make her responsible for the whole thing, which included paying the bills out of a definite allowance for upkeep.

Of course, like all fond husbands, I expected that I would have to make up a deficit. But, much to my surprise, after the first few months of experimentation on her part with various gasolines and oils, there was literally nothing for me to pay. In fact, the last two months she has been showing a slight credit balance!

The secret is that mother has kept a comparative record of her upkeep, and she has found that dollar for dollar, gallon for gallon, she gets the maximum of power and efficiency out of Socony Gasoline and Socony Motor Oil.

That's one reason why, to my mind, Socony is the favorite brand of discriminating women drivers, because "when mother pays the bills," there can be no camouflaging the expense.

PENSIONING LABORERS

Bill to Pension Lowell City Laborers on Way to Governor's Desk

(Special to The Sun) BOSTON, April 17.—The bill providing for pensioning laborers in the employ of the city of Lowell will probably reach the desk of Governor Cox late this afternoon, having been enacted in the house yesterday, and put through the same stage in the senate this afternoon.

In its final form, as presented for executive approval, the measure reads:

Section 1. Any laborer in the employ of the city of Lowell who has reached the age of sixty and has been in such employ for a period of not less than twenty-five years and has become physically or mentally incapacitated for labor, and any laborer in the employ of said city who has been in such employ for a period of not less than fifteen years and has become physically or mentally incapacitated for labor by reason of any injury received in the performance of his duty for said city, may, at his request and with the approval of the mayor, be retired from service, and if so retired he shall receive from said city for the remainder of his life an annual pension equal to one-half the annual compensation paid him as a laborer at the time of his retirement, but such pension shall in no event exceed five hundred dollars. Any laborer in the employ of said city who has reached the age of sixty-five years and has been in such employ for a period of not less than twenty-five years including the time when incapacitated by reason of sickness, not exceeding two years in the aggregate, which is

mechanics, draftsmen, assistant draftsmen, janitors of municipal buildings other than school buildings and storekeepers.

Section 2. This act shall be submitted to the voters of the city of Lowell for their acceptance at the next state election in the form of the following question which shall be placed on the official ballot: "Shall an act passed by the general court in the year nineteen hundred and twenty-four, entitled 'An Act relative to the pensioning of laborers in the employ of the city of Lowell,' be accepted?" If a majority of the voters voting thereon vote in the affirmative in answer to said question, then this act shall take effect in said city, but not otherwise.

WHY YOU NEED IRON—

To make you strong and "brave" and put the power into your blood to overcome disease germs

The food you eat contains carbon. When your food is digested it is absorbed from the intestines into the blood. When the carbon in your food comes in contact with the oxygen carried by the iron in your blood, the carbon and oxygen unite and by so doing they give off tremendous energy, thereby giving you great force, strength and endurance. Without iron your blood carries no oxygen and without oxygen there is nothing to unite with the carbon in your food, so that what you eat does you no good—you do not get any strength from it. It is like putting coal into a stove without a fire. You cannot get any heat unless the coal unites with the fire.

The strongest weapon with which to prevent and overcome colds, pneumonia, kidney troubles, rheumatism, nervous prostration, in fact almost any disease or disease germs is plenty of good rich, pure blood, strength, energy and endurance and the greater energy carrier in the body is organic iron, not metallic iron which people usually take, but organic iron, like the iron in spinach, lentils and apples, and like the iron contained in what is known as organic Nuxated Iron, which may be had from almost any druggist. Nuxated Iron often increases the strength, energy and endurance of weak, nervous, run-down folks in two weeks' time.

It has been used and highly recommended by former United States Senators, Members of Congress, Judges of U. S. Circuit courts, many physicians and prominent men.

Over 4,000,000 people are now using it annually. Satisfactory results are guaranteed or the manufacturers will refund your money. Sold by all druggists in tablet form only.—Adv.

Your Children Determine the Quality of Hood's Ice Cream

CHILDREN are the real champions of this wonderful delicacy. Well or ill, they demand and enjoy Ice Cream. Wonderful food, that it is, this love for Ice Cream must be encouraged. We play our part to the limit. To be fair to the kiddies we put into Hood's Ice Cream the Quality that makes it a safe, wholesome, delightful, refreshing dainty that you may offer to your children with the assurance that it is just as good as you would want it to be.

And so, it is the children that stimulate us to produce the utmost in Quality and we want you, the parents to know just what Quality means when applied to Hood's Ice Cream.

First—the material—cream, sugar, fruit, flavors. You know that Hood's are the largest handlers of cream in New England. You know that we draw our supply from the best dairying sections. We have the pick and choice of the best produced. And we always have it. Our fruits are the best America offers. Our flavors must pass the scrutiny of experts who know flavors and none but Quality flavors can satisfy them. Sugar, the kind you use on your table. Just pure sugar.

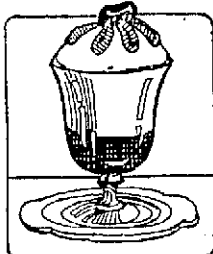

Cleanliness is the next factor. We insist on and observe, in our factories, the same rules of wholesome sanitation that has made the New England housewife a standard of exactness the world over. To us cleanliness means just that. There is no middle course.

Then there is service. We have a fleet of carriers that keeps your dealer supplied with Hood's Ice Cream at all times. And having delivered his supply helps him to keep it in condition until you have eaten it.

But the most important factors in Hood Quality are the men whose duty it is to vitalize these Hood ideals into a reality. We have put in charge not only men who know Quality, but men who are jealous of comparisons. Men who are keen to be at the top of things.

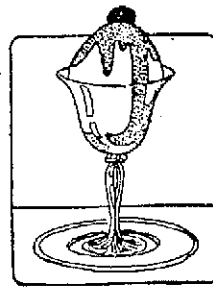

Their aim is to make Hood's Ice Cream a completely satisfying product. They have everything needed to attain this. You will find that completely satisfying quality has been reached in

Black-Eyed Susan

Banana Paramount

Pineapple Patti

A Word to the Ice Cream Dealer

The development of the Ice Cream business depends more on real quality than any other product you sell. Inferiority at a low price can only serve to decrease consumption and stagnate the growth of trade in this wonder food delicacy. A product of known quality, of uniform goodness backed by ample service and aggressive publicity will bring business to your store and cash to your till. Hood's Ice Cream solves this problem for you. Make your arrangements for Hood Service now.

STOCK MARKET

NEW YORK, April 17.—Although marked by slight irregularity, stock prices tended upward at the opening of today's market. Low and medium priced stocks were in demand at higher figures. Mixed movements prevailed in the motor list, Willys Overland preferred gaining 1½ and Studebaker losing ground.

Short covering, based on publication of increased earnings by independent steel companies and other favorable trade reports supplied most of the buying power and brought about fractional advances in leading industrial stocks. American Can, Baldwin, General Electric, U. S. Rubber and National Lead all moved ahead. Motor Shares also improved, except Willys and Studebaker. An increase in American Waterworks participating preferred dividend stimulated activity in the common stock, which advanced 1½. Active selling caused a two-point decline in Conkolum while scattered liquidation of less active issues carried American Sugar preferred, Union Bag and Paper and National Enameling down fractionally to 1924 low levels. Foreign exchanges opened steady.

The closing was irregular. Reactionary tendencies became more pronounced in the late dealings when selling pressure was exerted against United States Industrial Alcohol and Coca-Cola. Kansas broke 30 points.

SOMETIMES—

A little coat of paint will make things look like what they are not. Sometimes a house will look like new, with just a coat of paint or two. And if the paint be extra good, and covers old stuff as it should, it so improves the house's looks, its value doubles. So neighbor, be wise and paint your house at once!

TELEGRAPHIC BREVITIES

WORCESTER, April 17.—Worcester chapter of the American Red Cross is planning to give immediate relief to the 70 homeless sufferers of Minchaug, the little mill village that was nearly wiped out yesterday when 15 buildings were destroyed by fire.

NEW YORK, April 17.—Ten radio broadcasting stations will relay the address which President Coolidge is to deliver next Tuesday, at the annual luncheon of the Associated Press, at the Waldorf-Astoria, the American Telephone and Telegraph Co. announced today.

WASHINGTON, April 17.—An appeal to the Daughters of the American Revolution to place themselves squarely behind law enforcement, particularly in regard to prohibition, was made at their annual congress today by Mabel Walker Willebrandt, assistant attorney general.

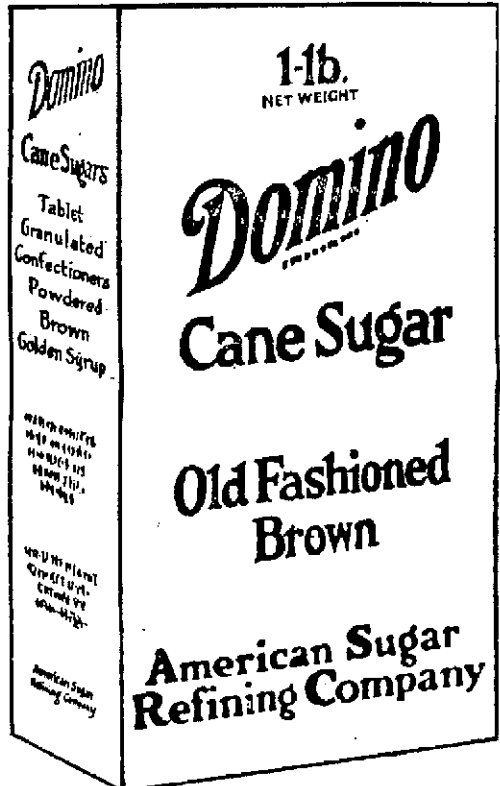

WASHINGTON, April 17.—An initial appropriation of $2,500,000 for a national gallery on art in Washington was proposed today by Senator Lodge in an amendment to the second debt ceiling bill.

When the cook-book calls for brown sugar

I always use Domino Old Fashioned Brown. The wax-lined package keeps it fresh and pure, full flavored, never dry or lumpy. I know that I can be sure of the best cooking results when I order Domino Old Fashioned Brown Sugar. And have you ever tried Domino Yellow Sugar? It's a delightful new sugar, also packed in wax-lined cartons, just a shade lighter and more delicate in flavor than Domino Old Fashioned Brown.

SOAKING CLOTHES

Do not make the mistake of soaking your clothes for too long a time—it loosens the dirt but also distributes it through the fabric. An hour is quite long enough.

JAUNDICE

Is the direct result of bile-liver trouble. Your yellow skin can't be changed from outside. Cleanse and heat the liver first. THEN the skin will become clear and natural. Be sure to take PLANTEN'S RED MILL HAARLEM OIL in Capsules which has proved successful for liver, kidney and bladder troubles. Insist on the "Red Mill" trademark on the package. Take no other. At all leading druggists. Trial size 30 cents. H. PLANTEN & SON, Inc., BROOKLYN, N. Y.

TELEPHONE ALARM
A telephone alarm at 3.25 o'clock this afternoon summoned fire apparatus to the water works pumping station on the Pawtucket boulevard where grass and brush were afire.

INGROWN TOE NAIL TURNS OUT ITSELF

A noted authority says that a few drops of "Outgro" upon the skin surrounding the ingrowing nail reduces inflammation and pain and so touches the tender, sensitive skin underneath the toe nail, that it can not penetrate the flesh, and the nail turns naturally outward almost over night.

"Outgro" is a harmless antiseptic manufactured for chiropodists. However, anyone can buy from the drug store a tiny bottle containing directions.—Adv.

ARE YOU RUPTURED?

We wish to announce the visit of the Collings Truss Expert at the Richardson Hotel, Lowell, Mass., Friday afternoon and evening, April 18, and all day and evening Saturday, April 19, hours 9 to 12 a. m., 2 to 5 p. m., evenings 7 to 9.

Back View of New Invention for Rupture

We want to demonstrate to you absolutely without a penny in advance, our new invention for holding difficult or aggravated cases of rupture, whether of inguinal or umbilical character. If you are ruptured you should be interested in our ability to fit you with a truss that will do its work properly and give you the greatest ease and comfort possible.

SCIENTIFIC AND PRACTICAL

This new Collings Truss is based on the most scientific principles for holding a rupture. It is not only representative of mechanical perfection but contains that super-power for holding a rupture without discomfort, and that makes for a complete recovery where this result is possible.

CONTAINS NO SPRINGS

There are no springs or metal parts used in this new truss other than the small necessary buckles. Instead it is made of high-grade elastic web with soft pliable cloth back made wider so to distribute the pressure over a broader surface. Prevents all cutting and chafing, and gives the necessary uplift to the pads.

IT HOLDS THE RUPTURE

It is easily, quickly and permanently adjusted so an even and uniform pressure can be constantly maintained at any desired tension. The patented sectional pads are adaptable and will fit any kind of rupture. As the cure progresses the pressure can be lessened without a change of pads.

IT STAYS PUT

When placed in position, the truss stays put and does not shift or slide. Regardless of the position of the wearer's body; stooping, jumping or standing erect, the truss remains firm and set, and adjusts itself as the occasion demands.

COMFORTABLE DAY OR NIGHT

To do its maximum amount of good, a truss should be worn continuously day and night. Upon retiring many people remove their truss, with the result that the weakened muscular tissues relax and oftentimes allow the rupture to assume the form of the original protrusion. This new truss can be worn at all times.

FREE DEMONSTRATIONS FOR TWO DAYS ONLY—FRIDAY AND SATURDAY, APRIL 18 and 19

Every ruptured person should visit our truss expert and learn what genuine truss-comfort means. No charge for demonstration or information. CAPT. W. A. COLLINGS, INC., Watertown, N. Y.

RED FLAG HOISTED AGAIN ON CENTRAL BRIDGE

Neither hole in Central bridge today. Time: 1.31 1/2 p. m.

Policemen and motormen discovered the hole in the bridge almost simultaneously. The police got the nearest telephone first. Traffic went blooey on the river cross-over as the red flags went up.

Street department workmen were forced to build a foundation of heavy lumber several feet in height the other day, when the other hole not far away from today's specimen was discovered and plugged up.

The chances are not good for early repairing of this afternoon's big hole, which has had to be trimmed out with even sides to permit timber shoring and final placement of the top lumber lengths to make the roadway safe and smooth when the job is finished.

GRASS AND BRUSH FIRES

A telephone alarm at 2.08 o'clock this afternoon, summoned fire apparatus to Bridge street, near Hildreth, where a grass fire was in progress. At 2.17 o'clock, apparatus was called by telephone to Riverside street, where a brush fire was threatening nearby property. Both fires were extinguished before any damage was done.

NIGHTGOWN

A nightgown that is part of an elaborate trousseau from Paris is of white satin with a fitted yoke of real lace and white satin flowers.

CONSTIPATED? BEWARE OF INDICAN!

the poison sign of constipation, warn health authorities - what to do

THE danger of constipation is its poison, warn physicians. This poison is pumped into every little muscle and every little joint in your body. Beware! for it has the same effect as Carbolic Acid or any other poison.

Do you dare to make a test to prove this? Three out of four constipated men and women under such a test show the presence of INDICAN, and Indican is the sign doctors look for to find out if your blood is poisoned.

Carter's Little Liver Pills, unlike ordinary laxatives, not only "physic" the stomach, liver and intestines quickly, but also drive the INDICAN away.

Make This Test: Have analysis made of your specimen, and if the chemist reports the presence of INDICAN—or if you can "feel"

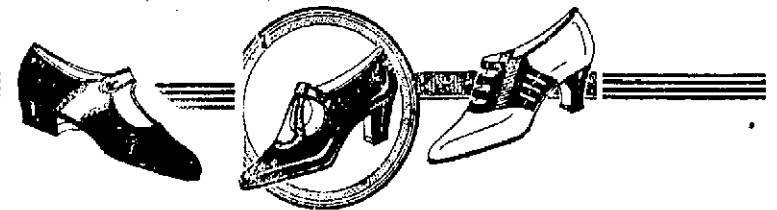

Is it constipation that weakens your physical power? INDICAN indicates the poison of constipation without guessing—ask your doctor.

how poisoned you are because of bad stomach, no appetite, foul breath and sour taste—immediately start taking Carter's Little Liver Pills. Next, have another test made and see how the INDICAN disappears. Now your clear, bright complexion, free from pimples and blackheads, comes back—you can eat like a kid, and you feel FIT in most cases.

Note: Carter's Little Liver Pills, used for 67 years by millions of people all over the world, is a purely vegetable preparation and contains no drugs of any nature. It therefore acts as a natural way and is non-habit forming. Money refunded if results are not satisfactory.

Same person after taking Carter's Little Liver Pills for only a few days—note the clean, normal complexion—FREE FROM INDICAN.

HOWEVER COMMA—

NEW YORK, April 17.—The week's best laugh is Barbara La Marr's free love interview in New Orleans. Barbara, according to wire reports, said the screen vamp must live the life of a vamp. If she is true to portray the part.

If the inside story must be known, Barbara's employers here were stunned when they saw the "interview." They frantically sent for the press agent who accompanied her, and that individual came in for a hot session when he reached the city.

Everyone is inclined to place the blame for the interview on an ambitious desire to "grab" the first page. But unfortunately for the press agent and Barbara the present purpose of those back of the movies is to cleanse the industry morally. And a statement of that kind, whether she said it of her own free will or on advice of a publicity man, is exactly the kind of thing that won't be tolerated any longer.

We firmly believe Barbara's future as a screen actress depends on the outcome of an investigation now under way to fix responsibility for the interview.

"This is not a chronicle based upon accurate figures, but upon cheerfully expurgated memories," Corra Harris states in her "My Book and Heart" (Houghton Mifflin). It is a most human and appealing record of a woman who has a sense of humor as well as of reverence.

"We pray romantically for a lover and then sensibly accepted the man who showed up in response whether he was rich and handsome or not," she writes of 40 years ago. "So more women in proportion were married then than now."

"My suspicion is that the modern young woman prays for a position or for a career if she prays at all; and that even if she wants a husband he is not an answer to prayer but a sort of secular addition she shrewdly makes to herself in the way of worldly position or wealth."

High-brow musical rounders gasped in amazement the other night when they came to the august Carnegie hall to see the Marmain Sisters. Interpret some classical drama dances. For on their program, listed as "guest artists," were Paul Whiteman and his orchestra.

Most of the audience had never heard jazz before; but it had been condoning it for a long time. It squirm-

CHURCHES OBSERVE HOLY THURSDAY

Holy Thursday is being observed in religious circles today. Masses were celebrated in the Catholic churches this morning and tenebrae services will be held this evening. The feast-day is in commemoration of the institution of the Blessed Sacrament, which took place at the last supper the night before Christ died on the cross. Beautifully decorated altars with myriad candles burning, were visited in the various churches by thousands.

Good Friday, the day which Christ died, will be observed tomorrow. In the Catholic churches, mass of the presanctified will be celebrated in the morning, with tenebrae services again in the evening. Veneration of the cross will take place at various hours during the day and in the evening. In Lawrence, the larger stores have voted to suspend business activities between the hours of 12 and 3 o'clock tomorrow afternoon.

In St. Anne's and St. John's Episcopal churches tomorrow, special services will be held from 12 noon until 3 p. m. DuBois' "Seven Last Words" will be given in the First Congregational church in conjunction with holy communion service at 7:30 o'clock in the evening. Other Protestant churches have arranged impressive services.

Put ham in roasting pan, fat side up, and pour over it two cups of syrup from preserved peaches, pears or pineapples. Bake in moderate oven for forty-five minutes, basting frequently.

It protects millions of children

A Health Beauty talk by the Health Doctor

I WANT to talk about two things:

Why children need protection...How Lifebuoy Health Soap protects their health and good looks.

If you could watch the average healthy child throughout an entire day, you would be horrified, about once every ten minutes, at the germ-covered things they touch and the dirt dangers to which they are exposed.

Thank goodness their robust, splendidly nourished little bodies can fight off the germ menace most of the time. Otherwise they could not live.

But the danger is always there. Science knows but one real every-day protection—perfect cleanliness. Your children have a good chance of never being sick if you can only train them to purify hands and faces frequently with Lifebuoy.

Only healthy skin is beautiful

Let me tell you about Lifebuoy. In the first place, it is absolutely pure soap. It contains no substance which could irritate the most sensitive skin. Its constant use promotes skin health and brings the lovely underglow of a radiant complexion.

The gentle antiseptic released in the creamy, copious lather is just what your skin needs to keep it splendidly alive—stimulated. It drives away sallowness and blemishes, leaving the skin soft, smooth and healthfully beautiful.

You soon become fond of the odor of this antiseptic; it gives you such a comfortable feeling of being genuinely, utterly clean. This odor disappears almost instantly.

For the protection of the family and the daily care of the skin use Lifebuoy. Children always like it. Once a man gets to know it you simply can't get him to use anything else.

And it will agree wonderfully with your skin—I promise.

CROWD EAGER TO HEAR THAW

Announcement That He
Would Take Stand Today
Attracted Large Crowd

Dr. Potts, Fifth Alienist
Called in Behalf of Thaw,
Again on Stand

PHILADELPHIA, April 17.—Harry K. Thaw, flushed and confident, testified for a brief period in his own behalf in his sanity trial today. Then his lawyers dramatically turned him over to the other side for cross-examination.

Thaw seemed self-possessed. Former Judge John M. Patterson, his counsel, asked Thaw only five questions. Seemingly, the attorneys for the opposition were greatly surprised when he was turned over to them so quickly. Arthur G. Dickson, counsel for the trustees of the Thaw estate, and William A. Gray, representing Evelyn Nesbit, Thaw's divorced wife, whose 13-year-old son has intervened in his own behalf, discussed the case with the alienists supporting their side in low tones and with great earnestness.

At the end of five minutes, Mr. Dickson said:

"We have no questions to ask."

Thaw smiled and left the witness stand.

Another brief conference followed among the attorneys for Thaw. They were not prepared for the immunity granted their client, and asked for a recess until this afternoon which was granted.

Peripatetic glitters on Thaw's forehead and cheeks when he took the stand.

He clasped his hands over his portly body and looked directly at his counsel.

"How old are you, Mr. Thaw?" asked his lawyer gently.

"Fifty-three," was the low-voiced reply.

"You are at present confined in the Pennsylvania hospital for mental and nervous diseases. How long have you been there?"

"About seven years," Thaw's voice was clearer.

"You signed a petition asking that you be given a trial so that your sanity might be determined?"

"Yes."

"You asked me to put you on the witness stand so you could be examined on all relevant questions concerning your sanity?"

After slight hesitation, Thaw replied: "Yes."

That was all of the brief examination.

As Thaw left the courtroom, William A. Gray, counsel for Russell William Thaw, Evelyn Nesbit's 13-year-old son, who had been permitted to intervene in the case to protect his anticipatory interest in Thaw's estate, and Arthur G. Dickson, attorney for the trustees of Thaw's estate, conferred with their own attorneys on the advisability of calling Miss Nesbit as the principal "defence" witness.

Miss Nesbit arrived from Atlantic City during the morning but had purposely kept away from the courtroom. It was finally decided that Miss Nesbit should not testify today and she returned to Atlantic City this afternoon.

Great Crowd Assembles

PHILADELPHIA, April 17.—Expectation that Harry K. Thaw would take the witness stand in an effort to have himself declared sane and freed from the asylum where he has been confined for seven years, attracted a large crowd to common pleas court today. Only those who were connected with the case as witnesses or otherwise were admitted.

Dr. Charles S. Potts, Philadelphia, the fifth alienist called in behalf of Thaw, who was under cross-examination when court adjourned yesterday, again took the stand. In his direct testimony Dr. Potts said that he found Thaw normal in every phase.

"I want to testify and let them judge for themselves," Thaw said yesterday at the close of the third day of the trial.

Mrs. Mary Copley Thaw, his 82-year-old mother, probably will follow him to the stand.

STRIKE IN KENTUCKY

Both Sides Predict Drawn
Out Contest Between
Operators and Miners

LOUISVILLE, Ky., April 17.—Representatives of both sides forecast a long drawn out contest between operators and miners in the strike in the western Kentucky coal fields. An agreement concerning maintenance crews to care for machinery at the idle mines and to watch for possible cave-ins calls for employment of union men at the scale in effect prior to the strike call.

Louie Jackson, president of union district 23, asserted every union man affected by the day responded yesterday, the first day of the strike. He said there had been no trouble and none was anticipated. Prolonged suspension of operations, probably would result, he added, in some of the men going to other fields.

At Straight Creek, in Bell county where disorders recently resulted in concentration of Kentucky national guardsmen, the force on duty had been reduced to 120 men. These guardsmen, according to an opinion by Frank Daugherty state's attorney general, are without power forcibly to evict occupants of homes owned by the Liberty Coal & Coke Co., which operates the mine. The company is informed Adjutant General James Kehoe obtained a federal injunction prohibiting interferences with mine operations and relief from violations of the injunction should be sought in federal court.

TO WORK OUT DETAILS OF EXPERTS' REPORTS

PAID, April 17.—(By the Associated Press) The reparation commission at a plenary session this afternoon decided unanimously to take note of the reply of the German government adhering to the conclusions reached in the experts' reports and to approve within the limits of the commission's powers the conclusions and to adopt the methods proposed therein.

The commission also decided to transmit officially the experts' reports to the governments interested at the same time recommending adoption of their conclusions in order that the plans proposed may produce their full effect in the quickest possible time.

The government of the Reich will be asked to submit to the commission in the shortest possible time acts and decrees destined to insure the execution of the plans outlined in the reports, such acts and decrees being based on the conclusions and texts of the reports.

The commission at a forthcoming meeting will proceed to the nomination of the commissions of organization provided for by the report of the experts' first committee and to the preparation of measures which the report of the first committee leaves to the commission for working out details.

Proctor to Testify

W. W. Tarbell of Connecticut, was recalled and asked by Senator Spencer, republican, his opinion of the oil leases. He previously had given his qualifications as "an experienced oil man."

Before giving his opinion, Tarbell read a statement saying that in his testimony March 24 he stated he had called upon the general manager of the Associated Press in New York and offered an interview about the oil dome for publication, but that he had since learned he had talked to one in a subordinate position.

"In view of the fact that the question asked by Senator Kendrick seems to be perhaps immaterial and certainly my answer irrelevant," said Tarbell, "I suggest that both be expunged from the record."

No action was taken on the request. In the committee session of March 24, Senator Kendrick, democrat, Wyoming, had asked Tarbell why The Associated Press had declined his interview and Tarbell replied: "They said they had so many friends on both sides."

When the committee adjourned, Senator Walsh gave notice that he intended to go into conditions on naval reserve No. 2 in California. It was his intention, he said, to call Assistant Secretary Elmer of the Interior department.

Tarbell assailed the act of June 4, 1920, under which Secretary Daniels leased oil wells in the California reserves. He declared any law placing the reserves "between the finger and thumb of one man is undemocratic."

The witness said undoubtedly the small outflow of oil in Teapot Dome which he characterized as disappointing, had been due to some measure to "drainage on the edge of the reserve."

He concluded that his comment upon conditions on the naval oil reserves was not based upon personal examinations but represented only conclusions reached by him after a study of data he got from newspapers, magazines and other sources.

Tarbell made to the committee what he called a "voluntary statement," reviewing the stock market transactions of various oil companies, being particularly critical in his discussion of what he termed "speculation in Mammoth oil." He asserted that following "the speculation" the stock had been taken from the curb market.

SURGICAL ASSOCIATION

EX-SEN. TURNER DEAD

LITTLETON, N. H., April 17.—Former State Senator George H. Turner of Bethlehem, died at a hospital here today, after an operation. He served as treasurer and later commissioner of Grafton county and was a councillor under former Governor Bass. His wife, a son and three daughters survive him.

EX-MAYOR FRANK DROPS DEAD

PORTLAND, ME., April 17.—William H. Frank, 71, former mayor of Portland, died suddenly today. He was chairman of the local inter-collegiate regatta committee and was a member of the original committee which brought the regatta here in 1896.

WARRANT FOR ARREST OF CHAS. R. FORBES

BALTIMORE, Md., April 17.—Application for a bench warrant for the arrest of Charles R. Forbes, former director of the veterans' bureau, was made today by District Attorney Woodcock, and it was expected to be issued later in the day. This action followed the indictment of Forbes on a charge of conspiracy to defraud the government in the sale of government supplies worth $3,188,000, to the Thomson-Kelly Co., of New York, and Boston, for a price reported to be less than $600,000. Nathan Thomson, head of the purchasing company, and Commander Charles H. O'Leary, U.S.N., indicted jointly with Forbes, probably will be arraigned for plea next Tuesday, Col. Woodcock said. He had no knowledge of Forbes' present whereabouts, he added.

Testimony Directly Denies Charges Against Wheeler

"The Lincoln permit" telegram from Campbell to Wheeler, as put in the record reads: "Please advise when you expect to return. Believe matter of Lincoln permit vitally important. Is it possible you can discuss matter with solicitor and I can come to Washington and discuss matters with him with view to satisfactory settlement even during your absence. Feel this permit should have prompt attention."

This reply was sent to Campbell. "Have already discussed permit with solicitor, but did not have numbers. Wire that to me and I will arrange to have you see him in person if you come here."

"I will state," interposed Senator Wheeler when the telegram was read, "that that telegram was sent from my office in my absence, but I take full responsibility for it."

Campbell said he did confer with Solicitor Booth and the latter had told him he should employ Washington lawyers to represent him before the interior department. He followed that suggestion, he added, reiterating that Senator Wheeler had never "appeared" for him before the interior or any other government department.

Copies of correspondence between Campbell's land attorney in Great Falls and his land attorney in Washington, were produced. The originals had been taken from his office in Great Falls "by the government," he said.

"How did the government take them?" Senator Borah asked.

"Just took 'em," said Campbell. "They worked a whizzer on my office force."

Campbell then testified that various departments of justice and postoffice people had taken the papers from his office, included in the group being the postmaster of Great Falls, whose name he did not know.

"They worked a very high-handed game," Campbell said, adding that he had previously told officials who called at his office on the case that he would give them any information they wanted.

Senator Borah called for Solicitor Booth when Campbell was excused, but as the interior department official was not in the room, James H. Baldwin, Wheeler's law partner, was put on the stand.

The law firm's books showing payments made to the firm by Campbell in the cases in which it represented him were produced by Baldwin, who gave also details of the state court cases. He said he understood that "The Standard Oil and its subsidiaries" were trying to get control of the Montana oil field involved in the 19 cases in which the Wheeler-Baldwin firm represented Campbell.

"Was there anything pending in your office relative to Mr. Campbell's affairs requiring you to appear before the interior department or the local land officer?" asked Borah.

"Absolutely not," Baldwin replied.

Baldwin corroborated Campbell's statement as to the employment of Senator Wheeler to represent Campbell in the courts in Montana. He said the fee was $10,000 a year, with agreement that Campbell should pay expenses. Two payments had been made, the witness said, "one on account of the fee and one for expenses."

"Coming to the first $2,000 payment," for?

The witness said it was for representing Campbell solely in the state courts.

Campbell had been unable to pay on the basis of the original contract with the firm, he said, but the firm was "going right on," representing him because "he is on the rocks and needs help." Campbell owes the firm about $6000, the lawyer said, under the old contract for fees and expenses, and if he "won out" he would be asked to pay.

The witness added that "Wheeler and I" resented advice services to Campbell as a "contribution" to the cause of "progressive politics" in Montana.

"It's always open season on progressive politicians in Montana," he remarked.

Baldwin said that while there was no written contract with Campbell or letter giving the terms of that verbal agreement, there was a letter from Wheeler because of his spots membership could appear only in the most important state cases.

"There never has been any litigation except in state courts," Senator Borah asked.

"None but in state courts," said Baldwin.

Baldwin was excused and the committee adjourned until 2:30 p. m.

NEW YORK, April 17.—The resignation of Dr. Mary Mills Patrick, founder of Constantinople Woman's college and for 34 years its president, was announced today by the executive committee of the Near East college. She will be succeeded by Miss Kathryn Newell Adams, a member of the faculty.

NO CHANGE IN PERSONNEL OF LOWELL'S MOTORCYCLE POLICE SQUAD

WALTER L. KIVLAN

FRANK H. MURPHY

DANIEL M. LYNCH

BERNARD L. JUDGE

CHARLES A. HAMILTON

The personnel of Lowell's motorcycle police squad will be the same as last year, Supt. Atkinson announced today. This means that within a short time, next week, perhaps, the following officers will resume their activities on the highways: Walter L. Kivlan, Charles A. Hamilton, Frank H. Murphy, Bernard Judge, Andrew W. Hunter and Daniel M. Lynch. Each of the above officers has been doing special work since the motorcycles were "called in" last November. On Saturday last, bids for new motorcycles were opened in the city purchasing agent's office, and Edward J. Bellerose has been named to supply the department with six brand new Harley-Davidson machines. The superintendent and the officers have selected special police models, which are expected to be delivered early next week. With the resumption of motorcycle activities, there are likely to be a few changes in the department. The superintendent was not prepared this morning to make any statement concerning any possible changes. Officer Hunter's transfer from the liquor squad, to motorcycle duty leaves a vacancy in Capt. Palmer's department, and it has not been decided who will fill the position.

NEW COLONIAL HOUSE

May Be Seen at Smithsonian Institute at Washington, D. C.

WASHINGTON, April 17.—New Englanders visiting the famous Smithsonian Institution here now have an opportunity of viewing a colonial room exactly as it would have appeared in New England during 1750 to 1780. The room is on view through the generosity of Mrs. Gertrude D. Ritter of Washington.

This is not the usual reconstruction of a room of colonial type; it is the room itself, the beautifully paneled walls, the fire place and mantel, the corner cupboard, and the doors having been taken bodily from the old

Bliss house in Springfield, Mass., dating 1750 to 1765. The furniture, rug, wall hangings and decorations have been selected piece by piece by Mrs. Ritter, with the thought constantly in mind of faithfully showing in every detail an actual room of that particular period of our colonial days. "The assembling of this room and its exhibition in the United States National Museum at Washington," said a statement issued today by the Smithsonian institution, of which the museum is a bureau, "is the first step in Mrs. Ritter's plan to present to the Smithsonian institution, of which the true colonial house, containing this typical room and others, similarly artistic and accurate. The whole will present to the hundreds of thousands of Americans from every part of the country who visit the Smithsonian and the National museum every year a vivid picture of how our forefathers lived in those early historic times, and by stimulating interest in their mode of living, will make our early American history a more vital thing."

PROCLAMATION ISSUED BY PRES. COOLIDGE

WASHINGTON, April 17.—President Coolidge has issued a proclamation designating the week of April 21-27 as Forest Protection Week. It reads as follows:

A PROCLAMATION Whereas, it is essential to the continued comfort, welfare and prosperity of the people of the United States that abundant forests, widely distributed and maintained in a condition of high productivity, be forever wisely conserved as one of our greatest natural resources; and Whereas, because of our constantly increasing need for wood and other forest products, together with our past failure to provide for reforestation, we are drawing upon our supplies of timber four times as fast as they are renewed through growth; and Whereas, the most formidable agency of forest destruction and prevention of reforestation is fire and, of the fires which annually devastate vast areas, four-fifths are ascribed in origin to human agencies and virtually all may be controlled and made innocuous through prudence, care and vigilance; Therefore, I, Calvin Coolidge, President of the United States, do urge upon the governors of the various states to designate and set apart the week of April 21-27, 1924, as Forest Protection Week, and, wherever practicable and not in conflict with state law or accepted customs, to celebrate Arbor Day within that week. I also urge all citizens, either in association or as individuals, all schools, and the press of the land to give common thought to the protection of our forests from fire, to the end that in the future as in the past, these forests may supply us with wood, protect the purity of our streams, and otherwise serve the people of the United States. In Witness Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the seal of the United States to be affixed. Done at the City of Washington this 16th day of February, in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and twenty-four, and of the Independence of the United States of America the one hundred and forty-eighth.

CALVIN COOLIDGE, By the President: CHARLES E. HUGHES, Secretary of State.

FRATERNAL NEWS

A "Grandmothers' night" was observed by the British-American Social club last evening after the regular business meeting. A large number of guests were present and an enjoyable entertainment program was given by the following: Mrs. Clerk, Mrs. Riggs, Mrs. Blakely, Mrs. Stevenson, Mrs. Buchanan, Mrs. Atkinson, Mrs. Ianson and Mrs. Taylor.

Plans for the celebration of the 105th anniversary of the I.O.O.F. were completed at a meeting of Highland-Veritas lodge last evening. The anniversary will be celebrated jointly by Highland-Veritas and Highland-Linton Rebekah lodge in Highland hall next Wednesday evening. The regular business session was given over to the transaction of routine business and was followed by an enjoyable social hour.

Lowell Commandery, Knights of Malta, met Tuesday evening in Odd Fellows hall, Middlesex st. A sports committee was named as was a committee to confer with the Boy Scouts concerning the celebration of "Pine day." It was voted to attend services at the Lawrence Street P. M. church on Sunday, May 25. The Malta degree will be conferred Tuesday, May 20, and will be in charge of the recently appointed degree master, Senior Warden James H. Walton.

A business meeting of Lowell Aerie, Fraternal Order of Eagles, was held Tuesday evening in Eagles' hall with Worthy President Thomas P. Quinn in the chair. Ten applications for membership were received and ten candidates initiated. A committee of five was named to make preparations for the observance of Armistice day, Flag day and Mothers' day. Members of the local aerie were invited to attend a mass meeting in New Bedford next Sunday. Officers for the coming year were nominated and the election will be held at the next meeting. The meeting went on record as endorsing the membership raid of Lowell post, American Legion.

The following officers were installed at a meeting of the Y.M.H.A. Juniors Monday evening: President, Bernard Gerson; vice president, Hyman Greenbaum; recording secretary, David Bloom; financial secretary, Myer G. Green; treasurer, David Zall.

Committees for the year were named as follows: Social, Edward Freedman, chairman, James Cantor, Morris Cohen; athletic, George Bloom, chairman; Harry L. Brand, Noyor Greene; entertainment, Herbert Faber, chairman; William Sood, Harold Cohen; admission, Hyman Brown, chairman; educational, Hyman Kaplan, chairman; David Kaplan Haskell Ostroff; publicity, William Sood.

Loving cups were presented William R. Sydeman, dramatic director, and Max Cohen, director of the club, for their services during the past year.

Following the business meeting an extensive program of entertainment was given under the direction of Morris Cohen, Harold Brand and James Cantor.

Tuesday evening in Grosvenor hall, the regular meeting of the Ladies Auxiliary, A.O.U., was held with President Catherine Gaffney in the chair. Reports of progress were made by several committees and Mrs. Annie O'Grady reported on a cake sale held April 4. A rising vote of thanks was tendered Mrs. O'Grady and the meeting also went on record as thanking the Gagnon company, James Hogan, James J. McManmon and Marlin Lydon for their assistance on this occasion.

FUNERAL NOTICES

ERWIN—Markaret E. (Condon) Erwin died at her home in North Chelmsford April 16. Funeral services will be held at St. John's church, North Chelmsford, at 10.15 o'clock tomorrow and not at the home, as previously announced. Burial in Calvary cemetery, Gloucester.

Printed voiles come in patterns and colors quite as gorgeous and elaborate as one sees on the most expensive silk.

DESTROY BENCHES ON SOUTH COMMON

An act of vandalism in the South common, committed some time between 1 o'clock and daylight on Tuesday morning has incensed the personnel of the park department and spurred police into the conduct of a rigid investigation.

Fifteen new benches set out only this spring and extending in a diagonal line from the Hood factory to Highland street were almost completely ruined, the slats of both seats and backs being shattered by heavy blows presumably from an axe. Authorities have no clues.

SPORTS FROCK The boyish flannel sports frock is sometimes completely without sleeves and frequently has its accompanying cape or short box coat.

COLONIAL CASH MARKET

140 GORHAM STREET

You can get a new Glenwood TODAY and pay for it month by month

THERE'S no reason why you should not enjoy the advantages of having a Glenwood Range right now. Why put up with an unsatisfactory worn-out stove month after month when you could be using and paying for a Glenwood at your convenience?

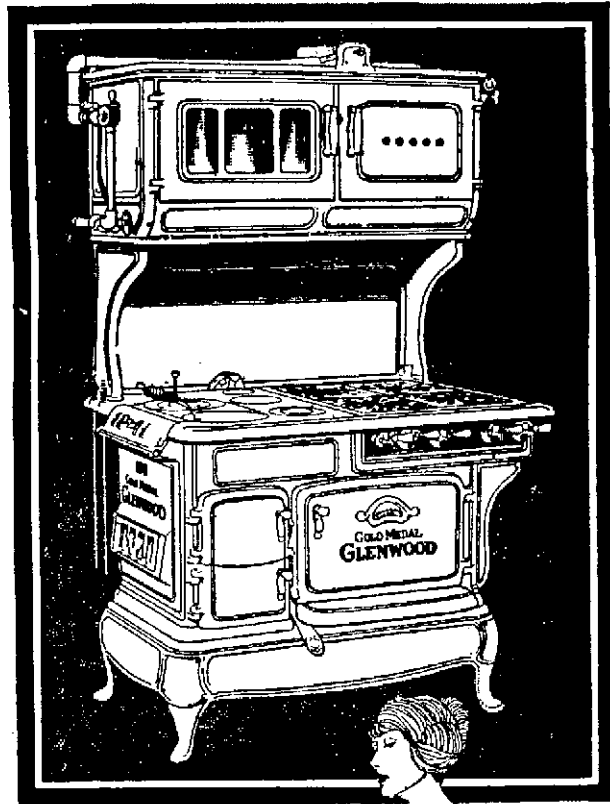

We shall be glad to tell you how this arrangement can be made and we will allow you whatever your old range is worth in exchange.

You'll find that the economy of cooking with a modern Glenwood mounts up in a real saving of fuel, food and time.

The Gold Medal Glenwood

This is one of the largest and newest Glenwood models. It gives you all the conveniences of two complete ranges in one,—a perfect combination of gas and coal.

Equipped with the Glenwood Robertshaw Oven Heat Control. Finished in pearl-gray porcelain enamel or plain black.
